Ceylon Natural GREEN Tea is ABSOLUTELY PURE.

fold Only in Sealed Lead Packets at 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c and 60c per pound. By All Grocers. HIGHEST AWARD, ST. LOUIS, 1904.

a right to occupy."

over her shoulder.

success."

desperate woman! Take care!"

CHAPTER XXII.

"Yes, very tired, Everard."

more waltz with you, Everard."

"Oh, no. Let me enjoy myself to-you will make yourself ill."

gown."

ments."

Barbara."

things, do you not?"

should lose my beauty?"

You are satisfied, Lady Darley?"

she said in a low, intense tone.

Her Hidden Destiny

ing as he saw that she suffered the forward to but his scorn? He might "Shall we rest here a little?" she her without resenting it.

thing else to say to you. Have you quarreled with Lord Keith?"

"Is that no indeed?" he inquired. "There is a coldness between you then. Why (.o you not answer? He is perect, no doubt; but perfection is wearisome sometimes. If you have not quarreled, why is he cold to you? Nay, silence is worse than useless! You may as well reply with a good grace."

"He wishes to hasten our marriage," she answered sullenly. "Ah! And you do not wish it to hastened?" "To be hastened!" she echoed wild-"Don't you see that, though I am mad enough to continue our engagement, I am not mad enough to marry

"But you mean to marry him?" queried. "Do you not?" There was no answer for a moment, then she said hoarsely:

"That is my affair." "Not entirely. I may have other views for you," he remarked, with a "You?" she exclaimed haughtily, her eyes flashing. "Even I." She shrunk back a little, almost as If he had struck her, her guilt-for she was guilty now, she had been innocent before-had made her cowardly. "I think you mean to marry him," and I meant to let you-I did, really. I think I do not now." She tried to speak, but her tongue cleaved to her mouth, her lips were you.

"Are you sure that such a union many; but, if all the others fail you, is it?" she asked. would be for your happiness?" he con- I shall still be willing to assist youtinued. "Lord Keith is cold and proud if you choose." and stern; you are passionate and impulsive; your natures, brought into contact, could not fail to clash. You agree now because he is under the be so always-he will be so no longer when he knows what we know."

He spoke quietly, easily, almost gently; the girl sunk against the windowseat, unnerved, half-paralyzed, realizshe and all she loved were at his mercy—the mercy of a cruel and unperformance had been a very credita"Do you think, then, that a man of again around.

passive hand which had fallen at her They were all standing about, wait-guinea stamp; the man's the gowd for spent the end of the week at the home paid to the public school board.

J. H. Laughton Parkhill moved the property of the public school board. side; It lay in his, cold, lifeless, as the ing for a summons to the ballroom—for a' that." hand of a corpse. He looked at her a ball was to follow the theatricals— "Are you?" The sweet, languid, dark anxiously in the light; her face was laughing and chatting and discussing eyes brightened a little as she turned deathly pale, but set, as if carved in the play. Blanche Herrick, in a charmmarble. From the hall below, where ing aesthetic gown of a lovely faded "Of course I am." Lady Rose and some of her guests were shade of green, was apparently continuous their ten there came a shade of green, was apparently continuous below. Would you, then, in Bertie Fitz-Sensational Round-Up by C. P. R. ehatting over their tea, there came a uing in private life the flirtation she urse's place, have married Fannie Bun-

"Barbara!" he said gently. But she did not seem to hear him; a filled the role of Bertie Fitzurse seemed Keith, smiling. "Unequal marriages do slight convulsion crossed her face, a nothing loath to follow her example. not answer. A man should always slight shiver stirred the laces on her Barbara, in a gown of Indian muslin, marry in his own rank."

