SWEET CICELEY; OR, JOSIAH ALLEN AS A POLITICIAN."—A new novel by Josiah Allen's wife. Over 100 illustrations. Cloth. Price, $2.00. Frank & Wagnalls, Publishers, 10 Dey street, New York.

Miss Marietta Holley, better known as Josiah Allen's wife, has given the reading public a most entertaining novel in the pro-duction of "Sweet Ciceley." As a humorist she has long ago taken her place amongst the foremost. The humor that runs through 'Sweet Ciceley" is equal to her best efforts. Her powers to say the most sensible thing in a funny manner is untimited. Her works are remarkable for their moral tone as well. and always inculcate lessons that tend to elevate the heart and mind. Miss Holly possesses all the qualities and the talent to make her writings popular and welcome to those who are in search of pleasant reading. "Sweet Ciceley" is destined to command an unusual patronage. It is profusely illustrated, and the volume itself is a rich production of the printer's art, which is a credit to the publishers.

THE ELECTRA. The December number contains two goods by interpretations, a "Christ-mas at Grandmamma" by lots, and a "Con federate Christmas Tree," by Ray Montgomery. I. N. Ingram contributes a pretty account of "Rambles in the Sandwich Islands," and there is some poetry by Joseph N. Hamilton, entitled "Gladsomeness," Mrs. M. Sheffey Peters has a poetical effusion on "De Logic uv Fac's," a comical report of a question that came up before a Virginia debating club. In "Glimpses into Nature," we have some interesting lessons in natural history, conveyed through the medium of a diary. "The Black Pearl," by Victorien Sardou, is continued in this number as also "Daisy and I," by M.G.L., whilst the Home Department is full of information in regard to current history, letter literature, mothers' questions, etc. The medical talk this month that all-interesting topic "Happiness." NOTED SANCTUARIES OF THE HOLY FACE. By M. L'Abbe Janvier. Translated from the French by P. P. S. Publishers, John Murphy & Co., Baltimore.

This little book contains historic notices of the Veil of Veronica at the Vatican, and of for centuries received veneration, and the special attestation of miracles. The five shrines are Montreuil sous-Lacn, Jaen, Osa De La Vega, Alicante and Lucca. The book is interesting reading and especially valuable as showing the antiquity of the cultus of the Holy Face. There are in addition to the historical sketches a number of documents concerning the Archconfraternity of the Sacred Face. Archbishop Elder has written the preface. MANUAL OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF

This work is a thorough digest of parliathe Assembly, who requires to be thoroughly conversant with every question bearing on constitutional subjects. The rules and usages of the House of Commons of England are also given and the local rule or usage applicable to the same points inserted in italics or smaller type. The first part contains the British North America Act. 1867, with its amendments, the second, the Provincial Statutes relating to the Legislative Assembly, the third and fourth, Rules, Orders, and forms of Proceedings, and the fifth, Rules and Usages of the English House of Commons. Mr. J. G. Bourinot, of Ottawa, Clerk of the House of Commons, writing to Mr. Wurtele, says: "The members of your House are to be congratulated on having before them an invaluable compendium which no other Legislature in Canada possesses." HOME RULE. By Lex. Dublin: James Duffy & Sons, 15 Wellington Quay.

This work contains every argument which its versatile-minded author could create, compile or construct upon the great national want of Ireland-Home Rule. The author has included the result of a large amount of literary research within the 500 pages of its work, and he has met-in a masterly manner-every possible objection that could be raised by the enemies of Ireland against her local independence. The historical quotations, facts, figures and miscellaneous statistics with which the volume is interspersed, combine to form a fearful indictment against England for the terrible misfortunes which Ireland has suffered through English misrule. If ten thousand copies of this work could be freely sent broadcast throughout England, it would do much towards making the scales of prejudice fall from the eyes of

THEOREM A.

