THE WAR SITUATION.

The war situation remains practically unchanged. Beyond another dash into Port Arthur harbor by the Japanese destroyers, with uncertain results, there are no further re orts of conflicts.

An ominous silence rests over the Far East. Slowly but steadily Russia is pulling herself together for a supreme effort. Troops are pouring into Port Arthur and New Chwang, and the former is now believed to be inaccessible. Harbin, the Russian metropolis of Manchuria, has been strongly fortified. The task of guarding the Manchurian railway is thus simplified and large bodies of troops are ready for a dash into Korea at any moment. As for Japan, 60,000 of the Mikado's picked men are on the East Korean coast, close to the Manchurian frontier, and a division 50,000 strong is embarking at Tokio. The destination of this last army is unknown.

It may be sent to reinforce the army at the Yalu River or to the vicinity of Port Arthur preparatory to assaulting that fortress. With Port Arthur unsubdued or held in check a descent upon Manchuria would be perilous. Russian cruelty to Japanese refugees is again reported. The Russian prisoners of war captured at Chemulpo have been taken to Saigon and Hong Kong by British and French warships. Russia's Baltic fleet, eleven ships strong, has obtained permission from Germany to pass through the Kiel Canal en route to the Orient. Lord Lansdowne has intimated to Russia that the evacuation of New Chwang would prove her sincerity. Great sympathy is displayed in London for Japs, all classes contributing to the various war funds.

The victories of the Japanese have created a profound impression at Pekin, which is raplidly becoming pro-Jap and anti-foreigner. Fears are entertained of a massacre. Rumor says Count

Russia is great and powerful, and if our foe s strong this must give us additional strength and power to fight him. The spirit of the Russian soldiers and sailors is high. Our army and navy know many renowned names, which must in this hour serve as an example to us. Our God, who has always upheld the cause that is just, is doing so now.