your happiness, who will even give up Lord Keith, who had not been very niece, my darling, the chances are a She turned her dark, despairing eyes upon him in the soft lamplight. "I will keep your secret forever if a repressed tenderness and passion. forced. "But. Barbara, will it be for your happiness? He is cold and proud and rehimself best, and his stainless name. How would it be with you if, after your marriage, a chance revealed to him might go on the stage." what I will never reveal? Would you keep his love then? You would be his turned languidly. "She would certain- love." wife, of course; he could not, I sup-pose, refuse you the shelter of his roof; but would he love you when he knew how cruelly you had deceived not like the idea of notoriety for wo- ing qualities you possess. Are you cold, fraud? Would he, calm and cold and ling?" he added tenderly. faultless as he is, forgive you for a erime? It would be that in his eyes!" All this time her hand had lain in his, passive, unresisting, ice-cold. As he relinquished it, it fell to her side. He sunk down beside her on the velvet eushions.

"His love would stand no such test," ("By-and-bye I shall not let you waltz be continued. "But mine would. Bar-with anyone else, sweetheart," he mur-"His love would stand no such test." he continued. But love you! I care with anyone else, sweetheart, he murnothing for your birth, I care nothing ing husband I shall make." for your shame! I love you! They need he is old and weak—you would soon cost to herself! win him over, Barbara-

She had risen and was standing erect. looking at him. Her face was set and tern as ever, but her eyes blazed with the bitterest scorn; the stupefaction of erorr had paseed from her; she unless rose to her lips; but, before she could utter them, he spoke.

After Dinner To assist digestion, relieve distress Hood's Pills

"You are not going to change your dress, Barbara, are you?" Blanche Herrick asked, coming toward them. "It is not worth while, is it?" "I shall not change," Barbara answered carelessly. "I am too tired to dance much."

"No; I like plush best."

"Oscar Wilde would worship you in as he turned to Blance. "I had no idea aestheticism could be so becoming." "Had you not? Just think how lovely those girls looked in 'Patience' and'The Colonel," returned Blanche, with "Their loveliness was not so condances, or may I hope for just one tour ending April 12: de valse?'

"Certainly; I have the fifth and sixth free. You can have either." "The sixth, then, if you will be so "Take care!" he said hurriedly, but indulgent.' without raising his voice. "Take care! By this time the gay groups of Say nothing yet, or you may regret it daintily dressed women, with their and B. Jones 69, L. Day 68. bitterly when it is too late! Do not glitter of jewels and rustle of silk and your love, in the palm of my hand, that ballroom, where the orchestra was Young 42. I can crush you in a moment. Let me playing a quadrille. Barbara, with her touch which had been so abhorrent to have pitied you if you had confessed said, a trifle unsteadily. "I am so tired, all at once; he can have no pity for Everard, and the gas has made my "Stay," he said coolly. "I have some- you now. He might have forgiven you eyes and head ache. I don't think I your misfortune; he will not forgive could stand the ballroom yet."

you your deceit. Do not deceive your-"It is very pleasant here," he said, self. In the minute that he knows the gently. "This little oak-paneled hall is Carty 81, A. Judge 66, N. Robbins 40, Ottawa, April 18.—James A. Smart, truth, the world knows it; and that one of the pleasantest places in the E. Parsons (absent during examinaminute dethrones you forever, and puts house. It reminds of a room at Firyou in the place which alone you have holme, which my mother was fond of. "That minute is near at hand now," will give the news, for Miss Herrick's triumph and the general consterna- answered, forcing a smile. tion. The drama will be far more interesting and amusing than the play your pleasure, Barbara! Surely they in which you are to act by-and-bye. would be sufficiently deserving of your Will you offer it as a lever de rideau interest to warrant an opinion!" or as an after-piece? I think the latter "Ah, do not be angry with me towould be best, for if it precedes 'New night!" she said, hurriedly. "Let me

