SELLING

irds

Dollar.

n Silk. 320 Pongee, 200

ees, 25c yd ees, 30c yd. Silks, 33c yd. nes. 45c yd. lilk, 45c yd.

OLS.

received 1 about 70 and Gents' brellas. The have even at 40c and with other n, and not a t. Come and chiefs.

s, 5c each. 10c each. c each. ina Silk, 320 China Silk

Twilled, 600 entlemen $1

. 40c each.

continues, inprepared. ened 8 bales Vhat others we sell at ek we oper est Englis

lar 90-cent

ut 75c.

INS. e pair. 3 yards, 187

ind, 7 yards, e, $2 pair $3 50 pai

Poles.

nplete with n ash, walgany. I Pole, 5

75c, in ash, lnut, rose-

Cloths. ys' wear at rings, 50c. 18, 60c. wool, 50c. wool, 60c.

for warm ut free of

ING Condon Advertiser. ONE

JOL. XXVIII., NO 193.

Tributes of Esteem and Respect for the Late Leader.

House of Commons Adjourns for a Week.

ate Arrangements for Premier's Funeral.

the News is Received in England-The Deceased's Estate.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

SIR JOHN'S FUNERAL.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 8.—Col. Sherwood and Lieut. Col. Smith have been in conference with Hon. Mr. Dewdney this morning in the Department of the Interior as to the order of the funeral. It has been decided out of respect of the wishes of the deceased not to drape the Senate Chamber as heavily as war at first intended. Maynard Rogers has been assigned the task with instructions to use more bunting than crape. No eatafalque will be erected, but the very simplest arrangements possible made. Mr. Beulloc, of Montreal, will manage the drapings of the Commons Chamber. A plan to festion the front of the buildings with crape was rejected as altogether repugnant to the feelings of Sir John. The line of march on Wednesday will be from the main tower west around the Parliament grounds and back again to the large central gates; then down Metsaffe to Maria street, along Maria and Theodore to King; thence down Daly street to the church dor. After the service the procession will proceed along Daly street to Cumberland, then down Rideau, Wellington and Queen street west to the church will be on foot and to the station in carriages. The order of procession will be:

Eight Dominion police abreast.

Eight of the Princess Louise Dragoen Guards mounted.

Officiating clergyme. [Special to the ADVERTISER.]

Officiating clergymer.
S. Rogers & Son, untertakers.
Fourteen Privy Coursiors as pallbearers.
Six Dominion police a cabs to carry the The hearse heavily daped and drawn by our horses. Two mourning carrages with family. His Excellency the Covernor-General and Lieutenant-Governo, clergy and House of Parliament, according to precedence. OTTAWA, June 8.—The casket containing the remains of the latt Premier stands on a pedestal in the center of the great dininginal at Earnseliffe. The hangings are of violet and white. The remains will lie at Earnseliffe until moting, to be viewed by the members of the sorrowing by the members of the sorrowing household and a fev personal friends, including members of the late Cabinet. So far Lady Macdeald has borne up bravely, but the strain upon her endurance has been severe. The members of the late Ministry came to Eauscliffe to view the remains and convey heir condolences to Lady Macdeald. The members of Lady Macdeald.

Lady Macdonald. The members of the Cabinet will be as pallbearers at the funeral on Wednesday. This afternoon after the House adjourned a meeting of Consevative members was held, when it was decided to present to Lady Macdonald a remorial signed by all members of the party, and that the members should wear mourning for a month. Arrangements have been made by Conservative members to form guards of the weath to write he remains servative members to form quards of four each to watch over the remains while lying in state in Ottawa. Among the floral tributes sent to Earnscliffe is one from Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne—a St. Andrew's Cross in write roses and pink, with a violet soroll bearing the words, "Lorne and Louise." Numerous handsome floral offerings go from Montreal and the Province of Quebec from friends and admirers of Sir John Macdonald.

