So badly was Mayor Van Wyck scratched for justice of the supreme court that it is believed that he will run nearly 30,000 behind his ticket. All of the Fusionist candidates for justices of the supreme court in New York county are elected, and all of the Democratic candidates are beaten. The name of Justice O'Brien, how-ever, appears on both tickets as a candidate for justice of the supreme court. Appearances this morning indicate that the Democrats have just one out of sixteen members of the board of estimates and apportionment of Greater New York-the board, which under the new charter, succeeds to many of the powers formerly vested in the mayor. The only Democrat who is certain of a position on the board of estimates and apportionment is Borough President Cassidy, of Queen's.

THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY. In adition to the election of an entire new assembly, two state senators were voted for to fill vacancies caused by death in the thirtieth and the fortythird senatorial districts. William B. Barnes (Republican) and Merton E. Lewis, one of the Republican leaders in the last assembly, won. The election of Messrs. Barnes and Lewis leaves the senate unchanged. There will be 35 Republicans and 15

Democrats in the senate of 1902, which is the same number each party had in the senate of 1901. The assembly of 1902 probably will stand as follows: Republicans and Fusionists, 108; Democrats, 42. This is in all probability a Republican and
