BIG MINE FIRE

Employes and Officers Have Wild Dash for Life.

Dingess, W. Va., Nov. 13.-The Freeport mines, the largest in this county, are again on fire and the officials say that no effort will be made to subdu the flames. This is the same mine that lost several hundred thousand dollars by a fire a year ago, and the fire was subdued only recently. Several miners and officials had narrow escapes for their lives by entering th mine on an investigation tour today. Being cut off, many of there were compelled to dash through the flames to reach the mouth of the pit, and everal were seriously burned.

GREY WANTS FREE TRADE Say It Has Been the Bulwark of English Shipping. London, Nov. 13.-Sir Edward Grey, peaking at West Bromwich last night, said: "We are not alone in the trade depression. Free trade has been a greater bulwark for British shipping than all the subsidies given by foreign governments have proved. Remember that Canada has not asked us to abandon our free trade policy, and in Australia the vast body of public opinion is against it. The protection arguments have been refuted over and over again, and last, but not least, by two young Daniels, who have escaped safely from the lion's den and gone back to London to support Premier

Balfour just so long as he does not formally promulgate his fiscal policy.'

MITCHELL ON STRIKES No Peace Until the Causes Are Eliminated.

Boston, Nov. 12. - Discussing "The New Forms of Arbitration Eetween Organization of Employers and Trades Unions," at the dinner given by the Economic Club tonight, John Mitchell, the Mine Workers' president, declared that although each side to the controversy between capital and labor has its rights and obligations, yet it must be remembered that higher than the interests of either were the interests of the great American people. He exring to the great coal strike, Mr. Mitchell said that the relations between the miners and the employers were better than ever before, and he felt confident the railroad presidents would agree to adopt the ideas and policies inaugurated when the term of the award expired. WOMEN'S BAPTIST MISSION
