POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

It is not a final offence to wear a straw hat at this time of the year regardless of the weather.

Abbe Casgrain it was who wrote: "The flower of illusions does not grow on a heart's ruins."

Even with frost on the first of June the western farmer is optimistic. He must be a lineal descendant of Mark Tapley.

A glance at the society columns will convince the most skeptical that the late spring has not interfered with the marriage crop, at any rate.

Flying across the English channel is getting so common that our best people will soon regard it as almost vulgar.

A correspondent who advises that the kiss is permitted to stay, has issued words of wisdom, for the kiss was going to stay anyway.

When he loses his job as editor Teddy may still be able to make a tidy living by hanging out his shingle as an "International Advisor."

It is calculated to make one envious to read in the English papers that the strawberries are selling on the streets of London at sixpence per pound.

A man with a bullet in his head says he had much difficulty in convincing the Montreal constable that he was shot. The constable thought he was only half shot.

What is one man's hobby may be another man's nightmare.

A Brooklyn man complains that his wife plays poker continually. Probably on his head.

Manufacturers of Racine, Wis., who have been having trouble in their foundries because of the strike of molders, have decided to put on a force of women strike-breakers. The women are being employed as core-makers, and are to get the pay which the men refused to take. One of the factories has already begun changing its buildings to allow women places to wash and dress.

What will Toronto do without Goldwin Smith to appeal to for an opinion whenever a world event takes place?

Roosevelt's enemies would like to see him tied down to the presidency of a university, if not as the supervisor of a deaf and dumb school.

The Illinois Central railroad is suing its employees for grafting $2,000,000 on contracts. What school have these employees been attending?

Birmingham, Eng., with a population of 549,000, has only six fire engines, and the losses from fire last year aggregated only $215,333.

France supplies many of the flower bulbs that formerly came from Holland. A more recent competitor is the Puget Sound region in this country.

High atmospheric pressure is the cause of persons not doing manual labor has been found to act as a mental stimulus, increasing the impulse to talk.

Since the discovery was made in Canada, a year or so ago, that the muskrat could be treated and dyed to imitate seal so nearly as to avoid detection, the price of its pelts has doubled.

The night and day bank of New York, by its action in closing the bank hereafter, from midnight to 3 a. m., shows that New York is just a degree less wide open than some thought.

An Ohio paper says that more men in the street cars have the paper open at the sporting page than at the church page. Ridiculous. The man who wrote that was no journalist. There is no Church page.

In connection with the death of Gen. Butler it is interesting to note that forty years ago Lord Wolseley and he were both in service in Canada, that Wolseley was only five years his superior, and that the senior was then a colonel, while the junior was a captain. They were afterwards together in the Ashanti war.

One of the regulations of the Canadian immigration department requires that immigrants shall have "railway transportation to their ultimate destination." From what some of the newspapers say about some of the immigrants we opine that there are no railways connecting with their "ultimate destination."

DOWN LOVER'S LANE
They strolled along; her cheeks were red;

The same old whispers and sighs,
"The night has a thousand eyes," he said,

As he gazed at the starry skies,
She glanced at the windows all minus of light;

Strange heads were seen everywhere,
And she whispered: "We don't mind the eyes of the night,"

But we do mind the neighbors, there."

FIVE WEEKS WITH THE FRUIT GROWERS

A. G. Turney, Provincial Horticulturist, returned ten days ago from a five weeks tour among the illustration orchards and fruit growers. The Government orchards at Andover, Stanley, Doaktown Chatham, Tetsagouche, Balmoral and Buctouche were visited and pruned and a number of trees replanted. New illustration orchards were set at Little Shemogue, Westmorland Co. and Plaster Rock. All the illustration orchards have been pruned with the exception of those at New Bandon, Kingston and Upper Queensbury. Five hundred trees were planted and pruned on the farm of Philibert Depres, Comberville, Kent Co. Five hundred trees belonging to Stanislas Cormier, at Aboufajane, Westmorland County, were pruned and assistance in planting and pruning private orchards given in the counties of Kings, Victoria and Carleton. The trees are in bloom exceptionally early this year and in some localities slight damage from frost is reported. As an instance of the early season the eggs of the tent caterpillar were reported hatched April 27th. The insect and the larva of the bud moth are increasing steadily from year to year and spraying will have to be more generally adopted if their ravages are to be checked.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

T. J. Durick desires to announce to the readers of UNION ADVOCATE that he has secured the agency for Parisian Sage, the marvelous dandruff cure and delightful hair dressing. T. J. Durick is glad to state that Parisian Sage is a rigidly guaranteed hair restorer. It cures dandruff in two weeks by killing the dandruff microbes; it stops fall hair; it cures all scalp diseases, or money back. It is a most pleasant hair dressing especially for ladies, as it makes the hair soft and lustrous. The price is only 50 cents a large bottle at T. J. Durick's or by express, all charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont.

THE ENDLESS CHAIN

"What makes the hogs so high, sir?" I asked the butcher-on-parade. "The corn, the blooming corn, sir," is what the butcher said. "What makes the corn so high, sir?" I asked the farmer wise. "The hogs, the blooming hogs, sir," and he laughed and winked both eyes.

KILLED BY A BULL

William Cameron, a well known farmer, of Upper Hampstead, was killed by a three year old bull on Wednesday. The bull was very wild, and a few days before had attacked a young lad Mr. Cameron was one of those who helped to pull the bull away. On Wednesday Mr. Cameron was found lying dead in the field where the bull was kept. He was terribly battered, and was almost unrecognizable. It is supposed that the bull attacked a yoke of oxen which Mr. Cameron was driving through the field, and that when the bull attacked the oxen, he attempted to drive it away. The people nearby are shocked by the occurrence, and several farmers who have vicious bulls have decided to get rid of them. Mr. Cameron's funeral took place Thursday.—Globe.

COMPACT QUARTERS

It was the tiniest of tiny flats. "Yes, sir," said the maid, "the stork arrived with a fine baby boy." "Great Josephus," exclaimed Mr. Flattie, who had been away on a trip. "That means more room. Have you hung the broom in the air shaft?" "Yes, sir." "And trimmed the leaves of the plant down to one-half their normal size?" "Yes, sir." "Then take the pet dog to the fancies and have his tail cut off. We must economize room some way." "Thank goodness it was not twins."
