A. L. Romig is at presen es Cave, vocalists director of the Agricul cultural convention held as ago for B.C. have renes is looking for a busi-met in the C.O.F. hall rder to have their note not been fulfilled. . This what of a burning question and last fall a great deal done, but now that the ng, a large pool of water ted between the front the matter of having the ets east of town brought taken to have the wishes the ground, the required rtaken right away. The neighborhood, and the place in the neighbo the farmers disposing of o in for dairying. Every-t when the Stomach nervvs follow. But strengthen ak inside nerves with Dr ive, and then see how will again return. Weak ey nerves can also be ith the Restorative, where Don't drug the stimulate the Heart or is wrong. Go to the ailments. d get well. A simple, sin-urely tell. For sale by all

G SUPPLIES WEST PRICES.

Oc per Pound addies, Special Price.

. WILSON

Near Market

tubs, etc.

narket. It is of ther makes, and ps it, and Eddy's tractors

ve money. We are detail work. ns, Counters, prepared at

LTD. RY Phon EDMONTON. ALTA

HINGLES

th. lime make

, LIMITED ONTON

P.O. Drawer 26

HOLDEN BANQUET A HUGE SUCCESS

Hardisty Liberals Entertain Popular Member for Vermilion --- Premier in Attendance.

erected over the Battle river was with rounds of applause

Mr. Holden's Reply. In reply Mr. Holden expressed his pleasure at being present at this gath-briefly to Dominion politics he compared the condition of the country prior to 1896 and since that date to show that the measure of the progress of Canada has been infinitely greater during the last decade than prior to that time. In conclusion he coming contest. In Dr. McIntyre, M.P., he said the Liberals to be ready for the coming contest. In Dr. McIntyre, M.P., he said the Liberals had a man of whom they had good reason to be proud; he had already made a record for himself and for his constituency in the House of Commons. He closed with some added words of thanks for with some added words of thanks for with some added words of thanks for with some added words of the country which to live. In discussing Dr. Mc. In the country members from Alberta.

The closed by paying a well deserved compliment to Mr. Holden. Mr. Rosenroll could be easily classed as the humorist of the evening as he kept the audience in roars of laughter by his witty sallies.

The toast to the Liberal organization was then proposed by the president. The toast to the Liberal organization was then proposed by the president. The toast to the Liberal organization was then proposed by the president. The chair was occupied by the president of the association, P. E. Respective of the discrete was Jaines of Liberal members from Alberta.

The chair was occupied by the president of the association, P. E. Respective of the association, P. E. Respective of the association of Liberal members from Alberta.

The chair was occupied by the president of the association of Liberal members from Alberta.

The chair was occupied by the president of the association of Liberal members from Alberta.

The chair was occupied by the president of the association of Liberal members from Alberta.

The chair was occupied by the president of the association of Liberal m

The Alberta Government.

the money spent on roads in the discould for the cause of Liberalism.

The Laurier Administration. the money spent on roads in the district was $500 which would not go far it be increased to the cause of Liberal ism.

The Laurier Administration. The cause of Liberal ism.

The Laurier Administration. The cause of Liberal government in building the new steel bridge just erected at Hardisty. In 1896 the total subsidy to the North-West Territories was a quarter of a million wille hast year Alberta received over one million and a quarter alone. He hast year Alberta received out that the growth of the west has had a good deal to do with the increased expenditure of the more of the west has had a good deal to do with the increased expenditure of the world.

The Conservative have despaired at Ottawa of finding fault with the popular member for Strathcona in the House of Commons.

The Conservative have despaired at Ottawa of finding fault with the popular member for Strathcona in the House of Commons.

The Conservative have despaired at Ottawa of finding fault with the popular member for Strathcona in the House of Commons.

The Liberal ism.

The Laurier Administration.

The Laur the last general provincial election. He reviewed the provincial sources of revenue such as taxation of railways and corporations in the province.

