An Ottawa despatch says that Mr. Sturges, the Canadian agent at Charlottetown, reports the apple crop in Norway ruined, and that there is a splendid opening for Canadian fruit, especially Balthazars.

The widow Cameron's barn at Augustus Cove, was completely destroyed by fire on Thursday morning last. The horse, pigs, harness, hay, hens and ducks were consumed in the barn. The fire, says the Patriot, is thought to be the work of an incendiary, and further developments are expected.

THERE was a very large attendance at the market yesterday and business in the City was lively. The prevailing prices were: Oats, 28 cents; potatoes 23 to 25 cents; hay $3 to $5 per ton, mangles and turnips, of which there was an abundant supply sold at 10 to 12 cents a bushel, eggs, 12 cents a dozen.

We regret to learn of the death of Dr. Edmund Walsh, which took place at Cambridge, Mass. on Thursday last. Dr. Walsh was a native of Summerville in this Province and had practiced his profession as a Cambridge for a number of years. The body has been taken to the Island for interment, and the funeral takes place at Verdon River tomorrow morning.

THE SYDNEY, C. B. Record reports that a fisherman who arrived lately from Labrador states that on Sept. 23rd. Two feet of snow fell on the Labrador coast. Such a heavy fall of snow has rarely or never been known to take place so early. From the 20th of August to the 25th of September the coast was being continually swept with fierce gales preventing boats from going to the grounds. Not for 30 years has there been such stormy weather experienced.

Two passenger cars went over an embankment on the short line near Scott's burn, N. S., Saturday. No one was killed. Donald Campbell, Plainfield, had his hand cut. There were only eight passengers on the train. Conductor Rose received slight injuries and his hands were considerably burned while rescuing a woman whose clothes took fire by the stove upsetting and setting the car on fire. The accident was caused by a broken car wheel.

At noon Saturday, during the absence of the employer at dinner fire broke out near the main line in the attic of the Moncton Times building and spread rapidly. It destroyed the upper portion and rear of the structure occupied by the Times Printing Co., binder and job department totally destroyed, with the exception of some presses which are damaged. The newspaper presses were saved though the department is gutted—paper stock partially saved. The Times will be able to continue uninterrupted publication.

In the gale of Sunday, the 15th. inst., the schooner Mary, Captain Hare, of Dalhousie, coal laden from Plover for Gaspe, went ashore near Horse Head, the captain and crew clinging with their lives, but losing all their gear and personal effects. She was owned by Charles Powell, of Dalhousie. She was overtaken by the storm when off the Tracadie shore on Saturday when, after springing a leak, she was driven up to Minganish, where she struck a rock. After clearing this the leak increased till she was abandoned, as above stated, on Sunday.

The brigantine Irma, owned by Messrs. Matheson, Thomas and Taylor of Charlottetown, bound for Halifax from the West Indies laden with salt, went ashore on Thursday night last. She struck about half a mile from the shore. The captain and crew had a hard battle for their lives. They were exposed to death all day Sunday. Life boats could not get within 200 yards of the vessel all day. The boat was driven up to Minganish, where she struck a rock. After clearing this the leak increased till she was abandoned, as above stated, on Sunday.

Mary Anderson's Little Boy.

Mary Anderson, who is now Mrs. de Navarro, and lives in England, has allowed herself, her new English home and her two-year-old baby to be photographed for the first time for publication. Some twenty pictures have been made, and the best of these will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. The baby's picture is, of course, the central one of interest.

Obituary.

The many friends of Mary McGuire, of Montreal, were greatly shocked to learn of her death, which took place at Helena, Montana, on the 1st inst. Miss McGuire left Montreal only a few weeks previously, to accompany to Montana her sister, who had been visiting her parents on the island, and died shortly after reaching her destination. May her soul rest in peace.

DEPARTURES from Peking say that several Chinese soldiers attacked a party of English railway engineers on Sunday last at the Marco Polo bridges on the Peking Hankow railway. Two engineers were injured and a railway coolie killed. The situation is serious.

ACCORDING to a recent despatch from Winnipeg, continued wet weather has sadly darkened the prospects of Manitoba farmers of the estimated wheat crop. Of twenty-six million bushels only about eight million have been threshed. It looks as if a great part of the remainder will be most seriously damaged, if not totally destroyed.

We much regret to learn of the death of Mr. John Hagan, which took place yesterday, after a brief illness of paralysis. Mr. Hagan carried on the leading business in company with his brother, and was a most worthy citizen. His death at the early age of 46 years is a sad event. We extend our sympathy to his mother, brother and other relatives.

SERGE Howland McGilivray of the 1st Massachusetts Artillery, arrived here on Saturday night on a visit to his uncle, Lieut. Governor Howland. He has a length of thirty days. He was serving during the late Spanish-American war, and on his return to Chelsea will proceed to Cuba with his regiment.

HARRY VAIL, of St. John deflected John Brennan of Halifax on Wednesday last in the single scull race on Bedford Basin. It was a three mile course, and the contestants were so evenly matched that a tie was expected. Vail, however, succeeded in winning by nearly a length. Time, 22.12. The challenge of Bubar and Barry is paid to be accepted and the race between them and the Lynches will take place next June.

THIS Jamestown, (North Dakota) Alert of the 6th inst., contains the following: A reception was given last night to Father McDonald by the members of the Catholic church. There was a fine musical program, some pleasing numbers being rendered by Mrs. C. A. Klein, Miss Josephine Smith and L. B. Niemeyer. A purse of about $100 was presented to Father McDonald by the parish. This was quite a surprise to him and he responded feelingly to the address of presentation. Father McDonald left this morning for Lisbon where he will have charge of a large congregation. He has been assistant to Father McPhoe for about two years and has made many friends and admirers. He is a young clergyman of ability and promise. While it is a promotion for Father McDonald his parish here will greatly regret to see him go. (The Father McDonald here referred to is the Rev. J. B. McDonald, a native of St. Columba's parish, East Point, who was ordained and left here for the diocese of Jamestown, North Dakota, about two years ago. We congratulate our Rev. friend on his promotion to the charge of an important parish, and hope he may have many years of health to labor in this portion of the Lord's vineyard.)

A Duvall Jeweller's Wife

CURED OF PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND SMOOTHERING SPELLS BY MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. D. E. Langle, Canal Street, Duvall, Ont., whose husband keeps a jewellery store, and is one of the best known and most progressive citizens of Duvall, Ont., gives the following description of her recent experience in the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

"I took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for weak nerves, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, smothering spells at night and sleeplessness. Before I used them I could not get restful sleep, and my nerves were often so unstrung that I would start in alarm at the least noise, and easily worried."

"Last February I commenced taking this valuable medicine, and it proved the right remedy for my weak and shattered nervous system. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills restored my nerves to a strong and healthy condition, gave regular and normal action of the heart, I sleep well now, and am better in every way, and I recommend them heartily to all who suffer as I did."