to a light, after which the venice of the condoin mean and attend the funeral to a great ever also long as and attend the funeral to a state of good health, covered with black cloth the left of the throne, tected at each end by a barrier in and at swel-cot of this to the left of the funeral to a funeral to a fund and attend to a state of good health, covered with black conduction the funeral time and attend the funeral time and attended to a state of good health, covered with black conduction the funeral time and attended to a state of good health, covered with the left of the funeral time and attended to a state of good health, covered with such a string to the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and attended to the left of the funeral time and the l In the Senate Chamber the tables, desks and chairs were all removed from the floor, which was covered with a white cloth. The brass rails behind the throne and at the bar of the House were heavily draped in black. The throne was covered with Canadian ensigns. In lieu of a catafalque a rest for the casket was placed in the center of the floor. This is covered with black cloth fluted and testooned with cords and fringe. On the cast side of this to the left of the throne, and protected at each end by a barrier in black, stands a twelve-foot shield in black cloth, bearing on its center a portrait of her black, stands a twelve-foot shield in black cloth, bearing on its center a portrait of her Majesty and draped with ensigns. The casket will be placed on the bier and the public allowed to look on the features of the dead. Many hundreds of mourning badges, bearing a small photograph of Sir John Macdonald, were sold on the streets to-day. The Russell House and several of the stores have draped the front of their buildings in black.

THE LATE PREMIER'S ESTATE.

John Macdonald, were sold on the streets to-day. The Russell House and several of the stores have draped the front of their buildings in black.

The LATE PREMIER'S ESTATE.

Sir John's will may not be probated until after the funeral. It was drawn up some years ago by Hon. Mr. Abbott, and is understood to contain a wish that Kingston should be his last resting place. The estate, though not large, will probably realize $100,000, the great bulk consisting of the testimonial of $80,000 presented to Sir John in 1870 by the Conservative party. It is reported that Hon. Mr. Dewdhey, who has been for some years one of the trustees of the $80,000 testimonial fund invested in Lady Macdonald's name, is named, an executor of Sir John's will and is also the guardian of the Premier's daughter Mary.

The Supreme Court met at Ottawa on Monday morning, but out of respect to the late Premier immediately adjourned till

Monday next.

MARKS OF RESPECT.

TORONTO, June 8.— The Chancery
Divisional Court—the only court sitting at Osgoode Hall to-day—adjourned till to-morrow out of respect to the memory of the deceased First Minister. Chambers and the Call Board adjourned till after Thursday.

MONTREAL, June 8.—Messrs. Seargeant, Wainwright and Stephenson, representing

Montreal, June 8.—Messrs. Seargeant, Wainwright and Stephenson, representing the Grand Taunk Railway of Canada, will attend the State funeral of the late Sir John A. Macdonald at Ottawa Wednesday. The Sir John Macdonald Club, Montreal, of which Sir John was honorary president, decided to inaugurate a movement for the erection of a monument in Montreal of the deceased Premier.

Numerous handsome floral offerings go from Montreal and the Province of Quebec from friends and admirers of Sir John Macdonald.

The Ottawa Council passed an appropriate resolution in view of Sir John's death, and the mayor was authorized to issue a proclamation asking citizens to close their stores at noon on Wednesday. It was resolved that the Council meet at noon on Wednesday and attend the funeral to Kingston. Resolutions of regret were also passed by various municipal bodies throughout the country.

[The action of the House of Commons, which adjourned for a week, is described in another column.]

THE CASKET.

Following is the inscription on the casket and outer case: "John Alexander Macdonald. Born 11th January, 1815. Died 6th June, 1891."

In the Separte Chamber the tables, deske

The Baccarat Scandal Absorbs All

Attention. Nothing Has So Badly Damaged the

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Premier is Honored,

Prince's Reputation

As the Developments of This Notorious Trial.

urther Unwelcome Facts Likely to Con

of baccarat at Tranby Croft on Sept. 8, 1890, and thus gave encouragement to gambling in one of its most ruinous and insidious forms, and they respectfully submit to his Royal Highness that such conduct lessens the respect that the Methodists have always inculcated for the throne.

d gone to 290.

Hair Magie

Is a good name of Dr. Doren wend's German preparation for the hair. It really works like magic. All who have used it pronounce it to be unequaled for remedying the lost vitality of the hair roots, restoring gray heir, removing dandruff, etc. Justiry it. It is first-class. All din ggists sell if