Regarding the education department he pointed out that last year 156 new Holden, the local member. the demand for teachers in Alberta was much greater than the supply which made secondary and univers-ity education important in this pro-He pointed out that Alberta vince. He pointed out that Alberta and Saskatchewan now paid the larg-est government grants to rural schools paid by any government in Canada. He expected the educational grants to year. He expected in a few weeks to differences between the Dominion Coal have the new free readers ready for distribution among the boys and girls in this province. A first class text hock more regulative means along the province of the preparation. He regretted the shartest of the province. Last year 300 hew bridges were built. In the construction of the shartest of the province, built. In the construction of the province were built.

summer, negotiations were now un-der way with a view to purchasing the Bell system in the province, but in any event the government was de-termined to have a long distance

He briefly explained the District Courts act and the great convenience it would be to the people.

The premier paid a compliment to Dr. McIntyre both as a man and a member of parliament. In the bye-(From Thursday's Bulletin.)

The town of Hardisty was the ing contest. He referred to the ing contest. scene, on Tuesday, of one of the best migration policy of the present Doand most enthusiastic Liberal gathermicrowaver held in the province. In ings ever held in the province. In done for Western Canada. The pre-mier's speech was listened to with the marked by the same enthusiasm for Liberal principles as has always charthe alternoon the new steel bridge closest attention and was punctuated Liberal principles as has always charmeans confined to that town as visiting liberals, drove in over thirty-five miles to attend the gathering. Daysland sent in her quota from the west. The accommodation in the large dining room of the King Edward hotel was taxed to its utmost capacity and then there was not room enough to accommodate all who desired to sit ed the work of the agricultural decommodate all who desired to sit ed the work of the agricultural de commodate all who desired to sit around the festive Loard.

Among those from a distance who were present were Premier Rutherford, Hon. W. F. Finlay, A. S. Rosenroll, M.P.P. of Wetaskiwin, W. F. Puffer, M.P.P. of Lacombe, and Duncan Marshall of Edmonton. The dinner was an excellent one and served to the king's taste. the king's taste.

After the toast to the King had different parts of the province, which been honored, the president proposed could be made of great value to the the toast to "Our Guest, Mr. J. B. farmers in each locality. Regard-Holden, M.P.P." He paid Mr. Holden a compliment as a faithful member, who gave his closest attention to every demand of his district and of whom the Liberals of Hardisty were expressed his pleasure at being pres ent to assist in doing honor to Mr Holden, the efficient member for Ver milion district. Toast to Legislature. ering and heartly thanked the Librards for their generous hospitality was proposed by Mr. A. H. McLach and their kindness in entertaining him on this occasion. He referred to the opening of the traffic bridge which he hoped would prove beneficial to the town and district. He expressed his pleasure at having two cabinet ministers address this gathering in Hardisty. He paid a compliment to He paid a compliment to sion which marked a milestone in the President Turgeon who, he said, had been one of the most progressive citiens of the thriving town of Hardisty. This was his first visit to Hardisty make the desired progress. He reference of the thriving town of the thriving town of the country could not make the desired progress. He reference of the Libertal Association.

with some added words of thanks for zen, coming from the United States, be proud of in the last tweive years the splendid reception accorded him and his experience with Canadian af- and very little to be ashamed of. The fairs made him a Liberal. Mr. Holdieral administration under Sir Mr. H. Y. Pawling of Wainwright.

Mr. H. Y. Pawling of Wainwright.

PRAISE FOR PROFESSOR SHORT.

Minister of Labor Congratulates Him On His Success As Mediator. Ottawa, March 26.-Hon, Rudolphe Leby any government in Canada. He expected the educational grants to reach a total of about $200,000 this book upon agriculture was also under "You have during the year presided preparation. He regretted the charters" ever many topics of conciliation and in-were built. In the construction of public buildings about $300.000 would be spent this year. He referred to the new normal school in Calgary as the best west of the great lakes. It had been erected at a cost of $150.003. He remarked upon the satisfactory financial terms which made it possible for this province to carry on so many important public works. He discussed the government telephone policy which had worked out so satisfactorily in the province. The televing as sense of the deep outgate tion under which you have laid my department. It congrutulate you upon having seized at the outset the vital principles of the measure in conciliation and in effecting a series of agreements and the esting in the course of your investigations which must prove of the deep outgate of at the outset the vital principles of the deep outgate. It congrutulate you upon having seized at the outset the vital principles of the measure in conciliation and in effecting a series of agreements.

LIBERAL PHALANX

(From Thursday's Bulletin.) The annual meeting of the Libers formally opened for traffic, the last rivet being clinched by a sledge wielded by the muscular arms of Mr. J. B. Holden, the popular member of the legislature for the Vermilion distriction to the legislature for the vermilion distriction. In the evening a compliment, which is the manipulation of appliance.

