News Notes of Town and Country Happenings
Gathered by Graphic Reporters.

CROWDED OUT.

A large amount of country correspondence and school grading lists have been held over until next week.

GOOD FISHING.

The recent use of water has made good salmon fishing in the rivers between Matapedia and Tide Head, and many fine salmon have been caught.

CAUGHT LARGE SALMON.

Dr. Pinaut, who recently purchased the Nichol waters and erected a neat cottage on "Duke's" island has been enjoying some good fishing. He caught one thirty pound and one small salmon on Friday.

WHEEL CHAIR.

Has any person in Campbellton an invalid's wheel chair they would care to loan to a wounded soldier so that he can get out doors, or will some car owner volunteer to take him out for an occasional car ride. Please notify, Lieut. O. J. Lawson.

BORDEAUX MIXTURE.

On page three will be found the formula for Bordeaux Mixture which should be cut out and saved by every farmer and gardener. This formula has proved to be the most successful in this locality.

NEW STUDEBAKER.

What is conceded to be the most beautiful and easiest riding car on the local market is now on display at the Leonsbury Co's. It is the new Studebaker, which arrived last week. Any one interested in automobiles is invited to call and see this car.

ROAD REPAIRS.

A considerable amount of road repairs are under way between Campbellton and Dalhousie. Hon. Peter Veniot visited the work Tuesday and we hope it will be speed up. A number of sections between Campbellton and Dalhousie Junction are very rough.

BEAUTIFUL WINDOW DISPLAY.

Our reporter was attracted during the holiday by a beautiful window display at F. E. Shepherd & Co's. store. The entire scheme being brought out by green boughs forming a rustic seat supported at either side by massive pillars. A lady model seated with her knitting, dressed in one of the firm's new summer dresses completes this attractive display.

PRESENTATION.

On the eve of the departure from Newcastle of Dr. Charles W. Squires, pastor of the Methodist church, a representative gathering of the congregation, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Clarke, presented him with an address and a sum of money as a token of their appreciation of his ministry and best wishes for his future. The address was delivered by Ald. E. H. Stuart of the Quarterly Board and the money presented by Miss Ethel Allison of the choir. Dr. Squires made a very feeling reply, and the gathering dispersed with "Blessed be the Tie That Binds."

It is necessary for every grocer to have rubber stamp of his Food Control License number, with which to stamp his stickers, etc. Send your license number to the Graphic and we will supply the necessary stamp at short notice. Ink pads also carried in stock.

PRISONER'S PICTURE.

Mrs. W. W. Clarke has received a group picture of prisoners from the camp where her husband is confined. Pte. Clarke and the other men look well and quite jolly. W. A. Clarke, son of Pte. Clarke has reenlisted. He had been overseas since the fall of 1915 serving in England and France, and returned home in January 1918. He is still under military age.

Word has been received from Pte. B. Eric Hickey, that he is now in the 7th C. G. E. West St. John. His brother Pte. Gordon Hickey went over with the 132nd and was wounded last November, but is back at the front.

PAINE-HAYES.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Almond, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hayes of Shigawake, Que., to Mr. Nathan Deane Paine, B. Sc. of Berlin, New Hampshire, was solemnized on June 29th at the bride's home, the Rev. Mr. Anderson officiating. The happy couple left on a trip to Berlin and other southern points after which they will take an extended trip through the White Mountains.

KENNEDY-DOGGETT.

A very pretty wedding took place on Monday at 5 a. m. in the Convent of the Sisters of the Holy Rosary, Douglastown, when Mr. Leo Kennedy was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Louise Doggett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Gauthier and only relatives and intimate friends were present. Mr. Anthony Kennedy, brother of the groom acted as groomsmen and Miss Frances Doggett, sister of the bride as bridesmaid. The bride wore a gown of grey satin with chintilly lace with veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a gown of black silk with large black hat and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The ushers were Mr. J. Morris and Miss Belliveau.

After the ceremony light refreshments were served, the happy couple leaving at 6.30 for a trip to Montreal. On their return they will reside in Douglastown, where Mr. Kennedy is the popular manager of the firm of Kennedy Brothers.

Served Her Right.

Uncle was talking to a single lady, who is a property owner and lives next door.

"Expenses keep piling up on me," she complained.

"Broken hose cost me $5 just last week."

"Served you right!" growled Uncle.

"What did you mean by that? My hose was—"

"You don't need to tell me. Your hose was broken and you lost the five."

Why in thunder, madam, don't you put your money in the bank instead of carrying it around that way?"

ONE ON HIS DAD.

My son, aged six, had been reading in one of his books about "Billy White-knives," and came to a part where "Billy and Nanny" were married.

We sat down to supper and my son, with the story still in mind, said: "Mamma, how old are goats when they get married?"

His mother said, "Why, dear I do not know."

Then turning to me, he asked "pa, how old were you when you got married?"

Still Here.

A sick man had just emerged from a long delirium. "Where am I?" he asked, very feebly, as he felt the loving hands making him comfortable. "Where am I? In heaven?"

"No, dearie," said his wife gently, "I am still with you."
