GOVERNMENT AND BOARD OF TRADE — SOME PRACTICAL

ditor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.-I think that it cannot be oo strongly emphasized that the embers of the Board of Trade pronoted last Tuesday's meeting only in spirit of loval co-operation with the Government so as to help stabilize ent conditions and start fishery perations with a fair degree of confidence. In trying to maintain Gov ernment expenses which increase nearly three times during the war years of inflation with present export values reduced fully 50 per cent., Newoundland may well be described as a cow milking herself."

If the present expenditure and axation is maintained the country will continue purchasing foodstuffs only, and all other lines will be reduced to a minimum with little prospects of the trade increasing employment. The Board of Trade resolutions were general. Emphasizing the need for reduction in taxation and expenditure, but did not suggest how such the reduction might be and how it might be applied. I think that a a paying basis, and also revive the ing into general trade of the country.