Hon. Mr. Finlay Speaks.

Hon. W. F. Finlay, the next speak-predominant sentiment of the meeting was the unbounded confidence expressed in the Laurier administration and the unanimous desire, at the next speak with rounds of appliance. the legislature for the Vermilion district. In the evening a compliment ary banquet was tendered to Mr. Holden by the Liberal association of Hardisty. The attendance was by no means confined to that town as visiting Liberals drove in over thirty-five came with the return of the Liberal party to power in 1886.

work of the government as to make it unnecessary for him to make a speech to send Hon. Frank Oliver back to Ottawa with the largest majority in the history of his political life. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, many being comparison to attend the gathering. Days:

| And the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire, at the next unnecessary for him to make a speech of the early of the dark years and the unanimous desire. rooms and in the hall. There were present the grey-haired veterans of bis district was a very large one cover, but whenever his attention cover, but whenever his attention corroborated what Mr. Finlay had said of the outlook of the country prior to 1896 and its rapid progress since that date. We had a great country ment of Premier Rutherford and its progressive legislation. Referring most desirable place in the world in most desirable place in the world in the most desirable place in the world in him to Ottawa an unbroken phalanx of Libertle members from Alberta.

JAMES McGEORGE, ESQ.

The Alberta Government.

Mr. W. G. Whyte was then called upon to propose the teast to the Alberta government. He paid a compliment to the premier and the members of his government.

In reply the premier expressed his pleasure at being present to do honor to Mr. Holden, their efficient members in the legislature. He referred to the rapid growth of population in this district and the consequent difficulties in representing such a large district. He remarked that when he represent the money spent on roads in the district was government and the consequent difficulties in Talbot and were doing all they could for the cause of Liberalism. west of the Great Lakes. To them we son's bay route will enable us to reach

They fall into a desultory warfars with everyone fighting for himself This is the condition in which we A Minister's Prayer and an ind the Conservative party to-day. "We of the Liberal party have as leader a man honored throughout st administration that ever occupie he treasury benches."

In the leader of the Opposition, had a man selected in an effort to patch up the warring factions of the He was a man who probably was in favor of a clean administration but the Opposition in the House were not led by Mr. Borden. Instead Hon. George E. Foster held the reins of power, and refused to abide by the neminal leader, endeavoring to cover against others.

"Much has been said in the Con ervative press." said Mr . Boyle. 'about graft and corruption. Conservatives are trying by shouting volf to stampede the people of Canada. But the electors will not have the wool pulled over their eyes, for such men as are in the Liberal cabin et by men who have been proved to have boodled the funds of the widows and orphans of the Independent Order of Foresters. These charges the Liberal cause, almost four score against Foster, Fowler and Lefurgey have not been established by imu do or newspaper charges, but by the sworn oath of witnesses. And the people of Canada will think a 'ong

> Hon. Mr. Oliver, Hon. Mr. Fielding and others by such men. "When the Liberal party were i pposition they did not spend their They felt they had a higher duty to perform. When they found corruption public life they stood up like men Hon. Frank Oliver by his influence in the House of Commons, brought charges up to the hilt. And they did not find the corruption among petty and irresponsible officials, but they proved corruption among 'the leaders of the party, McGreevey was nt to prison, the Minister of Public Works of the time was compelled to esign and has not been heard of

"But the course adopted by the Conerent in the past year or two. Their charges have been vague and indirect nd in many cases proved to be without foundation, And upon these vague charges the voters of the Dominion will not turn out the Liberal adminterested in the maintaining of the Liberal government in power, r down by the Atlantic. We have been handicapped in the past in getting our products on the Pacific coasts and it is to the Liberal government we owe the first boom of transportation in the Grand Trunk Pacific. With an outlet to the coast we can put our

P. ED. LESSARD, ESO. Re-Elected President of the Edmonton Liberal Association.

Army Captain's Praise of humanity. They recommend

A whole army of witnessess is represented by the statements of these two well-known and highly-esteemed gentlemen whose lives have been devoted to the well being and uplifting

