of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, Rev. A. A. Cameron, Rev. Dr. Moore and George May waited upon Sir John MacDonald o ascertain whether the Government twould grant any funds to assist in the defence of the Scott Act before the Privy Council in England. Sir John replied that the Government could grant no aid, because Parliament had voted no miney for that purpose, and the government had no right to so supply any funds without a vote of Parliament. He had, no doubt, however, that the required amount might be voted next session. He said suited the Dominion had no right to interfere in the matter, because Woodward, the policeman, was not a Dominion ficial After considerable discussion Sir John tay intitled that this might be a special case in which an exception could be made, and promised to consult with his colleagues upon the matter.

Budden, driven by Corbett. Owing to recent rains the track was in a rather heavy condition for racing. A considerable amount is said to have exchanged hands on the result. A rather disgraceful affair occurred during the second heat, when an owner of one of the horses started a row with some outsider. Black eyes and cut faces were numerous before the trouble was quelled. The race was a one mile trot. Three prizes were offered, 1st, $45; 2nd, by Barbara; 3rd, by Miss Alice; 4th, by Napoleon. Messrs. Church, Redden, Webster and Masters acted as starters and judges.

The following is the order in which the horses came in at the end of each heat:—
