Police Will Ask Increase

We understand that the members of the police force will look for an increase in their salaries when the next session of the Legislature opens and that a petition is now being prepared to be presented in their behalf. That the men are underpaid goes without saying, and that they are justified in looking for an increase of pay must be admitted. But will they get it?—that is the question. When last they made an effort to better themselves in this respect, the callousness of the Government was quite apparent, nor do the men forget that they were brutally told that if they did not like what they were receiving they could quit. Everybody knows that the Tory Premier is an artful dissembler and no doubt he will try to wriggle out of working any definite change in the stipends of the police by promising as he did before to look into the matter of the remuneration of the whole Civil Service. The police and their friends will carefully watch the treatment which the petition will receive, and no doubt will know how to retaliate if a square deal is not given them.

To-Night's Wrestle.

The Olson-Berry wrestling match takes place in the C. L. B. Armory to-night and promises to be the liveliest contest ever seen here. Olson is clear of his cold, is back at his old weight and says he will wrestle as he never did before to defeat his opponent. Berry is confident of winning. The match starts at 8.30 sharp and will go to a finish, best two out of three falls. This will be the last professional wrestling match for some time and no doubt will draw a large audience.

A contributor to the Liverpool Post, who taps excellent sources of Court and Society information, says that the Duke of Connaught is reported to be anxious that the King and Queen should visit New York. It is quite likely, he adds, that they will. Such a visit would do a lot of good, he said, and certainly make the grip of hands across the sea yet closer.

The Ulster Unionists have issued a manifesto urging all Unionists to abstain from interference with the meeting at which Churchill is scheduled to speak on Home Rule, the 8th inst. All loyal Unionists are requested to do everything in their power to prevent any act which might reflect on the Unionists' cause. The Grand Orange Lodge adopted a resolution not to interfere with Churchill.

BERLIN, Feb. 5.
The evident effort which is being made both in Berlin and London to bring about the re-establishment of cordial relations between Britain and Germany, and the willingness of the former to sanction the desire of the latter to extend her possessions in Africa and purchase Portuguese and Belgian territory, is likely to furnish a foundation for the friendliest exchanges. An evidence that Germany is willing to meet Britain half way is afforded by the publication in Berlin of an article, attributed to a leading diplomat, which gives reasons why an entente between the two countries is both necessary and desirable.

LONDON, Feb. 5.
Indignation is rapidly growing because of the sentence imposed upon Bertrand Stewart, a prominent London lawyer, who recently at Leipzig was found guilty of espionage and was ordered to be confined in the fortress for three and one-half years. It is suggested that a movement be organized by British tourists to boycott all German holiday resorts as a protest against what is almost universally characterized by newspapers as a judicial scandal and a gross miscarriage of justice. The feeling against Germany, which had been subsiding of late, has become more embittered than ever.

LONDON, Feb. 5.
It is grotesque to suppose that Sun Yat Sen is dictating terms, or that the Throne will offer a blind submission to the Nanking Government, says a Peking despatch to the Daily Telegraph. What is really happening is that Yuan Shi Kai, by brilliant cross-play, has reduced both the Manchu extremists and the Republican extremists to virtual powerlessness; is building up a great middle party, and is arranging a purely Chinese solution for the present difficulty. The abdication edict, says the correspondent, will be followed by edicts proclaiming the Emperor's sacrosanct office to be hereditary, and not connected with politics; affirming sacrificial and other ceremonies for the preservation of the Confucian code, and the Imperial right of conferring titles. After the Commonwealth is organized, the Manchu Banner organization will be dissolved and commutation of pensions will follow.

Wedding Bells.

LAWLOR-MURPHY.

At 2.30 on the evening of the 18th inst. quite a number of people assembled at the church in Renewa to witness the marriage of Miss Emily Murphy, daughter of Mr. John Murphy, a well known and respected resident of Broad Cove, to Mr. Michael J. Lawlor, of the same settlement. The bride, who was attired in cream cheviot serge with hat to match, was assisted by her sister, Miss Hannah Murphy, and Miss Mary Lawlor, sister of the groom, who were also nicely dressed in cream nun's veiling and wore black picture hats. The supporters of the groom were Messrs. T. Lawlor and John Murphy, brothers of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Walsh, P.P., after which the party left for the home of the bride's father amid cheers and volleys of musketry. There a sumptuous repast was partaken of, and later in the night the bride and groom, accompanied by the immediate relatives and other guests proceeded to their future home, where dancing and other amusements were kept up till a reasonable hour.