The Directory comes to us once more, this time in its fifty tourth year. It is a vast improvement on any work of the kind, ecclesiastical or political, that we have yet seen, and reflects great credit on the enterprising firm of Sadliers. Many new features have been introduced into this year's publication. It contains a vast amount of valuable information. It gives the names of the bishop and priests (with their addresses, &c.) in every diocese in the United States, the British Provinces, Great Britain and Ireland; the number of churches, chapels, colleges, convents, asylums and other re-ligious institutions in each diocese, with the name of each, the name of the place where each is situate, the names of the priests in charge of the churches, the names of the superioresses of the convents, colleges, etc., and all the information that could reasonably the number of children attending Catholic schools. The labor and expense of procuring and the growth of Catholicity in the English speaking world the Directory is of much value.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW .- The January number of this excellent Review contains a large number of articles from the peni of notable public men and able writers. It is five other shrines at which representations of one that is of special interest to Canadians, the Sacred Face of Our Divine Savior have Irishmen and Catholics. The leading feature of the number is a symposium on "Canadian Prospects and Politics," which have been treated by the Marquis of Lorne, Sir John A. Macdonald and Alex. F. Pirie, a Canadian journalist. One of its articles, is by John Boyle, of the Boston Post, another by Thomas P. Gill, the talented literateur and editor of the Catholic World, who has just been elected member of Parliament for South Louth, and yet another by T. F. Galwey, formerly editor of the Catholic World. So many Catholic writers are seldom represented in periodicals QUEBEC. By Hon. J. S. C. Wurtele. like the Review. Gen. CHRISTMAS AROUND SUMMERSIDE, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND. In this town, as in all other places, the festival of Christmas is looked forward to as a time of great joy, especially when we have the happiness of assisting at the Holy Mass and other services of the Church. Some years we had Midnight Mass, but this year Rev. Patrick Doyle, our beloved Pastor, (who also attends to the spiritual wants of two other parishes) decided on having Midnight Mass in Somerset, and accordingly went there, accompanied by Rev. E. V. P. O'Neil Livel of St. Dungan's College. choir principally owe their present good state, is Sister l'Assomption. After Mass Father Boyd ascended the pulpit and delivered a very impressive sermon on the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, showing the wonderful charity of our Divine Lord towards mankind; how He was pleased to be born in an humble stable on a cold winter's night, with nothing to keep Him warm but a few swaddling clothes, and the breath of two poor Blessed Virgin Mary His mother, and St. Joseph. While the sermon was being delivered many eyes were filled with tears as they gazed at the Divine Babe as he lay in crib in front of them. In conclusion Father Boyd wished all his hearers a happy Christmas and New Year, telling them the only way to spend them happy was to spend them in a holy manner. This was Father Boyd's first Christmas Mass (he having been ordained last summer), and it was a great source of pleasure to him to spend Christmas in Summerside with Father Doyle, who is known as a jolly, generous and large-hearted Irishman, and beloved by all who know him.

The Christmas Tree and bazaar annually held by the ladies of the Congregation de Notre Dame, took place in the large hall of St. Mary's Academy on the 28th, 29th and 30th ult., and was in every way a success The useful and fancy articles exhibited were excellent, and the large numbers who at tended every evening showed how they appreciated the work of the nuns by purchasing the articles effered for sale. In one part of the hall was a well stocked fishing pond, where anyone not too hard to please could have a fish and be made happy for five cents. The refreshment table was abundantly supplied with all kinds of delicacies, and the DLIER'S CATHOLIC DIRECTORY, ALMANAC AND ORDO for 1886. D. & J. Sadlier & the wants of those who patronized it. Holman polled the largest number of votes, Clark O. Robbles and D. Rogers following close. In the latter election it was at first thought that No. 1 Co. (Capt. Thos. B. Trainor) would come out victorious, but towards the closing on the last evening the friends of No. 2 came forward determined not to let their company be beaten, and when the poils closed and the ballots were counted, it was found that No. 2 Co. (Capt. Frank Renoup) was ahead by a large majority. Music was supplied by Cushing's string band, with some songs and choruses by members of St. Paul's choir and others. Nor must I forget to mention our Protestant friends, who were there in no small numbers, and contributed liberally towards the success of the bazaar. The nuns are to be congratulated on the success which attended this bazaar, and that St. Mary's Academy may continue to flourish, and those good Sisters be ever amongst us to instruct the young children, is the sincere wish of all, including N. Weekly Review of Montreal Wholesale Markets.

Business in a wholesale way is yet of a holiday character. Still there is an improve-ment in some lines and merchants are being fairly paid.

