DESTRUCTION OF LAGOS, ON THE COAST OF AFRICA, BY THE BRITISH SQUADRON.

Accounts have been received during the week, announcing the almost total destruction of the town of Lagos by the beats of the British squadron on the 26th and 27th of December, the English reasels sustaining a loss of 25 killed and 71 wounded, five of whom died subsequently, making in all 30 killed. The ships engaged in the attack were the Penelope, Bloodhound, Sampson, and some others; and the great loss of the English squadron was occasioned by the Bloodhound, having grounded on a sandbank within range of a battery of 13 gains.

others; and the great toes or the Lagress — another within range of a battery of 13 gans.

The heatile proceedings were undertaken in consequence of the refusal of the King or Chief of Lagos to sign a treaty for the effectual suppression of the slave trade in his dominions. It was accordingly determined to attack the place, and, after two days' fighting the object was accomplished and the place nearly destroyed, an immense number of the natives being killed. The Chief, or King, has a loo been deposed, and another substituted. The wounded on the side of the British in the action are stated to be doing well.

AUSTRALIA—THE GOLD FIELDS.

Accounts received via India by the Overland Mail, to the beginning of November, state that throughout all the Australian colonies great excitement was created by the announcement of gold been discovered at Melbourne, Port Phillip (now called Victoria), in such abandance as to leave the Sidney "diggings" quite in the shade. A complete reaction had taken place, to the great injury of the sister colonies, which were daily being desterted by all classes of labourers, who were hurrying away to the new El Dorado: thousands were on their way; and even from California large numbers were lared by the reputed wealth of the Victoria province. From all accounts the Melbourne diggings are inenhaustible, whilst the daily yield to each man exceeds greatly the quantities which rendered California we remarkable at first. About 10,000 diggers were at work at the mines at the end of Cotober, and the average yield or earnings of each digger was from 1½ to 1½ oz. of gold per man per day. The towns of Melbourne and Geelong, at the last,mentioned date, were deserted by the male sex. Their only! population consisted of females. Flocks, herds, workshops, and the fields were all deserted by men, who preferred the moderate luck of £20 to £100 per day at the diggings, to tolling for a whole week for as many shillings. Government escorts had been established to protect the treasure in its transit to town, the daily amount transported being from 2000 to 3000 ounces. On October 257, for instance, the arrival of gold under escort from the neighborhood of Melbeurne was 88 lb. 11 oz. 4 dwiss, and 136 lb. 9 oz. 16 grs. from the Geelong and Ballarat digdings, or a total of 2705 oz. 4 dwis. 16 grs. The quantity will increase with the increase of the diggers, and some idea may be formed of the rate at which this was going on, from the fact that on October 25, no less than 299 stercage passengers arrived at Melbourne by four different vessels from Van Diemen's Land. As an instance of indiv dual success, it is mentioned th AUSTRALIA-THE GOLD FIELDS.

From Adelaide (South Australia) news to November 13, mentions the discovery of small pieces of gold taken from a piece of quartz found in a district on the Torcens, about nine miles from Adelaide. Gold in the pure granular form, and of superior quality, has long and frequently been found in the province, but hitherto in such quantities as not to be a sufficient incentive for a more vigorous search. A subscription is now on foot to be given to the first discoverer of a gold field in South Australia. At Adelaide, on Oct. 16, a jeweller bought a quantity of gold from one of the settlers; whence it came is a secret, but it is supposed to have been collected from the banks or sands of some of the neighbouring streams.

The Hamilton Spectator C. W., says, the tusks and jaw-bone of an elephant were recently dag up by some labourers on the section of the Great Western Railroad which passes through the Burlington heights near that city. This is considered the most wonderful discovery of the duy.—The Elephant is to be found but in India and Africa, and how the monster could have made his way into the very heart of America is a question worthy of investigation. The bank is which it was found is a deposit, and thousands of years must have been consumed, in forming the sixty feet of earth and gravel, which covered the remains.