Men and Old Acres,' the latter will be be happy tonight, Everard!" failure, and Lady Rose will be in "Angry with you, love? Am I ever despair. No; you must not leave me angry with you? I think I could not yet. I have one thing more to say to be. "Could you not? Shall we sit here Abbott. She had moved away from him; now on this quaint old settee? Those are the

she turned her head and looked at him Darley arms, of course, on the back. What beautiful carving!" 'Take care," she said, in the same low "Yes, the Darley arms. How white clear tones in which she had last ad- your hand looks against the black oak, dressed him. "You have made me a Barbara! The diamonds sparkle like dewdrops on a lily." "You said that very well," he re-"You are getting poetical, milord." marked sarcastically, "very well, in-"The subject is one to render the deed. Your histrionic powers are great, most prosaic of individuals poetical.' and may be very useful to you in the he rejoined, as he sat down beside her he went on, "if I allow you to do so; future. That is just what I wanted on the dark oak settee—a quaint seat to say to you now. If at any time you with tall carved back, against which day. feel anxious to put your talent to prac- Barbara rested her pretty aching head, tical use, I shall be happy to assist her fingers absently tracing the carv- Toronto. You may find a friend at court ing of the Darley arms.

useful when-you will not have so 'The Darley's? No. they don't date very far back. Lady Rose's family his business to Mr. James Key, who does, of course."

"You think a great deal of family Everard." She spoke a little wistfully, "I am more than satisfied, Mr. Bry- her fingers still tracing the carving. glamor of his love for you; he will not ant." Lady Rose replied warmly. "Why, yes, dear! Most people do, do "Everyone says it was an immense they not?

"I thought you might have altered her daughter, Mrs. Sheppard. The play was over; the brilliant au- your opinion," she said. "I thought Mrs. Wallace, of Toronto, has moved Mr. J. G. Elliott, of Kingston, gave dience who had thronged Lady Rose's Samuel Brown a far finer character to the village and has taken up her notice he would move that two membijou theater were crowding round her, than Bertie Fitzurse this evening." ing in all its bitterness the fact that congratulating her and her friends on "Of course, you did; you were Lilian Mr. J. Cawthorpe, who was indis-sociation be appointed to the proposed the unqualified succes of the play. The Vavasour.

made a successful debut; and Mr. replied. "I am a sincere believer in parents during Eastertide. Bryant bent toward her, and took the Bryant shared in the congratulations, the saying that 'rank is but the Mr. and Mrs. J. Scellan, of Berlin, had been so cleverly enacting on the ter?" stage, and the young man who had "Certainly not, dear," said Lord cordial about the theatricals, having hundred to one that we should not an old-fashioned prejudice against am- have met," he answered, smiling. ateur acting, had not been able to re- "Ah, but we might," she said play-It be for your happiness," he went on, girl had received it in silence, and the dent; you might have seen me on the smile she nad given him was faint and stage, as my—" She broke off sud-"Lady Rose has attained her ambl- nothing of the meeting of her father tion," his lordship said, smiling, as they and mother. "I am so pretty," served. He loves you perhaps—how watched their little hostess receiving added in a minute—"I am always hearcompliments and congratulations with ing how pretty I am-would not my unfeigned delight. "If she had not the beauty have attracted you?" misfortune to be a rich woman, she "It would have roused my admiration, no doubt," he answered. "But it "I think she would," Barbara re- was not your beauty which won my "Was it not? What was it, then?" "Yes. It is a queer taste. I am afraid "You, yourself, my darling," he an-I have old-fashioned notions; but I do swered, tenderly, "and all the charm-men. You are very tired, my dar- sweet? Do you feel any draught?" ITo be Continued.1 "Had you not better rest, instead of California honey retails in England at joining the dancing, dear? I am afraid 16 to 36 cents a pound.

