

I N D E X.

- Onontio, a Title given by the Iroqueſe to the Governour General of Canada, A 39.
- Opedè (Mr. de) Ambaſſador at the Court of Liſbon, B 194.
- Oreouachè, a notable Iroqueſe Slave, A 154.
- Original or Elk deſcrib'd, A 57.
- Ortez, a Town in Bearn, B 267.
- Otters how taken with Traps, A 64.
- Ouabach, a River, A 133.
- P.
- Pagan (Count) B 187.
- Parrots of Canada, ſee Birds.
- Paſſe des Capſeaux, A 221.
- Pau, the Capital City of Bearn, B 265.
- Peace, how concluded amongſt the Savages, B 82.
- Peronne. The Cuſtom-houſe Officers ſearch there very narrowly, B
- Perrot (Mr.) A 222.
- Petit Nord, A 210.
- Pnips (Sir William) General of the Forces of New-England, A 161.
- St. Pierre de Repantigni (Mr. de) A 136.
- Placentia attack'd by the Engliſh, A 183, 194. The Fort and Port deſcrib'd, 227.
- Placette, a French Huguenot in Denmark, B 230.
- Plantation of the Sun, A 111.
- Plante (Sieur de la) A 176.
- Platonick Love cenſur'd, B
- Pointe Verte, A 168.
- Pompernickle, a coarſe ſort of Bread, B 234.
- Ponchatrain (Monsieur de) Suceſſor to Monsieur de Seignelay, A 167. That Miniſters Attendance, B 168. His Injuſtice to the Author, B 253.
- Porcupine. How one of them was kill'd, A 63.
- Port of Placentia, ſee Placentia.
- Port-neuf, A 173. Port-Royal, 222, 224.
- Port of Liſbon, ſee Liſbon.
- Of Amſterdam, ſee Amſterdam.
- Porto à Porto, and the Road thither from Viana, deſcrib'd, B 188, 189, 190.
- Portochoua, A 210.
- Portugal. The Nobility and Gentry there deſcrib'd, B 194. Cuſtom of the Women in former times, 201. Character of the Portugueſe, 203, 207. The Habit of the King and Grantees, 205. The Country briefly deſcrib'd 207. The Pay of their Officers, 208. Their Troops ill disciplin'd, 209.
- Posados, Inns upon the Road in Portugal, with their Accommodations, B 192, 193.
- Prado (Count de) B 207.
- Prelates prefer'd without regard to Merit, B 272.
- Prieſts impoſe upon the People, B 271.
- Property, no diſtinction of it amongſt the Savages, and their Maxim for it, B 8.