The Memory of the Dead

And a Public Funeral Unanimously

Ottawa, June 8.—The sessions of the Houses of Parliament this afternoon will remain long in the memories of those who were in the Chambers. The first of the public demonstrations by which his country will pay honor to the dead statesman were made in the utterance of both Houses and the resolutions of regret that were adopted. The scene in the Commons was impressive with a solemn mourning suited to the dignity of that body. The splendid Chamber was sorrowful with black draperies under whose sombre folds the rows of black-coated members sat in unusual quietness. The black covering over the clerk's table fell upon the green carpeted floor on either side, and around the galleries and over the Speaker's chair death's decoration hung. The bars of glorious colors shot by the sun through the stained glass windows crossed the gloomy draperies with strange effect. The chair in which the dead Premier sat and his desk were covered with black cashmere. The deak from behind which he had led the House for almost a quarter of a century bore to-day a shield of white lilies and veil roses, on which The Sit of Sub-Reschald Chris, Machesolad Chris, the mortal remains of the Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald, G.C.B., should be publicly interred, and that this House will concur in giving to the ceremony a fitting degree of solemnity and importance.

The speech of the Liberal leader was perfect in the nicety with which it expressed the bonor in which the memory of a great political opponent may be regarded. It was full of a generous estimation of the qualities that made the late Premier's greatness in his country. But one understood that under the chivalrous tribute, and delicately, respectfully withdrawn from the present occasion, were the convictions which made the crator the political opponent of him whom he now honored. The speech was delivered with a calinness, a dignity and a sympathy of tone that accorded with the occasion. There were not the intrepid flashes of strong feeling, the bursts of brilliance by which at other times Mr. Laurier's oratory is illuminated, but the strength of the leader was in his manner, the nobility of the statesman and patriot in the appreciation, the honor it paid one who, whatever may be said of means and methods, was a substantial factor in Canada's growth.

Mr. Davin, than whom the Government benches have no one abler to do justice to such an occasion, made a eulogy of his late leader. It spoke the admiration and attachment of the Conservative party, and was a crystallization of the deep regard in which by his followers the chieftain was held. The motion was agreed to.

There followed a short discussion with regard to the formation of a new Cabinet, and after the order of the House for calling Michael Connolly to the bar at 4 o'clock was made for next Tuesday the House adjourned after a session of only three-quarters of an hour.

INLAND NAVIGATION.

Scheme to Connect Lake Superior with the Atlantic Ocean.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 8.—A plan is on foot to connect Lake Superior with the Atlantic Ocean, the terminal cities being Duluth and Norfolk, Va. One of the connecting links of the railroad, the Columbus, Lina and Milwaukee, has just been bought. Instead of running it to South Haven or Holland it will be extended to Muskegon, and the steamers will run be-Muskegon, and the steamers will run be-tween Muskegon and Duluth. The corpora-tion managing the scheme is the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railroad.

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

A citizen of America, Ga., has a piece of chinaware 782 years old. The date, 1,109, is plainly stamped on the bottom and its only flaw is a broken handle.

only flaw is a broken handle.

The great lung healer is found in excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hearseness. pain or soreness in the chest, brouchitis, etc. It has curedmany when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Wired From Every Quarter of the Globe.

P. T. Barnum's Estate Estimated Over $4,000,000. Martial Law Proclaimed in Port-au

Prince and 60 Persons Shot. CANADIAN.

The Midland Central Fair Association as decided not to have an exhibition this Martin Connolly told a reporter Kingston yesterday that he would not gup his books. up his books.

A laborer named Van Norman was killed by a train at Kingston on Saturday.

Guelph Conference will hold its next ses sion in Norfolk Street Church, Guelph. During the revival services conducted by Crossley and Hunter in Ottawa a couple of years ago both Sir John and Lady Mac-donald were regular attendants and became intimate friends of the two revivalists.

Intimate friends of the two revivalists.

James Hume, a well known veterinary surgeon, died very suddenly Monday morning of heart failure at Hamilton. Dr. Hume was born in Kelso, Scotland, and came to this country 33 years ago. He was principal surgeon in the Hendrie stable for years.

years.

UNITED STATES.

An immense cave-in occurred Sunday at the Waterloo mine, near Chico, Cal., severely injuring two men and crushing or imprisoning a third.

Judge Biodgett, at Chicago yesterday quashed the indictment againgst George J. Gibson, secretary of the whiskey trust, charged with conspiracy to destroy the Shufeldt distillery.

The estate of the late P. T. Barnum, as shown by the inventory taken by the ap-shown by the inventory taken by the appraisers and filed in the Probate Courts yesterday, at Bridgeport, Conn, is estimated at $4,279,532. FOREIGN. Prince Gustave, Duke of Vermeland, ldest son of King Oscar of Sweden, has the grip.

