MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The long drawn out battle over the power plant was settled in a final bout on Wednesday, when Commissioners Boulton and Butcher were overcome by their numerous opponents on the board of commissioners.

The installation of a 1,200 k.w. machine, as proposed by Commissioner Boulton, had at least the merit that it was supported by definite reasons.

The plan at the meeting on Tuesday the superintendent declared that his "original" recommendation had been for a unit of 1,500 k.w. capacity, adding that the unit would have an overload capacity of 1,800 k.w.

The Robinson Government, for political purposes, some time ago raised a question as to the validity of titles for land which had formerly been included in Indian reserves.

The bylaw authorizing an expenditure of $100,000 upon the development of hydro electric energy at Grand Rapids on the Athabasca River, one hundred and ninety-five miles from Edmonton, will be submitted for the approval of the ratepayers on July 19th.

could be undertaken by a private corporation on a co-operation with the City of Edmonton, which would necessarily consume the bulk of the power it is unlikely that the city would be obliged to forego the development of the project at some future time.

THE SWEDISH PRISON SYSTEM.

Sweden's rapidly taking a front place among the nations of the world in the administration of its penal system. A subdivision is made of the prisoners as soon as they are sentenced.

The immigration department is arranging to bring parties of British and United States newspaper men on a tour of Canada during the summer.

Sheldon has appeared in a Montreal court charged with stealing $15,000. The accusation is that he had been operating a swindle upon the public but that he made off with the money his "clients" put in to help him do the swindling.

Children committed by the courts of Sweden are sent to special institutions with their own ages, where special instruction is given, not only in mechanical arts, but in agricultural and educational subjects as well.

The present system of prison administration in Sweden has resulted in the elimination of vagabondage among adults and juveniles so far as the cities of Sweden are concerned.

Church assemblies complain frequently in these days of difficulty in securing candidates for the ministry. Occasionally the churches record these complaints are varied by reports as to the hopelessly small salaries to which some ministers are obliged to support families and children who must be given to them.

from a perusal of the trade statistics and the schedule of the reciprocity agreement, that the agreement will not interfere materially with the preference as it stands.

Reciprocity or no reciprocity; that is the question. The law must be changed. Toronto Globe—No one will be disposed to quarrel with Judge Winchester's statement that Colonel Munro, president of the defunct Farmers' Bank, "was deceived as to the condition of the bank and intentionally so."

The health authorities are doing well in taking vigorous measures to stop the epidemic of influenza which has been gaining some headway in the city.

The leader of the Provincial Opposition has returned from the coast with a story that he met a man there who told him he had $30,000,000 with which to build a railway from Vancouver to the Yukon.

The Sunday band concert at the park is with us, also the eternal question of whether or not it should be allowed. From the ministers of the city, the conviction took place naturally to look for protest against what seems to endanger the proper observance of the Sabbath.

Mr. Borden is to be accompanied on his western tour by Messrs. Crothers, Perley and Col. Clark. Mr. Crothers is a lawyer from St. Thomas, Ont.

A man has been fined at Egbert, Manitoba, for making false returns in order to get his name on the voters' list. That the conviction took place in Manitoba on a political offence is presumptive evidence that the offender is a G.H.P. Perhaps another of those diabolical Englistmen the Toronto Nova has been attacking so vigorously, who wanted to get a crack at the tariff at the earliest opportunity.

Senator McCumber, one of the opposition of reciprocity in the United States senate, admits that the agreement will pass that House by a vote of two to one.

The new government introduced in the first tariff revision brought down, a clause entitling goods from Great Britain to a rate of duty 25 per cent lower than that charged on goods from other countries.

That if and when the parliament of Great Britain and Ireland admits Canadian products to the markets of the United Kingdom upon more favored terms than it accords to the products of foreign countries, the parliament of Canada will be prepared to accord corresponding advantages by a substantial reduction in the duties it imposes upon British manufactured goods.

That was the stand taken by the opposition party. Mr. Borden included in his government's policy of protection in extending a preference to British goods, the duty on British to tax her food products in order to return the compliment.

Winning Free Press—The National Grange which, with its boasted membership of a million people, has been making a spectacular fight at Washington to have the preference for their badly the other day in the senate committee at the hands of Senator A. C. Hanson, N. D.
