LORETTO'S CHILDREN.

Twenty-fourth Anniversary of the Con The pupils of Loretto Abbey last evening nal consecration of His Grace Archbishop Walsh by a very pleasing concert. Besides the honored guest there were also present Monsignor O'Brien, Rome, Papal able-gate to Canada, and Father Flannery, St. Thomas The Toronto clergy were represented by Vicar-General McCann, Vicar-General Rooney, Dean Cassidy, Fathers McBride, Williams, Egan, La Marche and Bride, Williams, Egan, La Marche and Brennen.

The first item on the program was a song of welcome composed for the occasion. The music, harmonious and reverberant, was by Signor F. d'Auria. The chorus showed marks of careful training and the solo parts were well taken by Miss Staunton. The addresses of Misses Slaven and Kirk, the title for both being "Sacerdos in Aeternum," displayed the results of careful training and persistent practice.

Miss Cooke's quaintly humorous recitation, "The Minnet," was one of the most interesting productions of the evening. She is, although a very young lady, a graceful and accomplished reader. At its conclusion a minust similar to the one spoken of in the piece was danced by eight scholars.

Miss Chopetae's harp solo, accompanied by the piano and violin, was greakly admired, as was also the chorus, "La Carita," in which the solo parts were taken by the Misses Hawley and Petley.

The remaining participants were Misses Dean, Muldrew, C. O'Meara and McCann.