The Government's Education Bill was introduced in the British House of Commons yesterday.

The steamship Empress of Japan arrived at Nagasaki on the morning of the 7th and left the same evening for Kobi.

The Pope has issued an order directing that all the employes of the Finance Department of the Vatican be discharged.

Malloch's glass warehouse and the establishment of Messrs. Willis & Nelson, ribbon manufacturers, of Glasgow, were burned lishment of Messrs. Willis & Nelson, ribbon manufacturers, of Glasgow, were burned yesterday. Loss, $250,000.

Late advices from Port-an-Prince say martial law has been declared. Some 60 persons were shot on May 28. Hippolyte has everything in his own hands, and the killing goes on at the rate of two or three per day.

per day. per day.

Messrs. Tessin, Tarpin, Tripone, Fequrue and Fessler were yesterday committed for trial at Paris on the charge of treason in conspiring to sell the secrets of France, particularly the secret of the manufacture of the new explosive, melinite.

the new explosive, melinite.

It is semi-officially stated that the Czar, having learned that the Jews expelled from Moscow are brutally treated and are not given time to settle their affairs, has ordered that the expulsions be effected gradually in order to enable the Jews to wind up their affairs.

In the House of Leaks restandance.

wind up their affairs.

In the House of Lords yesterday an amendment to the Sealing Bill was passed to the effect that the Queen, by an order-in-Council, prohibit British ships from catching seals in Behring Sea during a period limited by the order or such part thereof as would be described in the order. The amendment was adopted. The House of Commons formally passed the Behring Sea Bill, as received from the House of Lords.

Attempted Burglary and Murder.

Kincardine, June 8.—Last night at 11 o'elock Chief Constable Huffman noticed two suspicious-looking characters and followed them. He saw one make his way to the rear of Rapley & Co.'s private bank building, while the other was stationed further down the street as a watch. Mr. Huffman followed the first and found him prying open a rear window. To the constable's salutation, 'What are you doing there?' the burglar responded, 'Follow me, would you?' and fired two shots, one of which passed through Mr. Huffman's coat. The burglars made their escape. Attempted Burglary and Murder.

Eccentricities of the Lords.

Lord Rosslyn recently made a bet with Lord Headley that he would eat two pounds of steak and drink a gallon of ale in less time than Lord Headley took to kill and skin a bullock.

Lord Lisle insists on smoking a short clay pipe in the streets. He is an Irish peer and not very well off. His dining-room walls are adorned with colored clay pipes, are arranged in stars and crosses, all of which—over 500—have been smoked by his lordship.

The former Earl of Belfast, now Marquis over 500—have been smoked by his lordship.

The former Earl of Belfast, now Marquis of Donegal, has reformed. He no longer gets drunk in public houses or indulges in any of the eccentric freaks which gained him an extraordinary reputation; old age is creeping upon him, and his once splendid physique is a wreek.

Lord Newburgh point blank declines to be physique is a wreck.

Lord Newburgh point blank declines to be either an Englishman or a Scotchman, although he is the tenth peer of his title. He is an Italian citizen, and calls himself Count Viscounte Taaffe, an Irish peer, positively Viscounte Taaffe, an Irish peer, positively declines to be an Irishman of any decription. He and his father before him were naturalized Australians, and the country has agreed so well with him that he has risen to the rank of Prime Minister to the Emperor Franz Josef.

The Duke of Hamilton can be recognized.

Emperor Franz Josef.

The Duke of Hamilton can be recognized a mile off by his clothes. They are always of the same pattern—very loud check, very of the same pattern—very loud check, very has a dozon suits made on hat. He usually has a dozon suits made on the same lines, color and pattern at the same time, and he regularly, whenever it is possible, changes his garments in the middle of the day.

The English soldiers in the Soudan were supplied with St. Jacob's Oil.

supplied with St. Jacob's Oil.

"HAVING used Burdock Blood Ritters for General Debility, Weakness and Lack of Appotite, I found it a safe cure."

NERVOUSNESS, deaders, Debility often raise from wrong action of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, and are best treated with B.R.B.

Beef, Iron and Wine

WHOLE NO. 8962.

An Elegant and Efficient Tonic for En-riching the Blood, Giving Tone and Vigor to the Entire System. This preparation is made of the purest and best materials obtainable and we confidently recommend it to those requiring a first-class from Tonic. Price, 50 cents per bottle.

