TUMOR OF YEARS

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Winnipeg, Man.—"Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth in the uterus. The doctors said it was a tumor,

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's regetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy until Martha came back.

'Thank you,' said Geoffrey, a little thickly.

It was a long time since he had as sociated with his kind, and he was a little overcome by the frank voice and kindly eyes of this young aristocreat who declined any credentials or references, so to speak, and insisted upon taking Geoffrey at his highest ossible value.

' Now, is there anything we-all of us-cap do for you, Bell?' Sir Edward asked. 'If so, you've only to mention it, and if it's the half of my kingdom-pretty kind of kingdom!' he sighed.

SNo, there's nothing, thank you said Geoffrey. For a moment he had thought of telling Edward of his quest, and asking him if he had seen | Sold Everywhere. He strode off, whistling with satis faction, but stopped himself and looked up the stairs at her penitently.

'Nice chap for a sick-room, aren't 1?' he said in a perfectly audible whisper. 'Ought to have my head tied in a pillow-case, or to have it

Now if Eva had heard the name from Geoffrey's own lips first hand, and in the quiet of the sick room, she might have remembered that it was similar to that of the lad, Ronnie; but at the moment, the coincidence did not strike her; or, if it had, she would probably only have regarded it as a coincidence.

She went back to the bedside.

Geoffrey gazed at her lovely profile with dreamy satisfaction in its beauty, and with a heart full of gratitude. She offered him a cooling drink, and he took it with a murmured word or two of humble thanks, and raised himself with the vague idea of making her slight task easier, of meeting her halfway, but had to fall back, with a sigh.

I don't think you ought to try and sit up,' she said, in a low voice. I am sure you must be very weak still. I think if you would try and go to sleep it would be better.'

'I ve been asleep for years it seems to me,' said Geoffrey, 'But I'll try, if you wish it. It's the least I can do for all your goodness to me, and self-sacrifice.'

*The goodness—and the bravery and self-sacrifice -are on your side, she murmured. 'Let me put your pillows straight. That is better.'

'Oh, yes, yes,' he said, with fervent gratitude. 'That's splendid! Will you tell me your name again?' Rashleigh - oh, you mean my Father Morriscy's Lung Tonic Cured Miles Maroney of Serious Lung Trouble.

Blissfield, N.B., Dec. 26, 1909. Father Morriscy Medicine Co. Ltd. As a patient of Father Morriscy's I would thank you for an opportunity of giving expression to the benefits I have received from his prescriptions and medicines and cines, not on one occasion but at different times.

Some eight years ago I had occasion to apply to the Rev. gentleman for treatment for lung trouble which proved to be of a serious nature; so serious was my case that my friends looked upon my recovery as almost hopeless, but after his treatment I am thankful to say that to-day I am in perfect health.

On Feb. 26, 1907, I had occasion to ask his advice and treatment for a lame back. I received a prescription which gave me immediate relief.

Thanking you, I am
Yours faithfully,
MILES MARONEY.

In a day or two he was able to remain up for dinner -a plain dinner, in which the steak at last figuredand a very delightful meal, the most delightful he had eaten for many years, Geoffrey found it. After the dinner, Eva permitted him a cigarette, bringing him the matches with her own hand; and a little later on, he went, on Sir Edward's arm, into the drawing room, and Eva played for him-for them, that is,

Geoffrey leant back on his cushions and listened with half-closed eyes. The luxury of the old-fashioned and well-worn room, with its old furniture and faded damasks, soothed him. and Eva's soft, sweet voice at the piano completed the charm.
