We do supply fresh milk,

The lean man doth get stout,
The sick man doth get well again,
The invalid goes out.

We always have got plenty
To supply a large demand,
A church party, a festival,
Or a run out milk man.

A surplus stock we carry
Of fifteen cans or more;
We pick you out the very best
And send it to your door.

We bring it in twice daily—
The morning and the night—
Twelve hours from milking you get it
So you can't help get it right.

All you who have not tried it
Have time to try it yet,
We're bound to sell the very best
At a fair price you bet.

Now where to get this extra milk
The secret I'll not keep,
