

Lawrenceston Items.

Dr. Hall's Lecture.—Those who were present in William's Hall on Wednesday evening enjoyed a rich treat in Dr. Hall's vivid description of German Customs, and incidents in his stay in Berlin and during the past year in Cottage work.

Among the prominent points illustrated by the Dr. were the home life of the German; its influence upon the masses; the strict military education of all males, preparing them for war or peace; and the healthy and superior character of the German educational institutions. The Dr. spoke to the highest credit of the German people, and his lecture was a most interesting and instructive.

The Rev. J. Downing in a few well chosen remarks moved a hearty vote of thanks, saying that he was sure he voiced the sentiment of those present when he said, "I regret that I cannot give us six more evenings on the same subject."

Nor was the Dr. a lecture at all. Dr. R. Band discoursed in their best style, giving Dr. H. a warm greeting as he entered the hall with "Home again from a Foreign Shore." The Band deserves a great deal of credit for their marked progress; and, doubtless, in the near future will enrich our streets with evening concerts.

LAWRENCESTON SCHOOL MEETING.—The annual gathering of ratepayers was held in the school room on Monday evening 29th Sept. The report of trustees was very satisfactory and unanimously adopted. The trustees advised to vote $50.00 for teachers' salaries, which was done; also the usual sum for fuel, and the sum of $30.00 for fueling the interior of both departments; and recommended that, as the near future, the school be fitted with the latest improved, single, iron-framed desks. The trustees contemplate securing one of the best teachers in the County for the advanced department, which will afford those outside the section wishing advanced work, an excellent opportunity. They are desirous of making this one of the best schools in the County. Success to them.

Daisies and buttercups are in blossom. Our Commissioner has forgotten to repair that bridge.

Apple buyers are quite numerous, and the prices are good. Picking what few apples we have is the order of the day.

We notice several improvements made by paint and paper.

R. E. Peliss, Esq., purchased three fine horses while on his way to the States.

The potatoes are about all dug around here. The farmers say they are half rotten.

John Brown, Esq., was called away last part last week, and returns this week.

Miss Eleanor Stevens, who has been at Ellersboro on a visit, has returned.

Dr. J. B. Hall, in company with his sister Mrs. J. W. Whitman, are now on the 8th and 10th lots.

John Hall, Esq., started for Yarmouth on the 6th. He is one of the judges of horses at the exhibition to be held there on the 8th and 10th lots.

We are going to have our sidewalks all well graded, and ornamental trees set on either side of them. When this is done we will have a fine street.

One of our highly esteemed young ladies, Miss May Miller, has just returned from Lynn, where she has been visiting. Mrs. Anna Paine has also returned from her visit to Boston.

Round Hill Jottings.

E. Tupper, M. F., of Bear River, was among us last Thursday. He was in the schoolhouse, Monday 29th Sept.

Mrs. Wm. Tupper, of Nantucket, is here visiting her relatives.

Isaac Kent, a nonagenarian gentleman of this place, was called away by death last Thursday.

Large quantities of freight are being daily shipped from here to various places along the coast and in the neighboring provinces. Farmers seem to be awakened to the fact that markets for their produce may be found outside of Uncle Sam's borders.

Large quantities of freight are being daily shipped from here to various places along the coast and in the neighboring provinces. Farmers seem to be awakened to the fact that markets for their produce may be found outside of Uncle Sam's borders.

The cold of churlish winter seems to be approaching. Frost has already commenced its destructive operations, and the past few days have been of unusual severity. Nevertheless the valley is in its prettiest, the forests have changed their emerald greenness for a garb of various tints.

A very pleasant evening was spent by all who go to church, in the presence of the Sunday-school of that church. The programme was large and well-selected, and received ample justice at the hands of the young recruits. Chorus music, both vocal and instrumental, was dispensed to the large audience, interspersed with exercises and recitations. A goodly amount, as the result of a lecture, was realized, which is to be appropriated to the purchase of a new library for the school. Great credit is reflected upon the pupils and teachers of this school in so doing, and favoring the public with their productions.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

Centerville Clippings.

