St. Patrick's Day Events.

FEAST CELEBRATED BY BENEVO-LENT IRISH SOCIETY.

The Benevolent Irish Society held their annual parade yesterday and marched to St. Patrick's Church from their Hall at 9.45 by way of Queen's Road, Theatre Hill, New Gower and Hamilton Streets. The brass bands of the C. C. C. and C. L. B. accompan ied the procession and played Irish music along the route.

High Mass was sung by Rev. Fr ippy assisted by Rev. Dr. Greene, as Deacon, and Rev. Fr. Kelly, as Sub-Deacon. His Grace the Archbishop occupied the throne, Rev. Monsignor Noche and Rev. Fr. St. John attending him. The officers of the Society were provided with seats within the sanctuary. The sermon of the occasion was preached by Rev. Father McDermott, of St. Patrick's, who took his text from the 44th chap, of Ecclesiastics. The sermon was a learned, eloquent and masterly review of the history of the Irish race from the fifth to the present century. The rev. that wherever the Church predominated liberty, intellectual growth, atriotism and religion declined. Fr. McDermott showed how foolish and groundless this statement is when he noted from the glorious pages of rish history from the 5th to the 10th century. Ireland a Catholic country was then the home of religion, poetry. music and all the arts of the time that tended to reform and elevate the soul. liberality, intellectual growth and religion show forth with such brilliancy that the people of Europe flocked to the schools of Erin to receive their ducation. Ireland also flourished in trade and commerce, and her ships up to the 17th century carried on the

After Mass the Society marched

Government House by way of Wate Street, Cochrane and New Gowe Streets, called on His Excellency the Governor and paid their respects the King and Queen through their re presentative. Cheers were given fo Sir Ralph and his lady who appeared in the portico with a bunch of sham rock's in her breast. After the President, Hon. J. D. Ryan had tendered the compliments of the Society Hi Excellency delivered a short address in which he thanked the Society fo calling on him and for the expression of loyalty to the King. He alluded t the proposed visit of King George to India. He would probably return b and if His Majesty failed to respond o their loyal and loving wishes to then alluded to the three great Patron Saints—St. Patrick, St. George, and St. Andrew, and eulogized the B. I. S. for their love and veneration towards the great Patron Saint of Ireland. After the band played the National Anthem the officers of the Society were invited to the hospitable board of the Covernor where they wet the see him once again. His Excellency of the Governor where they wet the shamrock in the usual way. The Society then reformed the rooks and of the Governor where they wet the ciety then reformed the ranks and ciety then reformed the ranks and marched up Military Road to the Episcopal Library where they tendered their respects to His Grace the Archbishop. President Ryan tendered the compliments of the Society and ed the compliments of the Society and called for cheers for the Archbishop which were given with enthusiasm. The C. C. C band then played a selection in good style. His Grace made a request to the C. L. B. band to play and they did so in their usual good request to the C. L. B. band to play style. The Archbishop then addressed the Society and congratulated them on attaining the 105th anniversary. The society had the honour of being one of the oldest in America and had done good work since its inception. The century was a peaceful one and the Society foundd by Protestants and Catholics was always on friendly terms with the other local Associations. The presence of the C. L. B. Band here to-day was a good proof of this, harmony and good feeling prevailed. His Grace alluded to the prospects of Home Rule and expressed the one and the Society foundd by Propects of Home Rule and expressed the hope that Ireland would have the boon of self-government by this time next year. He paid a tribute of praise to John E. Redmond, especially his moderation, good common sense and diplomacy. The Irish people's ambition was to have their house of Parliation was to have their house of Parliament on College Green. Under Home Rule the Empire would be greatly strengthened. All Trish hearts would rally to its support. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche addressed he Society also and eulogized the work done in the cause of education. Rev. Bro. Kennedy, Principal of St. Patrick's Schools, also delivered a short but fluent address in which he testified to the good work done by the Benevolent Irish Society in the cause of education. The Society then returned to the Hall and disbanded
