TO START SOUTH EARLY

In Order to Get Northern Frosts Out of Limbs of Players—Hopes to Win.[By Associated Press.] Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 14.—Hughie Jennings, who will start for Detroit tomorrow, to call his players together and to prepare for the spring training trip in the south. Jennings said that the team will be in football, not in baseball. He will purchase a dozen or more association football balls, and will have them on these about the ball field for a few days.
He says it is an excellent way to limber up the men, and to make them feel and improve their wind, without hurting their arms.
We will have an early start for the south, as I believe in early training to get the northern frost out of our joints, and to get the men in good condition to need good hard work to put them in shape for the season, said Hughie.
Jennings says he is making any predictions, but he hopes to make it four straight pennants.

LIKE LONG SCHEDULE

American Association Magnates Will Adopt One.[By Associated Press.] Chicago, Feb. 14.—The American Association will adopt a 168-game schedule for 1910 at its annual meeting to be held tomorrow. The season probably will open on April 13 and close about September 16. The dates of opening and closing and the length of the season were decided at a meeting held in December.
The schedule committee has drawn up a list of dates which will probably be adopted tomorrow without an opposition.
According to the present draft the opening will be "home and home," the opening clubs opening in two eastern cities.
According to President T. M. Chivington, the adoption of the schedule will be the only matter of importance to be brought before the meeting.

SCHEDULE IS ADOPTED

Now To All Intents—Will Be 154 Games, as Drawn by President —Early Arrivals.[Special to The Advertiser.] Chicago, Feb. 15.—The American League will adopt a 154-game schedule at its annual meeting, which begins here today, regardless of the action of the National League in New York, according to a statement made by President S. B.
Johnson yesterday.
"We will stick to the old length of the schedule during 1910," said Mr. Johnson.
We will adopt 154 games whether the National League will or not. The new schedule of 154 or 158 games is coming up for several years and I see no reason why it should not be retained. The season is long enough and will have enough double-headers without adding any more games to the list.The American League meeting will be adopted until Wednesday. According to an agreement between the two major leagues, the National will announce its schedule one day before the other circuit.
There will be no argument on the subject of the schedule. The schedule already drawn up will be adopted unanimously, according to present indications.

New Agreement Comes Up.

The principal business to come before the meeting will be the adoption of the new schedule. The American League was in existence at the beginning of 1900, but the agreement was not adopted until later in the year. Apparently there will be no objections to the continuance of the present circuit, as all the clubs are satisfied with present conditions.According to President Johnson, there is no other business of importance to be discussed. The meeting will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria, where the Western League will adopt its 1910 dates Wednesday.

Early Arrivals for Meeting.

Among those who arrived yesterday were President S. B. Johnson and Manager Mack, of Philadelphia; Secretary Hugh McGraw and Manager Patsy Donohue, of Boston; President Robert L.
Hedges, of St. Louis, and President C. Noyes and Manager James McAleer, of Washington.The Chicago Club will be represented by President Charles A. Comiskey. Secretary Charles Shibe and Manager Hugh Duffy, who arrived today to prepare for the spring training trip to ton Club, will not be present at the meeting, as he is now in San Francisco.TRENTON GOES DOWN

MURRAY CASE PASSED UP

Because Fogel Has Gout—Umpires
Named—Longer Schedule
Gossip.[Special to The Advertiser.] New York, Feb. 14.—The board of directors of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, in session in New York today, fined the Philadelphia Club $250 for the forfeiture of the game with New York at the Polo grounds on Oct. 4 last; fined Capt. Doolan, of the Phillies, $100 for unexcused conduct in the same game, and approved the list of umpires selected by President Lynch.
Admission then was taken until tomorrow.There probably will be another session of the directors in the morning, and at 2 o'clock the league members will meet to decide whether there will be a schedule of 154 or 158 games for the coming season. The American League will meet an hour later in Chicago, also to adopt a schedule.

Men on Umpire Staff.

The umpires for the coming year will include only two new men, as Henry O'Day, Robert Emswiler, James E. Johnstone, Charles Rigler, William J. Klein and Stephen J. Kane have been re-appointed. The new men are William Brennan, of the Wisconsin and Illinois League, and Gus Moran, who last year was an umpire of the Southern League.
The double umpire system will be employed throughout the season.

The Murray Case.

The claim of William Murray for $15,000 from the Philadelphia Club, on the allegation that he cancelled contract as manager still has two years to run, was to have been heard today, but Horace Fogel, the new manager of the "Phillys," reported that he was unable to appear in court at the Waldorf-Astoria that he had been stricken with gout and was too ill to appear. The case will be postponed until the next session of the court.

Why They Chopped Fines.

While New York claimed $15,000 from the directors held today that an award of $15,000 to Murray was not one of the last games of the season. The fine of $100 against Doolan is in addition to the fine of $50 assessed against President Heydler on the umpire's recommendation. With fines of $25 each against two players, the total fine for the forfeited game cost the Philadelphia Club $150.

Draft Umpires.

Garry Hermann and Chas. Murphy informally discussed a plan today whereby the major leagues would draft their umpires from the minor leagues in the same manner as players are now drafted. It was suggested that umpires would then obtain good schooling, and only accomplished judges of play would be selected for work in the big leagues. No drafting price for the umpires was suggested. Whether the plan will be officially presented to the magnates is probable.

The Long Schedule.

Advocates of the short season, including Garry Hermann, of Cincinnati, seem confident that their views will prevail. A determined stand for the 158-game plan on the part of President Ebbets, of Brooklyn, is expected. Sponsored by President Murphy, of Chicago, was a northwestern expected. Votes for the 154-game schedule, in contrast to the American League's season, were counted upon from President Dreyfus, of Pittsburgh; Dovey, of Cincinnati; and probably Robinson, of St. Louis.Brush, of New York, is quoted as expressing willingness to favor the long schedule only if it could be made to conform with the American League's season series can be definitely avoided.

Today's Session.

New York, Feb. 15.—When the magnates of the National Baseball League met today to consider the season's playing schedule it was still a toss-up whether the 154 or the 158 game schedule would win out. Both schedules were minutely discussed during the morning as the league presidents got together for the business of the day. The issue of the magnates who desire to keep the old 154-game arrangement had apparently been dissipated by the preliminary testing of sentiment, and today the 158-game schedule was seen highly the more confident of success. President Johnson, of Chicago, and Galt, of the 158-game schedule may be expected from Messrs. Williams, of Cincinnati, of Philadelphia, Murphy, of Chicago, and Brush, of New York.On the other hand, Presidents Hor-mann, of Cincinnati, and Dreyfus, of Pittsburgh, still claimed today that the magnates of the 154-game plan were bound to win out. Debate over the divergent views of the two groups of magnates gave every promise of being a long and prolonged session.
