JUDGE'S COURT. - James Trengrove was, on Wednesday last charged, before His Honer Judge Toms with horse-stealing by Wm Cornish, of Usberne. It appears that Trengrove and Cornish had traded horses and the agreement was that if the former was dissatisfied he could return the animal he got to Cornical trades of the c nish any time inside of a week. He did not do so within the time specified, but subsequently, at night, went to Cornish'a barn and took his own horse, leaving the other. The judge decided that there was no felony in the transaction, and Trengrove was discharged.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES. - Next Sabbath evangelistic services will commence in the North-at Methodist Church. The pastor will be assisted by the Rev David Savage. Mr Savage is a minister in good standing in the Methodist church, but for some years has given himself to "Band Work," not only in Ontario but also in the Maritime Provinces, Manitoba, and the United States. One of the most wonderful revival movements ever known in Western Canada was conducted by Mr Savage at Petrolia, and in the surrounding country.

Strawberry Culture.—We have received copies of Bulletin No. 5 of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, being a paper on the culture of strawberries. The bulletin is written from the standpoint of a modern fruit-grower, and is illustrated by cuts of the latest and most opular varieties. Mr Hilborn, the writer, has a wide reputation as a horticulturist. We would advise our readers to write to Ottawa for a copy of this bulletin. It will be sent free to them, as it is a government pamphlet.

Swanson, and on the negative, Messrs H. I. Strang and F. Blair. Mr J. T. Garrow, Q. C. will act as chairman. The public are invited to attend.

POSTMASTER APPOINTED. -Mr William Campbell, for some time past town clerk of Goderich, has been appointed post-master at Goderich, vice Archibald Dick-son, deceased. The position is a party appointment, and we know of no man more deserving of it on that score. In addition to having been a faithful er for the Conservative party, Mr Camp bell possesses the ability to make an effi cient postmaster, and we congratulate him on his appointment.

A HARD WINTER,-The oldest inhab itant says that next winter is going to b a hard one. Skins of apples, grapes, and other fruit are tougher than last winter; corn husks are thicker and stronger than for years; wheat and rye straw is tougher; hay is wirier, and seed pods are better protected than usual, and says these are old farmers signs, and they are good ones because they don't come from any moon-plant ing superstition, but from actual observ ation year by year. - Sarnia Canadian.

METHODIST EDUCATION.—Rev. John united counties of Huron and Bruce, was visiting at the residence of Mr D. McBrien, Goderich township, during the week. He has been a regular reader of THE SIGNAL since the good old days, and knows what goes on in this section better than some people who live here.

> THE COWBOY AND THE MAYOR. They were standing near the Court House

In the early autumn day, The sward (from rain) was verdant And the flower beds looked gay, When the stranger slowly pointed To that fountain on the Square : "He's more naked than an Injun, Said the Cowboy to the Mayor.

The men about the Court House, Se busy with the pen, Whom daily toil is wasting In each close and stifling den, Sat on the steps a moment Just to catch a breath of air: "They look over-worked, poor fellers," Said the Cowboy to the Mayor.

Came trooping by that way.

Just to see the daring Cowboy And hear what he might say "And I like their baby stare-They're so innocent and guileless,"
Said the Cowboy to the Mayor. The quiet Canadian Sabbath came,

The day was bright and fair,
The Cewboy brushed his flowing locks And sauntered 'round the square, Salvationists were passing To their barracks to have prayer, "Let's see the sinners corralled, Said the Cowboy to the Mayor. And as he sat and listened

To the simple gospel talk He said: "This herd has got a gait; They're skittish, but don't balk, I like their simple doings And the Captain she talks square : She's a never missing lass Oh! Said the Cowboy to the Mayor. They asked him down to Clinton.

To show how he could ride, Which seemed to rouse the Cowboy's ire-It touched his western pride. I show in towns where there is life, And so I can't go there; It's quieter than a canyon, Said the Cowboy to the Mayor. Next summer in Montana

The Cowboy he will ride Alone across the dreary plains That spread their acres wide, But as he thinks of Goderich And the Northwestern Fair,
"I guess we'll see that show again," Says the Cowboy to the mare.

THE TOWN COUNCIL

The Minutes of Last Semi-Monthly Meet-The town council met last Friday evening, the 20th met. The members absent were deputy reeve Smith and councillors Thompson, Reid, Morton, Nicholson, Cantelon and Dunlop.

The report of the special committee, recommending that the sum of $55 be paid Messrs McGillicuddy and Mitchell for extra work on the Illustrated Signal-Star, was adopted on motion of Proudfoot, seconded by Colborne.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

To the Mayor and Council:

Your finance committee have examined the following accounts and would recommend their payment upon being certified:—Jos Williams, $28.41; Ogilvies & Hutchison, $12.16; E. H. Kelloge & Co., $54; Estate Geo Grant, $3,25; Juo Hillier, $9.50; Est. Geo Grant, $3.75; E. Graham, $12.33. J. H. COLBORNE, chairman.

This report was adopted.

The street inspector recommended that $3.85 be allowed Mrs M. Fraser for cost of repairing the cellar-drain of Mrs Jones' house, Laghthouse-st., which had been flooded by the cutting of the drain when laying the water mains.

W. C. T. U. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the W.C.T.U., for the election of officers, was held in the Temperance Hall on Sept. 10th. The officers were elected as follows: Presiofficers were elected as follows: President, Mrs Smeeth; 1st vice president, Mrs Wm. Campbell; 2nd vice president, Mrs Gibson; corresponding secretary, Mrs Morton; recording secretary, Miss Trueman; treasurer, Miss Stokes. A unanimous vote of thanks was given the string president. Mrs. Campbell, for retiring president, Mrs Campbell, for her untiring energy during the past year. ANNUAL REPORT.

The number of pledges received 15; number of members 24 (3 honorary); average attendance 10; num-ber of meetings held 43 (weekly). The half hour prayer meeting we still con-tinue with much benefit. We have held three open meetings during the year, and had the pleasure of a lecture from Miss Minnie Phelphs in March. In November we were strengthened by a week's visits from the "Life Boat Crew," a temperance band who came under the auspices of the Royal Templars of Temperance. On July 1st our ladies spread a lunch-room in the town hall, which was well patronized—proceeds $55. Our great work this year has been the cancelling of the debt on the temperance hall, on which for years there had been a mortgage of $600. This, the Union, headed by our energetic president, Mrs Campbell, determined to remove. A committee of three canvassed the town for subscriptions, meeting with a liberal response. They succeeded in collecting the sum required. The temperance bodies can now meet in a hall free of mortgage. We have superintendents of evangelistic work, sailors' and jail work, and this year we added franchise—all working nobly. We forwarded last year to Mrs Shortice, of Toronto, 100 lbs. of literature for distribution. Number of pages locally distributed 2,062.