night," she replied. "I want just one DR. HAMILTON TALKS

"Shall I?" she questioned, forcing a The reputation of this noted physihever know the truth if you will be my smile and looking up at him for a mocian needs no comment. For years Toronto, Ont., April 18.—The Knox ment with dim eyes. Ah, if she could he was one of the most noted and College bill, which had been entirely Elsdale would be angry at first, but only spare him, she thought, at any distinguished practitioners in England. In speaking of the ills from vate bills committee today. It was pro-"Awfully exacting, awfully jealous," which women suffer, Dr. Hamilton moted by the trustees to get power to of Edw. J. O'Connor. Asthma had man's boat. The party went up the he said, smiling. "I wish I had the points out that nine out of every ten mortgage the real estate just west of pretty nearly finished him, but he river on the Ontario side in a private right to send you to rest, my darling. women are by nature inclined to the old site in order to secure funds to wisely used "Catarrhozone," and writes electric car to the station of Westbor-Your cheeks are as white as your habitual constipation. Harsh purga- build the new church. As a matter of as follows: "It is a pretty gown, is it not?" she tensify the trouble. Although not $200,000 for a down-town church, buy- constant sufferer from asthma and that point at 11 o'clock in three large erstood him at last, she saw into what asked, trying to speak playfully. generally known, it is a constipated ing a site at $32,000 and putting up a catarrh. My nose and throat were alleged by four experienced men one of n abyss of disgrace she had fallen asked, trying to speak playfully, generally known, it is a constipated ing a site at $32,000 and putting up a catarrn. My nose and throat were all the states and throat were all the states and the six of interest score and bit. The state is a constipated ing a site at $32,000 and putting up a catarrn. My nose and throat were all would like it, Everard. You like simple with which all womankind is familiar, the church proper, even on the reduced asthmatic attacks came on I thought I ed half a dozen passengers. The run It was after long years of study that plan at $185,000. "Yes. But I hardly think simple Dr. Hamilton perfected the pills which things become you so well as sliken at- have been of such marvelous benefit headed by Mr. Robert Mackay, put up endure great distress. tire," he rejoined, with a smile. "You to women the world over. In his pills a strong opposition to what they term- "Catarrhozone was a God-send to me. the foot of the lock about noon. Mr. are a queely beauty, Barbara; plush of Mandrake and Butternut every suf- ed a breach of the original trust es- It has made me entirely well and I C. Berkeley Powell had charge of all and diamonds are your natural adorn- ferer will find an absolute specific for tablished by Jesse Ketchum "for a speak of it just as I found it." constipation, sick headache, and bil- Presbyterian church in the town of Your case is curable also. For one trip. "Then, if it were a cotton gown, I lousness. It is safe to say that Dr. York." Mr. Hamilton Cassels, K. C., dollar spent on Catarrhozone you'll "You could not do that. But cotton and keep the system in a more vigor- no such intent or possibility, but after druggist today or mail your order to is hardly your etoffe de predilection. ous condition than any other medicine ever discovered.

IN THAMESFORD

that gown," Lord Keith said, smiling, Standing of the Pupils in the Agreement With the North At-Public School—Coming and Departing Guests.

Thamesford, April 18. - Following is vincing as yours," he rejoined, bow- the standing of the pupils of the Government has decided to cancel the ing. "Have you disposed of all your Thamesford public school for the term contract entered into with the North

ROOM I. J. Bain 65. Junior V. - M. Reavely 86 per cent,

V. Kealey 74, E. Garner 73, C. Scott

aminations). ROOM II.

T. Dundas 56.

Darling, when are you coming to Fir- liam 81, F. Jenkins 81, M. Fillmore 81, committee today. At the request of holme? I am anxious for you to see the W. Jackson 80, A. Bain 76, E. Empey Mr. Monk he was placed under oath. new conservatories. I hope they will 75, Bruce Carter 72, Bernard Carter 71, In reply to Mr. Monk, he again refused "As you will. You will be the chief please you. You naughty child, you A. McFarlane 67, K. Lake 66, L. Sifton to give any information concerning "Worthless—when they were built for Bartlett 52, M. Jackson 52, D. Wilson jected to their names being given. 44, T. McFarlane 34, L. Lockery 14 (ab- Those behind the nominal company sent), L. Mill 8 (absent). ROOM III.

