Banking News.

Banking News.

The western banking fleet are very late in getting to the grounds this season. When the S. S. Portia was passing that way a few days ago the schrs. Thornhill, Teresa Maud, Edith Pardy and Effic Petites had reached the grounds and had started operations. The Rita M. Cluett, Norman O. and another Burin vessel were on their way to the Banks and should be there by this time. Around Burgeo and Channel there is an abundance of cod reported, but operations are impeded by stormy weather. Boatmen are also complaining of the scarcity of bait. This time last year bankers had a couple of hundred quintals of cod each "stowed below."