Minister's Earnest Prayer. 11 Scott St., St. Thomas, Ont., Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited. Gentlemen,-Unasked I send my testinonials as to the beneficent results I have derived from taking Psychine. I have derived from taking tsychiate was troubled with my lungs, which are still somewhat weak. I find by taking Psychine it wonderfully helped me. It is one of the best tonics on earth. May God long spare you to do this good work for the suffering. God bless Psychine. Yours sincerely, REV. FREDERICK A. WEBSTER.

testify to the benefit I have received from the use of your wonderful remedy, Psychine. A few months ago while travelling in New Ontario con-cold, which gradually developed into bronchitis of after using a few bottles I was completely restored and has much more carrying power than it had be fore I had bronchitis, and the vocal cords do no tire with speaking. I strongly recommend the won other throat and lung troubles."

health. My voice, since using Psychine, is stronger

Because: what it has done for others it can do for you.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." This is what Psychine is to the sick. Its tonic properties have never been equalled by any medicine. By regulating and restoring the healthy action of the throat, lungs and stomach, and toning up the entire system, it drives out disease and its effects. La Grippe, Bronchitis, Stubborn Coughs or Colds, Pneumonia, Night Sweats, Chills, wasting diseases and run-down conditions from any cause, and especially stomach troubles, quickly yield to the healing restoring power of this wonderful Doctor's Prescription. At all druggists, 50 cents and $1.00. Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.

soon be pushed to completion.

"The route is not popular in Ontario or Quebec, and perhaps not east of Hon. Frank Oliver, the biggest material of the completion of GERRYM."

"All red" seven for Alberta, and give the biggest material of the completion of the completion of the completion.

"All red" seven for Alberta, and give the biggest material of the completion. Manitoba, so we must depend upon jority in the history of Canadian polin the House of Commons, brought and ability to push the railway to Dominion that we apperciate the sactheir witnesses and proved their completion. It is therefore in the inrifices he has made on our behalf. terests of Alberta to send a solid Lib-> the Minister of the Interior, Election of Officers.

Honorary first vice president, Hon. . W. Cross. Honorary second vice president, quarters of a million to a surplus of mander. Huron is at present repre Senator Roy. Honorary third vice president, J.

H. Gariepy. President-P. E. Lessard. First vice president, George B. Mc

Second vice-president, G. Koerman Third vice-president, M. H. Dewar. Secretary, James McGeorge.

Executive committee of 36 men influences of the manufacturers of the cast, and in return the tariff will be increased. Our interests are not those election of Mr. Lessard as president. election of Mr. Lessard as president. the provinces of Ontario, Quebec. The time had not yet come in the interests of the Dominion of Canada, where a change is desirable or necesposition of leader. This is the great Liberal in Edmonton. weakness of the Conservative party. that can hold a candle to him. He is recognized by all in both parties as head and shoulders above the other head and shoulders above the other ing speeches.

Liberals in Edmonton, as well as sev-bliddlesex. Mr. Ross had a majority of 113 there. Hodgins, Conservative, who won the north by the narrow ing speeches. Many of members of both parties. the alleged scandals which the Conservatives are hurling at the government can be satisfactorily explained, as they have been. The record of the Laurier administration is something of which every true Canadian, either Liberal or Conservative, must be Hon, Frank Oliver, after proud. The country has had a re-national authem was sung. markable development, and much it is owing to the government. With world who could defeat him here.

> Party politics consists in having faith in your candidate, and it is for us to get those who are not strong in their belief in the Liberal party to see the reason for support of the Liberal candidates. Under the present government the country has advancd with marvellous rapidity, and for this reason we should feel proud of our party and its leaders.
>
> F. W. Brown congratulated the Liberals upon the excellent officers se-lected. Soon we are to have a general election, and it will be a hard fought contest. The Conservatives will put up a hard fight. We in this part of the Dominion need have no tear. Mr Hyndman, the Conserva-Cuservative party have been working hard, their strongest characteristic is "hope." In the past they held office and they look forward from year to year to a return to power. It is, therefore, up to the Liberals of this district to re-elect Hon. Frank Oliver by such a large majority that he will never again be opposed while in poli-tical life. The Conservatives have inducted a campaign of slander, and in all their searching for misdoings have only found one case in the $100,000,000 of expenditure, where one man was employed as an expert. though he was not an expert, and received $75 too much of the people's noneys. What a comparison with the last years of the Conservatives' administration when it was disclosed in Parliament that millions of dollars

P. TILLER, Captain Salvation Army Ann Street, Toronto, Aug. 13, 1907. ties, and thus show to the rest of the Secretary James McGeorge outlined eral contingent to Ottawa at the next some of the works of constructive election to strengthen the hands of statesmanship effected by the Laurier The Canadian preference tariff had been said by a promin-

The building of a new transcontinen- servative. structive statesmanship, which must uency as it was. interior, which is building up this country with the best class of settlers.

