

The Weekly British Colonist

Wednesday January 12, 1870.

Self Government. Almost immediately upon the promulgation of Lord Grenville's confederation dispatch to Governor Macgregor, we repeated to express the fear that an attempt would be made to put this colony under the new dispensation. It turned out that the fear was well founded. There is no longer reasonable ground to suppose that an attempt will be made...

ROAD TAX. Twenty-eight summonses had been issued for road tax to be paid yesterday at the Police Court, and occupied the time of the Court for nearly three hours. Mr. J. M. M'Callister giving evidence in each case...

THEATRE ROYAL. We are heartily sorry that the excellent company now playing at our theatre are not meeting with that support and encouragement their talents merit. No one who goes to see them but comes away delighted with the principal performers...

Rev. Mr. Jenks and his Rebuke of Folly and Sin. Editor British Colonist. Not many weeks ago the members of Christ Church were publicly dragged through the mire of newspaper controversy; and, although he thoughtlessly exposed his flank to the enemy, yet I greatly question the utility of the discussion...

PEACE RIVER MINES! Tinware, Hardware, &c. MESSRS. PEARSON & BROS. TIN SMITHS, &c. of Barkerville, W. M. Brock, have opened a BRANCH STORE at the MOUTH of QUENSLER...

AUCTION. BRITISH COLUMBIA & VANCOUVER ISLAND SPAR LUMBER AND SAWMILL CO. (Limited). To be sold by Auction, by order of the Mortgagees and with the consent of the Official Liquidators...
