union may be told in a few words. In March the union committee met in Toronto and prepared a resolution be presented to the assembly favoring organic union. This was so sorrow and suffering. This statement was submitted to the assembly on Thursday morning, the intention being that it should become the finding of the body. Dr. Campbell, of Montreal, took exception to the holding of a meeting of the committee in Edmonton, and Principal Mackay, of SAW AN AEROPLANE Vancouver, moved that a large comnittee be named to take the natter under advisement. Both Dr. Campbell and Principal Mackay having been consistently opposed to union from the beginning, their suggestion was, however, accepted, and the committee was appointed on Thursday morning. This committee met on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, and late Saturday night arrived at a unanimous decision, a resolution being finally introduced which was satisfactory to all. This resolution will be laid before the assembly tomorrow afternoon, and will without doubt be received and adopted. Rev. Dr. J. Clarke, of the Westmount Presbyterian Church, Montreal,

> The assembly church was crowded to its utmost capacity at both the morning and evening services to hear the preachers of the day Rev. Bruce Taylor, M.A., of St. P Church, Montreal, conducted morning services, and preached with fine effect from Judges, vii., on the subject, "The Impirtance of One's Attitude in Life." The preacher applied the teachings of his text to the life of today in Canada. He made short work of the complacent spirit that possessed the church in an earlier day, and talked of being elected to salvation or not elected as it seemed elected only that they may serve, and those who count election their prerogative are those upon whom the anger of the Lord rests. He believed that all men should take an interest in politics. He did not care what party they might belong to. The attitude of interest in the state and its welfare was a concern of paramount importance.