Brown, Janet Cowper, R. Prosser. Alice Jackson, Vera Fillmore, C .- Sterling Clarke, Willie Cowper.

Part I., A.—Myrtle Knox, Ford Mured on arriving in Canada phy, Marion Whitton, Gladys Yoke, Greta Bartlett, John McFarlan, Le Roy Lutz, Fred Reavely, Helen Moore.

B.—Willie Hogg, Annie Dundas, Mil-Lutz, Fred Reavely, Helen Moore. dred Yoke.

COMING AND GOING. Messrs. Peter Stalker and Arthur Cameron, of the Orkney Islands, were the guests of Mr. W. Kesher on Satur-

Mr. Chevers, of Chatham, traveler for "It is not a very old family, I think, the Dolph-Muir Roofing Company, visited friends here on Friday. Mr. T. H. McCarthy has disposed of takes possession at once. Mrs Malcolm Rain is day a new house on Delatre street. Mrs. Nelson has gone to Ingersoll, where she will spend the summer with residence on Dundas street. posed last week for a few days, is advisory committee.

ble one, and the piece had been put up- business-I suppose you would call him Miss Tena McMurray, of Port Stan-There was silence between them for nothing to desire to the tradesman—could not be a gentle-ley, spent the vacation at her home in the stage in a manner which left a tradesman—could not be a gentle-ley, spent the vacation at her home in the vacation at h breast. He was startled, even alarmed. was leaning against one of the pllars "Then, if I had not been Lord Els- ed off in the west was made success-"Why are you so moved?" he asked, near the door, looking very tired and dale's niece, you would not have fully last night through the activity of that oatmeal and wheat farines are as Beftly. "You know that your secret is worn as she fanned herself. She had asked me to be your wife?" she said in C. P. R. police. It was the capture of more expensive and predigested breakam a friend who will do anything for had excited much admiration.

EMPLOYES ARRESTED

Police at Winnipeg.

Some a friend who will do anything for had excited much admiration.

Wour happiness who will even give up had excited much admiration.

Even "If you had not been Lord Elsdale's a number of C. P. R. employes, who more expensive and predigested breakare accused of systematically robbing fast foods. cars and freight sheds for some Teach the Bible. months past through a perfect organization. During the night six men were how to improve them, was the sub-The six men who were arrested last Proctor, William Skelly, Harry Long, M. O. Solie and Walter Fox. The first four of these were secured in a shack near the C. P. R. yards, and in the rendezvous at the time of the arrest was a mail bag partially filled with stolen goods. At least fifteen warrants are out.

drew from $100 to $130 per month. It is stated that the ramifications of the gang are not confined solely to C. P. R. empolyes, but that they extend into Officers Elected. some of the larger wholesale ware-

KNOX BILL THROWN OUT mittee of Legislature.

tives are resorted to, which only in- fact, after setting aside one-third of "From my boyhood I have been a proceeded to Skead's Mill. They left Hamilton's Pills bring better health, for the trustees, argued that there was get back your health. Buy from your lantic Trading Company To Be Annulled.

