fectually there as here in Twillingate.
We take much pleasure in handing and appreciation.

St. Peter's Parsonage,
Sept. 6th, 1916.

The members of St. Peter's W. A.
My Dear Sisters,—I find it difficult to express to you my grateful thanks for the kind address and beautiful gift which I received from you last week.

I have always realized your love and loyalty and the gift will be a continual reminder of both in years to come.

It has been a genuine pleasure to join with you in church work, and I can never forget "Association Night" which meant the enjoyment of goodwill, sympathy and unity.

May St. Peter's Woman's Association ever flourish, and that God may bless you individually in the prayer of Yours affectionately, DELLA STIRLING.

The Curse of Alcohol.

A memorial which has been organized by the "Strength of Britain" movement, demanding the suspension of liquor traffic during the war, is to be presented to the Government. It is supported by public men and women outside the Temperance movement and makes its appeal on the grounds of national duty to our Allies, to the Army and the Fleet, and of conservaing the full strength of the nation, and gives the following particulars concerning alcohol:—
It hinders the Army; it is the cause of grave delay with munitions; it keeps thousands of men from war work every day, and makes good, sober workmen second rate. It hinders the Navy; it delays transports, places them at the mercy of submarines, slows down repairs, and con-gests the docks. It threatens our mercantile marine; it has absorbed during the war between sixty and seventy million cubic feet of space, and it retards the building of ships to replace our losses. It destroys our food supplies; in twenty months of war it consumed over 2,500,000 tons of food, with sugar enough to last the nation eighty days. It uses up more sugar than the Army. It wastes our financial strength; in the first twenty months of war our people spent on alcohol £200,000,000. It diverts the nation's strength; it uses up 500,000 workers, 1,000,000 acres of land, and 1,500,000 tons of coal a year; and in twenty months of war it has involved the lifting and handling on road and rail of a weight equal to 50,000,000 tons. It shatters our moral strength; its temptations to women involve grave danger to children and anxiety to thousands of soldiers.

Her Last Corn Ache

When pain brings you to Bluejay, it means the end of corns.
Blue-jay proves that corns are needless. And never again will you let a corn pain twice.

The pain stops instantly. In 48 hours the corn completely disappears. The action is gentle. No screeching results. It is sure and scientific and final. Millions of people keep free from corns in this easy, simple way.
Please try it. Blue-jay is something you should not go without. And nothing can take its place.

Our Sportsmen.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Up at the railway station Tuesday evening there was a lively scene as scores of sportsmen went hither and thither carrying guns and game bags while setters who barked all night for the last twelve months, keeping industrious citizens awake, jumped with joy at the prospect of a rollicking time in quest of the tiny snipe and the plump partridge. The scene was indeed a picturesque and lively one, but yet the sight of the firearms was a stern reminder of the war now raging, while the alertness of the bravely sportsmen suggested the idea that after these game seekers return from their holiday they be met at the station by a brass band and conducted to the Armoury by Capt. O'Grady and be enlisted for active service. Any man that is long winded and strong enough to march twenty miles in quest of game ought to be good enough for active service. Some of them are single men and how they can offer an excess of not enlisting is not quite plain to yours truly. Others have the misfortune of being joined in wedlock, but even that should not stand in the way when we consider that Capt.
Franklin, who is also a married man, has won the D. S. O. for great bravery while in action and now lies in hospital suffering from wounds received in while serving the Empire. Any young man who at a time like this can go partridge hunting and wink out of sight his duty to King and Country has not in my opinion the true instincts of the ideal sportsman. I hope they will return with well filled bags but I would suggest that ere they place their guns on the rack a sense of the duty they owe to the Empire will prompt them to a realization of what is expected of them and that we Demands Fair Treatment.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Where an only son, or where the only son who is in a position to contribute to the support and care of aged parents and several sisters, volunteers for military service, is it not reasonable to expect, everything else being equal, that the application of any of these sisters for an appointment to office in the public service, usually filled by qualified young women, would receive the attention and favourable consideration of the Government as against those not backed by similar claims?
If our patriotism amounts to anything, public opinion should demand that the families of those who have gone to fight the Empire's battles should be treated right and it behooves the Government to see that the just and reasonable demands of those who have given their all to the Great Cause, should be granted.
Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

Hot Weather Philosophy.

In this hot weather it will make us feel a little more comfortable to think of cool things, like snow and ice. So, first let us remember that there is a wet season ahead, and after that the snowy and frosty season. We shall have to be out in all kinds of weather, and the only way to enjoy life under all the different conditions is to be comfortably clad. For instance, if your feet are encased in nice, stylish, well-fitting Bear Brand Rubber Shoes, the state of the streets will not worry you in the slightest degree. Of course, nobody is buying rubber shoes just yet, but the time will soon come, and then, isn't it better to buy one good, well-fitting pair that will last you the greater part of the winter, rather than half-dozen pairs of shoddy shoes, that you will always find broken on the mornings that the slush is inches high?

YOUR BOYS AND GIRLS.

The real home, in which the parents are good pals, can give points in rearing children to the old order. The wise make comrades of their growing up or grown children. There is a drawing together of youth and middle age that is good; good for the elder and conducive to freshness of spirit. The high wall between parent and child is down, and they do not talk a strange language to each other as do many.

To make real comrades of your children is to let them feel that you have gone with them step by step all the way, and one day you will realize they are falling into your step, going back to childhood and blaming themselves for their failures, toward you, even as you failed towards yours, and never again will you complain of their ingratitude.
