First sale of the Duchess of Thorndale, whose age is such that she is probably past breeding.

It will illustrate the general character of the herd of Mr. Campbell, to add the fact that if we throw out of account the entire list of Duchesses and Oxfords, both males and females, the average on the remainder of the herd will not exceed that of any previous sale of Short-horns ever held in the United States, and still maintaining the low price at which the bulls were sold, and from lack of merit, but because they were not in demand among the audience that attended.

SUMMARY WITHOUT THE DUCHESSES OR OXFORDS.

Guelph Central Fair.

Held Sept. 10-13.

(From our own Reporters.)

Two years ago the Agricultural Societies of South Wellington and the township of Guelph, aided by the corporation of the town of Guelph, made the experiment of holding a large fair here, and with a view both of including a great number of persons to exhibit and