Messrs. Major A. Messenger and Benjamin Brooks are at present visiting friends in Lynn, Mass.

Bernard Messenger, son of Mr. Arthur Messenger, has successfully passed the examination for teacher's license, having obtained grade "C."

The apple seasoner, who is going his rounds with an anxious look on his countenance, should command the respect of every intelligent farmer. Though the crop is small the present high prices will compensate in a great measure for the deficiency.

Our annual school-meeting, on Monday evening, was one of the most successful in many years. W. R. Hicks was appointed trustee in the place of the one retiring, after which an unusually generous sum was voted for the maintenance of a school for the ensuing year.

Your correspondent takes great pleasure in announcing the marriage of Mr. John Corliss, of this place, to Miss daughter of Murray Elliot, Esq., of New York. The wedding took place on Wednesday, 24th ult., at the residence of the bride's father. The happy couple, after spending a few days in the eastern part of the country, arrived home on Saturday night, where they will live in the home occupied by the parents of the groom.

—We have a speedy and positive cure for Catarrh, Dysphasia, Canker Mouth, and Head-Ache, in SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A. N. L. & Co., New York. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50 cents. Sold by Drs. deLille & Primmer, Bridgetown, and Dr. Morse, Lawrenceston.

—The whole world's produce of salt per annum is 7,300,000 tons. England produces the most.

Facing Eternity.

MICHAEL BIRCHALL HAS HAD "FETTERED HANDS."

Woodstock, September 30.—Notwithstanding that he left court last night under sentence of death, Birchall did not lose one tithe of his self-possession in the way to the gallows. In the back he chafed his guards and while awaiting when spoken to that "It was pretty hard luck to be placed as he was, but he soon changed the subject."

The rumor has spread from mouth to mouth until everybody seems to believe it, that if he has the opportunity Birchall will commit suicide. Gaudier Cameron will prevent any possibility of the result by mounting double guards over the prisoner to keep him under watch day and night, and leaving him no instant.

Birchall seems to concur in every arrangement that is made and talks pleasantly and coolly as he has always done about every thing else that is suggested. This morning he arose after a good night's rest, and when seen by an official visiting Woodstock, who was allowed access to the jail, was sitting in his room sketching, just as he has done every morning for the last seven months.

THE UNHAPPY WIFE.

His unfortunate wife was mercifully placed under the influence of opium and the conclusion of the trial and three held her under their spell until this morning. She was then informed of the result of the court. Though she had little hope of a more favorable result, the news came as a severe shock to her. She had won many friends in Woodstock, and those who regard Birchall as the most cold-blooded and unfeeling criminal of the age sympathize tenderly with his wife. A regard for having wrecked her happiness and ruined her life, she is a wretched, wretched creature. It is thought that she will not survive his long, and in any event she will never again recover her sanity and high spirits. Few people who know Mrs. Birchall when first she came to Woodstock or who saw her Niagara Falls before the dreadful revelations of the gloomy Tamarack swamp would recognize her in the gaunt, pale and emaciated creature who now appears in the streets. In seven months she has changed from a young and healthy, lively, cheerful and attractive, with the bloom of English health upon her cheeks, to a sad and premonitory of a woman, with sunken eye and pallid face.

It is said arrangements have been made to take her to England before November 14, when the sentence of the court is to be carried into effect.

Mrs. West-Jones, her sister, who has borne up well under the dread and misery of the last few weeks, is also deeply affected.

Julius Cameron, who has learned to like Birchall for his pleasant ways and pleasant manner, is as sorry at the result as though a personal friendship of long standing had been severed. Turkey Forbes, who knew Birchall when he was here as Lord Somerset and passed many pleasant days with him hunting and fishing, and Lord Entwhistle, who now has the duty of keeping a death watch upon a man whom he has associated so kindly terms for the seven months, feel keenly the outcome of the long and weary trial. Birchall will be regarded as a martyr to his country.

