AUSTIN G. L. TRIBUTE. FOITOR AND PROP

Warden's Excursion a Pleasant Outing (Brockville Times)

Andrew M. Ferguson, Warden of the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, must have an understanding with the weather man or else is a wizard with the power of regulating the elements to fit his purpose. In any event he picked a beautiful day for the annual Warden's outing at a time when it seemed impossible that there would be any more fine weather in the near future. Warden Ferguson is certainly some entertainer and nothing was left undone yesterday to ensure the pleasure and comfort of his guests who comprised the members of the Counties Council and a number of prominent public men of the counties.

The steamer Mississquoi, under the command of Capt. Carnegie, carried the party through the islands to Gananoque and the steamer was found very commodious and comfortable while the captain and crew were very obliging.

A beautiful sail through the islands. passing close to Alexandria Bay and weaving in and out of the narrow channels where the scenery is the prettiest, was thoroughly enjoyed by all present and when Gananoque was reached appetites were sharp for the splendid dinner waiting at the Inter-national Hotel. Mayor O'Connor, of Gananoque, Reeve David Darling and Deputy Reeve W. J. Wilson, entertained the visitors to an automobile ride about the town and gave them an opportunity to inspect the splendid dairy farm of W. S. MacDouald, adjacent to the town. Mr. MacDonald received the visitors very hospitably and showed them through the various buildings of his splendidly equipped farm which is known as "Maplecroft.

Leaving Gananoque another pleas ant sail down the Canadian channel brought the party to Rockport where supper was served at the Island View Hotel, which is beautiful situated upon a rocky knoll with a beautiful view of the St. Lawrence river.

After leaving Rockport an imprompta meeting was held on the steamer with Dr. Preston acting as chairman and speeches were made congratulating the Warden for the great success of his outing and expressing the apreciation of the quests for the pleasure which the trip had effored. The speakers were as follows:

A. E. Donovan, M. P. P., Wm. Holmes, H. N. Stinson, J M. Stone, Judge Dowsley, Rev. Mr. Wright, T. A. Thompson, E. A. Cook, N. Webster T. A. Kidd, M. B. Holmes, David Darling. Warden Ferguson made an appropriate reply.

SLAVS HOLD BUKOWINA

Entire Crownland in Possession of Russian Forces.

General Brussiloff's Forces Now Occupy Kimpolung and the Capture of 60 Officers and 2,000 Men is Reported-Austrians Have Fallen Back to Defend the Mountain Passes-Southern Advance Slack-

LONDON, June 26.—The occupa-tion by the Russians of the whole of the Austrian Crown land of Bukowina, rendered inevitable early fast Friday by the capture of three vital railway intersections in the northwest, centre and south of the prov-ince, became actually complete the same night with the fall of Kimpo-lung, in the hilly region of the south-west of the Crown lands, not office illy announced, however, until Sunday night. Wit's the city and railway station the victors captured 60 officers and 2,000 men, the largest num ber of prisoners taken by Gen. Brus-siloff for some days.

The Russian official report reads: "On the evening of June 23 the town of Kimpolung was taken after intense fighting. Sixty officers and 2,000 men were made prisoner. In the railway station whole trains were captured. With the capture of the towns of Kimpolung and Kuty we took possession of the whole of Bu-kowina."

The entire north-western frontier of Roumania is now lined with Russian troops. The Austro-Hungarian forces, whose positions in the Buko wina became untenable with the fall of Czernowitz, under the screen of stubborn rearguard fighting, have gradually retreated westward, and are now well in the thick of the Car-pathian mountains once more face to face with Muscovite onslaughts against the mountain passes that onslaughts form the doors to Hungary. The Russian drive toward these passes has already been set under way, with the Czernowitz-Kolomea and Czernowitz-Kuty lines as bases of operation. West of Shiatyn, on the former railway, the Russians Sunday took two small villages, Kilikhof, and Toulok-

Gen. Brussiloff's advance in the is slackening considerably, however, pending the outcome of the battle in Volhynia and Galicia. In neither theatre have his forces been able to resume their advance which carried them far toward Kovel and Brody respectively. On the whole Volhynian and Galician front the battle which began with the Austro-German counter attacks a week ago, is still raging without either side making any substantial gains. Nor have the Teutons succeeded in devel-oping to any noticeable degree the flanking movement heralded by the press of the central empires as the "doom" of General Brussiloff's southern wing.

Russians Make Gains. LONDON, June 26.—The Petrograd report on operations on the Caucasus front says:

"In the Trebizond sector, in the region of Madourtiret Tene the Turks at dawn on Thursday took the offensive, which our advance guard repulsed with heavy enemy losses, many prisoners being left in our hands. Our aeroplanes successfully bombar ed Mamakhatum."

The Constantinople War Office issues this report:

"Caucasian front: On the left wing our troops on June 22, after a bayonet assault captured the greater part of the Russian points of support over a distance of 2,000 yards on the mountain chain north of the Chorokh River. The enemy for some time had displayed great activity and had orspiayed great activity and had fortified this section strongly.

"We also improved our position further to the south. The Russians made great efforts to capture the lost positions, but were repulsed with heavy losses. We captured 500 prisoners and took a great number of tents and quantities of breadstuffs."

tents and quantities of breadstuffs."
Sunday's Petrograd official says:
"We repulsed the Turks Friday night west of Platana. The same night they dislodged us from a convent in the region of Djivizlyk, but finally by our counter-attack they were driven out, and all subsequent attacks by the enemy were repulsed with heavy losses. We also repulsed all Turkish attacks south-east of Dwivitzlyk, where we captured a great quantity of arms."

Another German Attack on Le Mort Homme Has Been Repulsed-British Section of Line is Now Point of Interest Where Sir Douglas Haig Reports a Heavy Bom-bardment Which May Indicate a

LONDON, June 26.—Some of the ground lost to the Germans in the big assault on Friday was retaken by the French, who have pushed their lines up to the Thiaumont work, west of the Meuse and in the region of Verdun. The Germans penetrated into some houses in the outskirts of Fleury, but the French made some progress against the enemy in the outskirts of this village. The French also repulsed an attack of the enemy the region of Le Mort Homme. The Germans intensely bombarded the French lines in the sector of Hill 321, north-east of Froi de Terre and in the Chapitre and Chenois woods. Throughout the day no infantry action was fought in the Verdun re-

The report reads: "In the region The report reads: "In the region from south of La Bassee canal to beyond the Somme the enemy develop-ed and continued day and night unbroken, lively activity. He also bombarded Lens and its neighborhood with heavy fire and discharged gas without success over our lines in the region of Beaumont Hamel, north of Albert."

Sunday night's despatch from Sir Douglas Haig does not indicate that the bombardment referred to in the German official report has any espe-cial significance. It merely reports that the artillery has continued to be very active along the whole front and that mutual artillery actions have taken place at many points.
