During the first half of August two important Ontario railway towns celebrated their Old Home Week and held pageants illustrative of their local histories and industrial activities. These were North Bay and South Falls, both of which held their days and were the meeting points for thousands of railroad men, who assisted in the pioneering work of the districts. The Old Home Week of North Bay marked the graduation of that town to full-fledged city status.

walls, and of her only son the late Frank T. Borden.

She also made a bequest of $200.00 to the Baptist Ministers' Annuity, and $200.00 to the Port Williams Baptist church, of which she was a member. Mrs. Borden, who was a daughter of Mr. Jesse Lewis Bishop, lived most of her life since her marriage on the old farm, Belcher Street, Cornwallis, but for the past six years has lived in Greenwich at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. J. Borden, Mrs. J. L. Read, Rev. Raleigh H. Bishop, of Greenwich, Rev. C. W. W. Bishop, of Chester, Pa., and Rev. Geo. L. Bishop, of Wolfville, are her living brothers and sisters.

The funeral at the home on Saturday was conducted by her pastor, Rev. O. N. Chipman, assisted by Rev. C. H. Martel and Rev. A. N. Marshall, D.D., of Wolfville. Music furnished by a quartette from Port Williams Baptist church was most suitable, and the closing selection, "Good Night, Beloved", was very touching indeed. Beautiful flowers by loving friends showed that unfeeling human sympathy which such an occasion always brings forth. The burial was at Canard.

OPEN ALL NIGHT

"Open All Night", a new Paramount picture, adapted by Willis Goldbeck from the stories by Paul Moran, and produced by Paul Moran, shows next Wednesday and Thursday at the Orpheum Theatre.

For originality of theme, for novelty of settings and background, for shrewd direction and excellent acting, the picture is a gem.