IN MEMORIAM

Holyrood has lost one of its oldest residents through the death of Mr. John O'Neill on Thursday morning. Deceased, a retired fisherman-farmer and highly respected by all classes in the community, had lived a remarkably long life, being entered upon his 94th year, and was in the enjoyment of robust health and retaining all his faculties until death summoned him suddenly while taking his breakfast on that morning. His wife, who had lived to a very advanced age too, predeceased him about six years. Mr. O'Neill was almost a centenarian, and one of the foremost and respected of the old pioneers. He hewed out a home from the virgin forest and brought up a large family. He saw schools, churches and even villages grow up around him; held places of trust in the community where he lived, and saw active service in many a big election fight. His funeral, which was largely attended, took place from his late home to the Church of Holy Cross, where Requiem Mass and the burial service were chanted for the repose of his soul by Rev. Wm. Finn, of Harbor Grace; thence to the cemetery on the hillside, where the remains of a good man and good Catholic were laid to rest. Deceased leaves two sons and four daughters to mourn his loss, to all of whom we tender our sincere sympathy.—Com.

Swire and J. Parsons.

The Ladies Committee who are arranging the C. C. C. "At Home," held a meeting yesterday and almost completed arrangements for the affair. The officers also met, and the "At Home" this year will be far ahead of its predecessors. The ballroom will be beautifully decorated.

St. John's Ambulance Association

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

His Excellency the Governor presided at the annual meeting of the St. John's Ambulance Association held last night in the British Hall. In his address the Governor referred to the great benefits that were to be derived from following up the principles and teachings of the Association, especially on the treating of accidents. His Excellency would like to see the work taken up with more interest in the outports where the local physicians would no doubt take great pleasure in giving lectures to the people during the winter nights. The Governor spoke also about the fight that was being made against consumption and eulogized the Messrs. Reid on their generous offer to provide 17 sanitarium. This action deserved the warmest praise from all our people. He had no doubt that the country appreciated the excellent work done by Hon. Jno. Harvey, Dr. Macpherson and Dr. Keegan in the consumption fight, and paid a touching tribute to the memory of Hon. D. J. Greene and Dr. H. Chaplin. He invited all to become members of the Association and to work zealously in the good cause. Mr. H. W. LeMessurier moved a vote of thanks to the Governor which was seconded by Sir W. Horwood and carried by acclamation. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Sir W. H. Horwood.
Vice-Pres.—Lt.-Col. R. G. Rendell, C. O'N. Conroy, T. McNeill, Major Hutchings, Mayor Ellis, G. C. Fearn, A. W. Picoot, Minister of Marine, and Inspector General Sullivan.

His Excellency Sir Ralph Williams will be the patron of the Association.

C.E.T.S. Lecture.

There was a large attendance at the C. E. T. S. Lecture in the Synod Hall last night, delivered by Rev. James K. Bell. The lecture was beautifully illustrated by lantern slides, amongst which were the portraits of their Majesties the King and Queen and the Queen Mother, also several of the portraits of the C. E. T. S. Mr. Bell made special allusion to the return of the King from India and invited the audience to sing the National Anthem which was done with enthusiasm. The picture of Westminster Abbey suggested to the lecturer the idea of mentioning the forthcoming Golden Jubilee of the C. E. T. S. which will be held next May at the Abbey. He hoped to be present on that occasion. Pictures showing the evils of intemperance were shown and made a deep impression on all present. After making appeal eight persons in the audience came forward and signed the Total Abstinence pledge. Teas were served by the ladies after which the meeting closed.

The Nova Scotia "Lumber King" says:
"I consider MINARD'S LINIMENT the BEST liniment in use.
I got my foot badly jammed lately. I bathed it well with MINARD'S LINIMENT and it was as well as ever next day."
Yours very truly,
T. G. McMILLEN.

Taking Big Cargo

The S. S. Galveston which is now at Tensler's premises will take one of the biggest fish cargoes ever taken out of this port. She will take pretty nearly 20,000 qtls., mostly in casks, and should leave a few days hence for the Mediterranean. The Kamford will also get a full cargo of fish for Europe later in the season.

Windsor Team Will Come.

We understand that the Windsor Hockey Team will visit this city to play a series of games with our boys, and will leave for here on the 19th. It is likely that most of those who were here before will visit us this winter.

Yesterday afternoon a magisterial enquiry was held into the fire at Mr. W. E. Bearn's store. The evidence of Miss Hammond, the bookkeeper, and Mr. John Bailey, shop foreman, was taken, and showed that the fire resulted accidentally.