PREPARED ONLY BY CAIRNCROSS & LAWRENCE, CHEMISTS AND DRUGGISTS, 256 DUNDAS STREET, - - LONDON.

VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

A Housebuilder's Dilemma.

To the Editor of the Advertiser:

If I let a contract to a carpenter to build a house and pay him the price, taking his receipt, can the lumber merchant who supplied the lumber used in the building compel me to pay for it if the carpenter does not pay and has nothing that can be taken for payment? If so, how many days must clapse before I should be safe in paying the carpenter for the work? Yours respectfully,

[The lumber merchant has a lien for the price of the lumber, of which he must price of the lumber, of which he must notify you within 30 days after furnishing it. This lien attaches on the contract price, and subject to priority of liens for wages payment of it can be enforced against you to the extent of such part of the price actually or by law required to be remaining in your hands, and also to the extent of any part of it paid to the carpenter for the purpose of defeating the heir. You are by law bound to retain for the period of 30 days after the completion of the contract 15 per cent. of the price when it does not exceed $1,000, 12½ per cent. when over $1,000 and not exceeding $5,000, and 10 per cent. in other cases.— Editor Advertiser.]

Sarnia Sunbeams.

Gordon, the 7-year-old son of Dr. McLean, county registrar, was drowned in the river on Fridey afternoon at Sarnia. The little fellow fell off a raft on which he was with a playmate named Hill. The latter attempted to pull him on again, but failing
attempted to pull him on again, but failing

S. H. Vint has now the handsomest shaving parlors in town owing to the artistic work done therein by Decorator Mitchell.

Mitchell.

Thomas Dundas has disposed of his livery stable business to Westell & Brown, veterinary surgeons.

David Griffin was arrested Sunday night, busy with incondigation. He will have David Griffin was arrested Sundaynight, charged with incendiarism. He will have a hearing before the mayor, and it is understood that the chief of police has again "put his foot in it."

Peacock & Co. have taken the contract of Peacock & Co. have taken the contract or putting one-half mile of iron pipe drain through Lake View Cemetery.

Edith, daughter of Frederick Mitchell, died on Friday, aged 10.

"Womanly Women" was the subject of Rev. W. C. McCormack's discourse at the Congregational Church Sunday evening.

Andrew T. Alexander, Sarnia, has charge of the sample rooms at the Oakland House, St. Clair, Mich.

Lambton County Council met in session of the sample rooms at the Canada St. Clair, Mich.

Lambton County Council met in session to-day. The appointment of a jail physician will be in order to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. McLean. It is probable that either Dr. Johnston or Dr. Poussette will receive the position.

Judge Robinson presided at the Division Court held here to-day (Tuesday).

The town flag and several private flags have been at half mast out of respect to the memory of Sir John A. Macdonald.

It looked like a holiday in Sarnia on Saturday owing to the large number of people

It looked like a holiday in Sarnia on Saturday owing to the large number of people in town en route to Forepaugh's show at Port Huron. The Port Huron Ferry Company is said to have made more money on Saturday than it ever did before on a show day. The gate system may have had something to do with it.

There has been considerable friction existing lately between the two ferry lines in Surnia, but the price of tickets remains just the same.

just the same. George Hillier is building a fine residence George Hillier is building a fine residence on Cameron street.

Jesse Patterson, of Port Huron, brought a bicycle over to Sarnia and sold it for $115. Jesse, being of a rather forgetful turn of mind, forgot to call at the customs office and enrich the department by paying 30 per cent, duty on the little wheel. The result was the seizure of the bicycle and a deposit of $200 with the collector on the part of Mr. Patterson. The wheel was confiscated, and all Jesse will see of that $200 won't be enough to buy him a Sarnia bicar.

Children Cr for Pitcher's Castoria;

Frances E. Willard will deliver the annual lecture in connection with Alma College closing exercises in the First Methodist Church, St. Thomas, on Thutsday, 11th inst., at 8 p.m. Tickets, 25 cents.

NEW YORK STORE

SOME VERY DELICIOUS NATIVE WINES

NOW IN STOCK. Claret, Concord, Niagara Grape, etc.

E.B. SMITH

125 DUNDAS STREET. Those answering an Advertisement will confer a favor upon the Advertiser and Publisher by stating that they saw the Advertisement in the LONDON ADVERTISER.