COAL.—The market is steady at the follow ing prices delivered:—Stove, per 2,000 lbs, $6.50 to 6.75; chestnut, do, $6.25 to 6.50; egg, do, $6 to 6.25; Scotch steam, per 2,240 1bs, $5.25 to 5.50; Lower ports, do, $4.25 to 4.50. These prices would be shaded for round lots.

FLOUR—There is quite a difference of opinion regarding the state of this market. It is evident, however, that the general tone of the market is dull. We quote:-Patenta, Hungarian per brl, $5 50; do, Ameri can, $5 50 to 5 75; do Ontario, $4 50 to 5 00; Strong Bakera', American, $4,75 to 5 00; do, Manitoba, $4 80 to 4 90; do, Canada, $4 25 to 4 40; Superior Extra, $4 20 to 4 25; do, choice, $4 30 to 4 40; Extra Superfine, $4 10; Fancy $3 95 to $4 00; Spring Extra, $3 80 to 3 90; Superfine, $3 60 to 3 70; Fine, $3 25 to 3 50; Middlings, $3 10 to 3 10; rine, $3 25 to 3 50; Middlings, $3 10 to 3 15; Pollards, $2 85 to 3 00; Ontario bags, strong, b.i., $2 to $2 05; do, spring extra, $1 90 to 1 95; do, superfine, $1 80 to 1 85; city bags, delivered, $2 40 to $2 45. RYE.—There is virtually nothing doing in this article, prices being more or less nominal at 64c to 65c per bushel.

CORN.—The market is quiet, no business being reported, and values range nominally from 60c to 62c duty paid. PEAS.—The sale is reported of a lot of peas at 70c per 66 lbs.

OATS .- The market is dull with little or no trading on spot. Here sales are quoted at lo per lb.

BARLEY.-There is no change, the only business reported being the sale of a car or two to malatters. Malting grades 55c to 60c, and feed 45c to 50c. MALT.—The market is quiet but steady at 85c to 90c for Montreal, and at 80c to 90c per bushel duty paid for Toronto.

BUCKWHEAT.—Prices are decidedly lower and are quoted at 43c to 45c.

SEEDS.—In red clover seed we learn of a good enquiry in the West. Here the market is firm at $6.50 to $7.00. In timothy there is very little movement as very little has as yet been brought in by farmers.

MILLERED.—The market for bran is a trifle easier owing to offerings to arrive being a little more liberal. The sales are reported of 3 cars at $14.00 and we quote from $14.00 to $15.00. OATMEAL, &c.—The sale of a round lot of ordinary Western oatmeal has taken place to arrive. Prices are quoted as follows :-Ordinary brands at $3.85 to $4 in quantities as to quality, and at $4.10 to $4.15 in small lots. Granulated $4.25 to 4.40 Cornmeal at $2.90 to 3.05 per bbl. Moullie $23.00 to 23.50 per ton; pearl barley $6.00 to 6.25 per bbl, and pot barley $4.25 per bbl; split peas $3.50 to 3.75

WHEAT .- The demoralized state of the foreign markets during the past week, and the drop in Chicago values has had a depressing influence on prices here and we reduce our outside values le per bush. Prices here are quoted as follows:-No. 2 red winter and spring wheat 92c to 94c, and No. 2 white winter 92c to 93c. Manitoba wheat is quoted at 98c for No. 1 hard; 94c for No. 2 hard; 75c for No. 1 frosted; 65c for No. 2 frosted; and 60c for No. 3 frosted.

PROVISIONS. PORK, LARD, &c.—There is still only a moderate demand for pork. Lard has met with moderate enquiry, sales of Canadian in pails being mentioned at 9c per lb, with trading in Western at 9fc to 9fc. quote : Montreal short cut pork, per brl, $13 to 13 50; Morgan's short cut clear, per brl, $13 50 to 14 00; Burkhardt's do do, $13 50 to 14 00; Mess pork, Western, per brl, $12 25 to 1275; India mess beef per toe, $2200 to 2250; Mess beef per brl, $1400 to 1450; Hams, city cured per lb, 11c to 12c; Hams and flanks, green, per lb 7½c to 8; Lard, Western in pails, per lb, 9½c to 0c; Lard, Canadian, in pails per lb. 8½c to 9c; Bacon, per lb, 10c to 11c; Tallow, common refined, per 1b, 5½c to 6c.