Donovan Davis, who will probably have the same duty of going with him to the scaffold.

The quickness with which the jury reached its conclusion last night is a surprise, matter everyone on the panel had reached the conclusion that the prisoner was guilty, and when they elected their foreman his only work was to poll the vote.

NOTES FROM ENGLAND.

New York, Sept. 30.—The World's London cablegram says: "The most popular talk in all England to-night is Birchall's conviction. The news reaches too late to admit of much comment in the London evening papers, but all that do comment reflect the general opinion that the verdict is a just one. Birchall has sacrificed himself for his greed for gain."

Dr. J. B. Hall, in company with his sister Mrs. J. W. Whitman, are now on the 8th and 10th lots.

John Hall, Esq., started for Yarmouth on the 6th. He is one of the judges of horses at the exhibition to be held there on the 8th and 10th lots.

We are going to have our sidewalks all well graded, and ornamental trees set on either side of them. When this is done we will have a fine street.

One of our highly esteemed young ladies, Miss May Miller, has just returned from Lynn, where she has been visiting. Mrs. Anna Paine has also returned from her visit to Boston.

E. Tupper, M. F., of Bear River, was among us last Thursday. He was in the schoolhouse, Monday 29th Sept.

Mrs. Wm. Tupper, of Nantucket, is here visiting her relatives.

Isaac Kent, a nonagenarian gentleman of this place, was called away by death last Thursday.

Large quantities of freight are being daily shipped from here to various places along the coast and in the neighboring provinces. Farmers seem to be awakened to the fact that markets for their produce may be found outside of Uncle Sam's borders.

Large quantities of freight are being daily shipped from here to various places along the coast and in the neighboring provinces. Farmers seem to be awakened to the fact that markets for their produce may be found outside of Uncle Sam's borders.

The cold of churlish winter seems to be approaching. Frost has already commenced its destructive operations, and the past few days have been of unusual severity. Nevertheless the valley is in its prettiest, the forests have changed their emerald greenness for a garb of various tints.

A very pleasant evening was spent by all who go to church, in the presence of the Sunday-school of that church. The programme was large and well-selected, and received ample justice at the hands of the young recruits. Chorus music, both vocal and instrumental, was dispensed to the large audience, interspersed with exercises and recitations. A goodly amount, as the result of a lecture, was realized, which is to be appropriated to the purchase of a new library for the school. Great credit is reflected upon the pupils and teachers of this school in so doing, and favoring the public with their productions.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

HYMNICAL.—Once more has St. Paul's Church opened its portals to a bride and groom. This time the contracting parties were Mr. C. Harvey and Miss Lillie M. Dorman, the nuptial nuptials being celebrated by the bridegroom's brother Mr. Harvey of England. A large concourse of personal friends and relatives were present to witness the imposing ceremony as eyes looked long to eyes that spoke again.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mitchell of Annapolis, while the bride was attended by Miss Dany, also of Annapolis. The bride looked charming in a handsome Grecian travelling costume, which hung most gracefully over her form. After the ceremony during which appropriate music was rendered by the Church choir, Gales' handsome carriage conveyed the happy couple to the railway station, from whence they embarked on a bridal trip to Halifax. Many are the wishes of the couples of that all prosperity and fortune may ever smile upon them.

Provincial Paragraphs.

Mrs. S. Dodge, of Greenfield, Kings Co., had a sheep killed by dogs the day before last. It was 17 years old and had given birth to 34 lambs.

Thomas Bayne, a Halifax merchant of prominence for at least half a century, died suddenly on Sept. 30th. The estate of the deceased is supposed to be worth $200,000. John Outen and Wm. Buckley, of Margate, C. B., blew out the gas in a Boston hotel last week. Buckley is dead and Outen likely to die.

Blair of New Brunswick and his colleagues in the representation of York Co., have resigned their seats in the long legislature and a new election will take place.

