

The Royal Commission.

The Commissioners appointed are all Conservatives of an extreme type, and of such character and position as to render an expectation of a full inquiry, independent of Ministerial influence, an absurdity.

Within a week after the dissolution of the Committee, Mr. Pictou McDonald has received the first instalment of his payment as one of Sir John's agents on that tribunal, in the shape of a counselship for the Canadian Government before the Fishery Commission.

The Emperor of Germany, who was at one time reported to be seriously indisposed, seems likely to get safely over his recent attack: but his advanced age precludes the idea of his living many more years.

Bank of England Forger. Berga not Taken. The Carlists and France. Suppression of Newspapers. Incendiaries Condemned.

London, August 18.—Austin Bidwell and his confederates in the Bank of England forgery case were arraigned to-day, and the case was formerly opened by the prosecuting attorneys.

Madrid, August 18.—There is no truth in the despatch sent to the Carlist Junta at Bayonne, reporting the capture of Berga by the insurgents.

Several persons have been condemned to death by the Tribunal of Justice at Seville, for firing buildings by means of petroleum, while that city was occupied by the insurgents.

The Epoca alleges that the French Government is secretly favoring the operations of the Carlists in order to strengthen the cause of the Count de Chambord.

Head Quarters, banquets, August 18.—The French Government has taken an initiatory step towards recognizing the Carlists as belligerents.

The insurgent frigates Victoria and Albatros are ordered to proceed to Gibraltar.

Paris, August 18.—Thus far, during the month, the Government has suppressed or forbidden the sale of twenty Republican newspapers in the Provinces.

"Stump-tailed monopolist" is the chaste epithet that a Chicago editor slings at a rival.

"Love," says an amorous writer, "is an internal transport." The same might be said of a canal boat.

A Kentucky editor speaks of a local genius who has been a persevering contributor to the office waste basket for several years.

The telegraph reports a marriage on board a Western train. It was a railroad tie.