GOVERNMENT TO CANCEL CONTRACT

Ottawa, April 18. - The Dominion Atlantic Trading Company. A statement to this effect will be made in Senier V.-H. Forbes 84 per cent, E. the House of Commons in a day or so. Brown 83, G. Patterson 73, B Storey 69, The contract was first entered into by the Dominion Government in 1899. On all immigrants for Manitoba and the Northwest entering by the ports of Halifax, St. John, Montreal, Quebec, make an enemy of me. Remember that satin skirts, and their black-coated lar 79, W. Young 74, J. Brown 74, J. of age, the company was to receive 17 I hold your wealth and position, and cavaliers, had made their way to the Hogg 73, F. Storey 63, W. Hogg 45, Art shillings and 6 pence per capita for any number less than 10,000 per year, ly; but as she raised herself and turned but speak half a dozen words and hand on Lord Keith's arm, followed derson 72, R. Jenkins 71, M. Wallace between 10,000 and 15,000 per year and as if to move away, he put his hand where will you stand in Lord Keith's slowly, and presently stopped in the 64, L. Cawthorpe 58, B. Bolton 54, L. 25 shillings for any number exceeding Bolton 34, S. Webb (absent during ex- 15,000. There was a rearrangment of the contract in 1900 and another rearrangement in 1904. Immigrants re-Senior III.-C. Forbes 83, Essie Car- quired to have at least $100 and had ter 70, Eva Carter 69, Ural Kealey 69, to settle on agricultural lands. The contract could be canceled in any year Junior III.-M. Morrison 84, E. Mc- after three months' notice from Oct. 1. Trading Company in Canada, was Senior II.-H. Newton 89, G. McWil- again examined at the agriculture sufferer. I hope you will prepare your- would not give me your opinion of the 65, L. Dowding 49, A. Routledge (ab- the North Atlantic Trading Company. "It would have been worthless," she Junior II.—C. Young 90, I. McTaggart personnel of the company, but parties 79, W. Colbert 59, M. Wilson 59, W. who were behind the company that obwere engaged in the steamship booking business. They represented all the Part II., A.—Thelma Bartlett, George lines, and might be liable to infringe on the laws of the country in which B.—Lillie Wallace, Hattie Schram, they operated. He had taken a pledge not to give their names. There was a clause in the contract which prevented Carrie Philpott, Alberta Webb, Earl Canada from being made liable to any infringement of the law by these D.-M. Colbert, M. Morrison, Cora parties. Some discussion followed as Lutz, Cecil Armstrong, Bruce Brown. to the way the immigrants were count-

MINISTER PYNE

Mr. Thomas Hogg spent Monday in Teachers' Association Pass Recommendations in Regard to Advisory Board.

Toronto, April 18.-The trustees Mr. George Club is preparing to build partment of the Ontario Teachers' Association had some recommendations to make to the Government regarding the education bill this forenoon.

bers of the trustees' section of the as-A motion was adopted instructing the

There was silence between them for a space. Then a servant came along the corridor, lighting the brass lamps that control is the corridor is the corridor as the corridor. Space is the latter's to urge upon him the advisability of amending the public school act and the municipal act, so that the whole of the latter's municipal act municipal act, so that the whole of W. C. Chisholm; director, T. W. the taxes raised by municipal councils Standing. for public school purposes shall be The trustees' department elected-

As to Breakfast Food.

Professor Harcourt of the Ontario Winnipeg, April 18.—One of the most Agricultural College, gave an account sensational police round-ups ever pull- of his recent experiments in break-

The condition of rural schools and placed under arrest, but it is claimed ject dealt with by W. H. O. Collis. plicated, though the evidence in hand public school inspector for East Kent. There was a lack of knowledge of the Bible in the schools. Mr. Collis selections of scripture passages, to be read without comment, and to prethis could be done without raising denominational differences. In her discussion on "Men and Wo-The majority of the men implicated school section, Miss Agnes C. Purvis, men Teachers," before the public of London, did not decide altogether in favor of the men.

The officers elected by the modern language section were: President, E. S. Hogarth, Hamilton; vice-president. Miss A. E. Marty, Ottawa; secretary, Prof. J. Squair, Toronto. Committee-Miss E. M. Bunnell, Brantford: Miss Trinity College; W. A. McKim, Perth; A. Mowat, Brockville. The inspectors elected as officers News From Canadian Sault.

A. E. Day, Walkerton; Messrs. A. E.

Lang, Victoria College; A. H. Young, couldn't live through the night. I was through the Remoux Rapids, the U. S. A., or Kingston, Ont.

is the name of the popular shredded whole wheat wafer, which takes the place of white flour bread as a Toast with butter, cheese or preserves. Tasty, nourishing, and easily digested.