THE CANADA ATLANTIC Railway company has just issued bonds to the amount of three and a half million dollars, to cover the cost of a bridge over the St. Lawrence, and other improvements.

The schooner David, Crockett, belonging to J. G. Tarr & Brother, of Gloucester, Mass., was seized at Souris, P. E. I., on Thursday evening for violating the fishery laws. The schooner was placed in charge of a prize crew.

Mr. John C. Evans, late Captain of the Salvation Army, whose late stations were at Windsor and Halifax, N. S., entered the Boston University School of Theology on the 16th ult., as a candidate for the Methodist ministry.

Wm. Proctor, of North Sydney, who has carried on a large business for a number of years as manufacturer of boots and shoes, has been ordered to proceed at once to Oshkosh and settle every voucher found in his books, both British and American, and bring them back to Port Townsend.

A Port Townsend Dispatch to the New York Herald says that the cutter, the Oshkosh, has been ordered to proceed at once to Oshkosh and settle every voucher found in his books, both British and American, and bring them back to Port Townsend.

An Ottawa dispatch says arrangements have been made by which the St. John and West India steamship service will after January 1st, be performed by P. & O. Co. of London. The steamer will still start from St. John, but will call at Yarmouth and Halifax.

The Lunenburg Progress publishes a comparative statement of the summer's fish catch which it summarizes as follows: 45,000 quintals in 1887, while 69 baited for just a fraction over that quintal this year. Though the catch was less, it was stronger by 21 bait than that of 1887, the catch was about the same, thus showing that this season has been other than a poor one for the fishermen.

A late militia order says: 78th Colchester, Hants and Pictou battalions, and 1st Highlanders, No. 2 company, Oshkosh, to be lieutenant, 2nd Lieutenant Robert Weir, R. S. I. (1st Bt.), vice J. H. Hall, failed to attend drill. 2nd Lieutenant and Adjutant Thomas Albert Blackburn, R. S. I., to have the rank of lieutenant, from 31st July, 1890.

Richmond.—We are informed that Messrs. Geo. C. Conant, of Boston, Frank H. Harlow, of Brookfield, and James C. H. Harlow, of Brookfield, have discovered a new gold mine on the St. Lawrence, on the North side of Moles Mine, on the North side of Moles Mine. They have sunk a shaft 100 feet deep, and have struck a rich vein of gold. They have taken out quartz showing very rich in gold. There are four leads on their property, one of four feet, another, two feet, another eight inches, and a lead ten feet wide, which shows plenty of gold. The lucky finders have taken up one hundred acres.

Dr. Allan Haley, M. P., of Windsor, has been elected to the office of Mayor of White, of Halifax, Arthur Dickie, M. P., of Amherst, and Governor Carvell, of Prince Edward Island, are the other directors of a company to be known as "The New England and Nova Scotia Navigation Company, limited."

DEATH OF DOW WISNOR.—The many friends of Lorenzo Dow Wisnor, proprietor of the Royal hotel this city, who heard of his death which occurred at the hotel yesterday. Mr. Wisnor came to the city from the country some years ago, and accepted a position with the firm of Alex. C. R. & Co. On Captain Stratton giving up the proprietorship of the Royal hotel about seven years ago Mr. Wisnor took charge. The deceased was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs a few weeks ago, and the effect of which he never rallied. He will be missed in this city by a large number.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It is a wonder that many lives are not lost in such a manner. A case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers. The case in which the railway people should be severely punished. Nothing should be left undone to secure the safety of the passengers.

Two cases of train-wrecking in the maritime provinces within a few days should awaken the authorities to the importance of diligently searching for the guilty parties. No more dilaatory crime can be committed than the throwing of a railway train on the track and exposing many persons to a horrible death. One of the recent cases occurred in Cape Breton, where a collision train struck a large stone that had been placed on the track. One car was thrown from the rails, and a brakeman was killed. The more serious was the attempt made to wreck the night train on the C. B. R., near Annapolis, by piling sleepers on the track. It