CALIFORNIA.—Great-excitement existed at Downiegville in consequence of the discoveries of now mines of gold-bearing quartz in that vicinity. Six different veies have been turned up within ten days, the ore from which is said to be exceedingly rich.

AN ENGLISH SUBJECT.—An old gentleman, by the name of Barton, recently died at Milford, Pike county, Pa., who was born in New Jersey in 1762, and had never renounced his allegiance to the British government. At the time of the revolution, he held a lieutenant's commission. He died a subject and possioner of the

YOUR BABIES NOT MY BABIES.—About thirty-five years ago, there resided in the town of Hebron, a certain Dr. T.—, who became very much enamered of a beautiful young lady in the same town. In due course of time they were engaged to be married. The doctor was a strong and decided Preselyterian, and his lady-love as strong and decided a Baptist. They were sitting together one evening, talking of their approaching nuptials, when the doctor remarked—"I am thinking my dear, of two events which I shall number among the happiest of my life."—"And pray, what may they be, doctor?" asked the lady. "One is the hour when I shall call you my wife for the first time." "And the other, if you please?" "It is whom we shall present our first-born for lamptism." "What, sprinkled?" "Yes, my dear, sprinkled." "Never shall a child of mine be sprinkled!" "Every child of mine shall be sprinkled." "They shall be, ha!" "Yes, my love." "Well, sir, I can tell you then, that your babies won't be my babies. So, good night sir." The lady left the room—and the doctor left the house. The sequel to this true story is, that the doctor never married, and the sequel to this true story is, that the doctor never married, and the Parson Green is in the habit, sometimes, of drawing upon a barrel of sermons, bequeathed him by his father, who was also a minister.—Upon one occasion he got hold of a sermon, by mistake, which the old gentleman had once preached to the State Prison convicts. It opened well, and the congregation were becoming deeply interested, when all at once the parson surprised them with the information, that "had it not been for the desirance of the Gregorie were once if the control have the elemency of the Governor, every one of them would he been hung a long time ago!"

DON'T DIRTY MY STOCKINGS.—A story is told of a rustic youth and country girl, who sat facing each other at the supper table. The youth, smitten with the charms of the beautiful maid, only vented his passion in sly looks, and now and then touching Patty's toe with his flot under the table. The girl, either fearful of the purity of her stockings, or determined to make the youth expression the appeared so warmly to feel, here with his advances a little while in silence, when she cried out, "Look here, if you love me, tell me so, but don't dirty my stockings."

Dr. Basswax, in his "Essay on Woman," remarks with some truth, that "beauties generally die old maids. They set such a value on themselves," he says, "that they don't find a purchaser until the market is closed. Out of a dozen beauties who have come out within the last eighteen years cleven still occupy single beds. They spend their days in working green dogs on yellow wool—while their evenings are devected to low spirits and French novale." A clever writer says, that the great score of woman's accountacy is to be found in the fact, that was not looking that woman looks up to him and thinks him perfect; and, in his gratitude for her blind admiration, returns for the compliment of thinking her jedg-

Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway;
Sir,—Your Pills and Obsessed have stood the highest on our mile list of Proprietary Beld-times for some years. A chotomer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particular of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disandered liver, and had digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarening, and the inflammation set in so servicely, that doubts were entertained of her out leng able to bear up under it; fiften tunately she was induced to try your Fills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Bickes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have seet you many toore cases, but the above, from the sewerity of the attack, and the speedy care, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Fills.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to lear testimony to the good effects of Hollowny's Pills. For some years I suffered everely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am S4 years of age and notwithstanding my accuraced state of life, these Pilis have so relived me, that I am destrous that others should be made acquainted with their virues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sidney, New South Wates, dated Pebruary 25, 1851.

S1R,—A Mr. Thoman Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hoselves, and any flittler efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a firest frecommended him to try Itollouspit Pills, and sen forforn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relact, he therefore persevered in taking then uccording to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great plansare in confirming this statement, or even make an affiliavit to the same effect, should it be required.