The Conservative party threw every 210 respectively. Liberal government in power, While the government has not done all we the government has not done all we bers, twelve of which will be selected by the Young Liberal Club, with must be conceded they have gone as far as they can when considering the interests of all parts of Canada. Our interests are not those of the manufacturers of Eastern Canada. The policy of the manufacturers has been that goods should be purchased here whether they can be got lower or higher thaw in other places. The Conservative party three every obstacle in the way of a transcontine obstacle in the way of a transcontine obstacle in the work of the manufacturers has been that goods should be purchased here whether they can be got lower or higher thaw in other places. The Conservatives have always been the fields of the manufacturers, and should they be returned to power. It will be in a great extent due to the influences of the manufacturers of the campaigning work in the Edmonton > tively silence Conservative criticism. George B. McLeod thanked the Sir Wilfid Laurier is the ablest anaulin the Dominion of Canada for the dency, and urged hard work by every James Gibbons, one of the oldest! They have not a man in their ranks Liberals in Edmonton, as well as sev- Middlesex. Mr. Ross had a majority > > Resolutions of confidence in Sir Wil- 376. frid Laurier and his government, and in Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of the interior, were enthusiastically

Hon, Frank Oliver, after which the ministrator.

buy what you have to sell and to buy what you have to buy in the best night with his leg dislocated died this markets is to PROSPERI

OF GERRYMANDER

Recent Redistribution Bill of Whitney Government in Ontario is Clear Gerrymander.-Liberals are Hived in the Hurons and Other Ridings. Toronto, March 26.-The province The election of the officers was then ent British statesman to be the strong- als into East Huron, made West Hucalled for and resulted as follows:

Honorary president, Hon. Frank
Oliver

Coliver

Honorary president, Hon. Frank

Oliver

Honorary president, Hon. Frank

Oliver

Honorary president, Hon. Frank

Discontinuous color of the legister of th notwithstanding that the deficit of one lature are saying, and calling the reyear had been changed from three- distribution by the name of gerry-over a million dollars in the next, sented by two Liberals and one Contal railway is another work of con- was satisfied with his own constitbe placed to the credit of the Laurier office have presented him with Godegovernment, as well as the immigra- rich township, which went Conservation policy of the department of the tive last election by 79 votes, and to was up to the members of the party to afford him an opportunity of giving attention to other parts of the province by themselves attending to the population is to give the north 2,799 more than the west, or to raise the campaigning work in the Edmonton constituency. He briefly outlined a number of arguments that would effectively silence Conservative criticism.

Besides doing that, they have thrown Mr. Ross out of his riding by transferring his home, Strathroy, to North Middlesex. The effect of the changes in Middlesex is to take off the Liberal majority of about 250 from the north and put on a Conservative majority of about 70, making a net grain of 320 Grit votes for Governor Dunsmuir Goes Abroad. the interior, were enthusiastically carried.

The meeting closed with hearty cheers for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Chief Justice Hunter will be ad-

Cranbrook, March 26 .- Alex. Ovek, a

MERCHANTS

SEND US YOUR ORDERS EARLY FOR

Egg Cares-new, kneck down, no fillers, each 28c. " second hand nailed up, with Bu'ter Tubs-nests, 3's (20's, 30's, 50's) wire hoops, nests 85c. Butter Boxes-knock-down

J. Y. GRIFFIN & CO., Ltd. - -

INSIDE YOUR COAT

garment spe ial a tintion is given to the e "hidden things" which make it rotain its shape and new appearance: the inner lining, hair-cloth, shoulder pads and stays. These mean greater value.

ASK IF IT'S A SOVEREIGN. W. E. SANFORD MANUFACTURING CO., LIMITED

HAMILTON, ONT. WINNIPEG, MAN. had been squandered in corruption.