Mercantile Summary.

PICTOU N. S. is going into the fishing business and a fleet of six schooners are to be fitted out immediately and sent to the fishing grounds.
The decline of the coal trade has made some inroads into the business of Pictou.

The town of Joliette, Que., has purchased a steam fire engine from the Chatham manufactory. The destruction wrought all about them by fire has, we are gratified to see, awakened the people of that town to the need of proper protection.

A LIST of names of Prince Edward Island proprietors whose landed estates have been by the recent arrangement conveyed to the Dominion Government, numbers twenty-six landowners, whose awards, varying in amount from two thousand to seventy-six thousand dollars, make a total of $321,471.

A DOZEN or more of the good people in Windsor and its locality are minus their watches, chains, and such personal adornments as brooches and rings, through the running away last week of one A. F. Mitchell. This man, who is described as a quiet sort of person, came from Montreal (possibly an apprentice of Mellors) and after doing journeywork a while, hired a shop in the American House and began for himself last spring as a jeweller.

THE American Government have been considering how retrenchment could be effected by abolishing, or at least modifying their Consulates in Western Ontario. The result is that the consulships at Windsor and at Goderich have recently been discontinued, by orders from Washington, and Consular Agencies established in their stead. These Agencies, together with the Agencies at Stratford, Chatham, Wallace-burg, Amherstburg, Duart, and Palmerston, have been transferred to the jurisdiction of the Consul at Sarnia. The territory embraced within the limits of these agencies, comprises nearly the whole of western Ontario.
