

NORTHWEST LETTER.

The Grange-Business Prospects-Bowdler and the River Law.

Montgomery, N. W. T., March 23rd. We in this country have been enjoying a very fine winter, all but the month of January, which was cold. It has been the finest I have seen during five winters.

The emigration prospects are reported good from the old countries. We have between here and the U. S. R. a few Swiss, who came out last season, and who like the country, and there are some 300 or 400 more with tickets bought to arrive in April.

This part of the Northwest was favored by an official visit of Mr. Bowdler, the Lieutenant-Governor, at Whitewood. The good people gathered him a public dinner at $1.25 a piece, also an address of welcome, which also stated some grievances, and wound up by expressing confidence in the way that the Indian affairs are administered.

Mrs. John Ballie is visiting her daughter in Winnipeg. Miss H. H. H. from the United States is visiting at W. Ballie's. James Girvin recently purchased a fine span of horses for a good round sum. He intends farming.

Henry Montgomery returned very recently to our home from the lumber woods and backwoods. J. H. Postland has returned home from a three months' trip to Amber Island, Portsmouth, Kingston, and Napanea. Samuel Kerr had a bee cutting wood last Wednesday. It was the best of the season. He got about sixty cords of wood.
