flurries, the passengers were promised a pleasant voyage. The Macassa will make one trip each way a day.

The 24-hour gale from the cast made things very wild at the Beach last night. The waves rolled high up on the lake shore, and scooped the usually sloping beach out in great caves. The water ran very high, and completely washed away all the post and wire fencing which the Toronto & Niagara Railway Company erected, from the Beach road to beyond Dynes. Had there been a railway on this right of way the tracks would have been undermined.

The east wind also sent the water through the canal into the bay like a river.