Drsssed Hogs-Receipts are gradually increasing. It is known, however, that large quantities are beld back in first hands owing to low prices. Offerings are beginning to be made more freely from the West to parties here. The sale of a car load of choice hogs 200 lbs average has been reported at $5.40

DAIRY PRODUCE. BUTTER.-Choice Eastern Townships and Morrisburg are scarce enough to command outside prices. Sales of 200 packages of fair to good Western are reported in two lots at 10c and 12s respectively. A lot of creemery shipped from Canada was recently sold in New York at a good profit to the shippers. Ve quote:-Creamery, 18c to 22c; Embern lowaships, choice, 19e; fair to fine, 13e to 17c; Merrichurg, choice, 17c to 18c; fair to me, 13: to 16c; Brockville, choice, 16: to 17c; fair to fine, 11c to 15c; Western, Sc to 140 as to quality. Low grades, 4c to 6c. Add Ic to 2c per 1b to above prices for selected jobbling lots..

CHEESE. -The market is quiet but steady, a fair uniount of goods having gone forward via Portland during the week, partly on orders and partly on consignment. Prices here are quoted as follows :- Western-Fine to finest September and October 83e to 94e; do August Se to 84e. French-Fine to finest September and October 81 to 9c; do August 71c to 81c; carlier makes 610 to 7c.

The market closes steadier, but the demand is still limited.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES. APPLES.-There is very little change to report in this market, a few round lots having changed hands at about previous rates, the range of prices being from $2.00 to 2.25 for fair to good stock, ORANGES .- The increased receipts which came to hand after New Years' completely broke down prices which declined fully $1.00 to 1.25 per case, sales of Valencia being quoted at $4.75 to 5.

LEMONS. -There is no particular change in this fruit which is quoted at $2 50 for Malaga in boxes and $4 to $5 for Messina. GRAPES.-Great complaints are made of

Almeria grapes turning out in poor some lots being unsaleable. CRANBERRIES .- The market is slow and prices are unsatisfactory, sales being mentioned of fair to choice stock at $5.50 to $7.50 per bbl.

- VEGETABLES.-Holders of potatoes are firm in their views, lots could not be bought for a less rate a single bag, and prices range from 57he to 65c as to quality. Onions remain firm at $2.25 to $2.50 per bbl, some asking more money. Carrots have been sold by the ton at $8.50 to $9. Turnips in good supply at 40c to 50c per bag. One round lot sold at 25c. Cabbages $2 to $3 per 100.

TORONTO WHOLESALE MARKETS. There has been no change of vital importance in the markets during the wesk. Bank shares are all better.

GROCERIES-More or less sorting up takes place after the holidays, and this has made general business pretty fair during the past week. GRAIN.—This has been a dull week in grain. Prices of almost all grades of wheat are fully one cent lower than at last writing, and the tendency, at the moment, seems to be downward. Very few transactions are to be heard of. In fall wheat we quote 85 to 86c; 83 to 84c and 80 to 81c. Barley is easier and quiet. No. 1, 92 to 93c; No. 2, 80 to 81c; No. 3 extra, 70 to 71c; No. 3, 56 to 57c. Oats also rule lower. Peas are slow of sale at 60 to 61c, and corn and rye may be termed nominal. FLOUR-No change for the better as regards flour noticeable in this market. BOOTS AND SHOES—The long spell of open, mild weather has had its effect on this trade. Vory little merchandise of any kind was Provisions.—Trade continues of a very quiet character. There is a good demand for choice butter at 15c to 16c. We hear of only a jobbing demand demand for cheese which is steady. Eggs seem weaker. In hog products there is very little doing. Hams are selling at 11c to 114c; rolls 84c to 9c; breakfast bacon 10: to 1010; Long clear is apparently not wanted at present; dressed hogs are steady at $5.25. HIDES AND SKINS .- An active demand still enists for hider. Car lots of carod cows have changed hands within the week at 91c. Calfskins are nomenal. Tallow is quiet, refined solling here at 6c. Wood, -- There is very little movement in selected fleese, the bulk of this wool having gone out of the country. Prices are steady. Extra is in fair demand, but there is not much in stock, 26 to 27 to is about the range. LEATHER. -There appears to be slight tendency to overstock in harness leather, and as a consequence prices are not firmly maintained. Payments are not so good as they might be, a fact largely due to wet weather and very bad country roads.