Send for the "Vital Question Cook Book," postpaid.
CANADIAN SHREDDED WHEAT CO., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Headquarters for

IRON BEDS, SPRINGS AND MATTRESSES

Our new spring stock is now on our floors ready for your inspection. We have all the very newest and up-to-the-minute styles, and at the lowest possible

The Ontario Furniture Co. 228-230 DUNDAS STREET.

THE REASON WHY

TION IS BECAUSE EDDY'S is the BEST

If you don't believe it, ask any up-to-date grocer in Canada, and

TUBS AND PAILS ALL KINDS MADE BY The E. B. EDDY CO., Limited, Hull, Canada

DONALD McLEAN, Agent, 426 Richmond St., London.

Bank of Nova Scotia

Capital Paid Up, $2,500,000 Reserve Fund, $4,200,000 Total Resources Dec. 31, 1905, $33,438,776 HEAD OFFICE, HALIFAX. GENERAL MANAGER'S OFFICE, TORONTO.

BRANCHES.-This bank has 51 branches in Canada, two in Newfoundland, two in the United States, one in Cuba and two in Jamaica, and has correspondents in all parts of the world, thus affording all needed facilities for the transaction of a general banking business. DEPOSITS.-In the Savings Department deposits of one dollar and upwards are received, repayable on demand, and interest is compounded twice a year. London Branch, Corner of Richmond and Carling Streets.

President, C. W. Kelly, Guelph; vice-J. H. Laughton, Parkhill, moved that president, L. K. Murton, B. A., Oshathe majority of the advisory board to wa; secretary-treasurer, George A. be formed by the education bill con- Aylesworth, Newburg; executive comsist of those interested in public mittee, Prof. McGillivray, Kingston; schools, viz: Public and separate John H Langton, Parkhill; John Anschool teachers, inspectors and trus- derson, Arthur; M. Parkinson, Toronto; F. W. Wright, St. Thomas; M. D. Tudhope, B. A., Orillia. In the training department the followng are officers: Chairman, J. Dearness. London; secretary, Wm. Wilson. Toronto-Junction; director, M. Broder-

TO CARRY EMPIRE NEWS

Fleming's Proposed Cable Scheme Considered a Good One.

London, April 18. - The Liverpool stage, as my—" She broke off sud- pheated, though the strong denly, remembering that she knew was not considered sufficiently strong ing school should be raised to twenty. Sandford Fleming is invaluable in its Post editorially says the scheme for potentialities. Regarding the suggestion that the cable be utilized for free night were: R. McIntosh, William Christian denominations, should make ed interests would have to be overcome, and there would be the expense pare a text book of questions and ans-the "Empire column" of our daily papers. That, however, would be a matter of arrangement. No doubt the promoters of the general idea would manage it successfully. Prince Arthur has cabled Sir Thos

Shaughnessy here, thanking him for the admirable arrangements for the C. P. R. special train. One hundred and ten girls from the Barnardo homes sailed for Canada

PRINCE SHOOTS CHUTES

H. R. H. of Connaught Takes Thrilling Ride In Lumberman's Boat. Ottawa, Ont., April 18.—The event of the morning for Prince Arthur was The latest tells of the quick recovery his trip down the slides in a lumberough, near Brittania, and from there the arrangements connected with the

HOLLOWAY'S Corn Cure destroys all

R. B. ROSSBOROUGH, - Manager.

When you buy leings, you want them pure and good Cowan's Cake Icings > child can ice a cake in Chocolate, Maple, Pink. Cocsanut, Cream. Almond, Orange, Etc.

THE COWAN CO., Ltd., Toronto.

and so easily used that a

City Bindery

Removed to 355 Richmond St. H. P. BOCK.

USE niamond

Better than all-Manitoba for general household use, being a comfort of himself and suite on the blend of Manitoba and Ontario wheat.

HUNT BROS.

Making a Garden

Come here for your tools. Rakes Hoes Trowels Spades

75c, 85c, $1 See our Adjustable-Pin Curtain Stretcher.

Westman's Hardware

121 Dundas St. Market Square.