

A GIFT FROM CANADA TO THE PEOPLE OF FRANCE

Locating a bullet in the arm of a French soldier in the hospital which Canada presented to France.
The rays are seen in operation.

Afternoon tea in the same hospital. The staff is entirely composed of Canadians, but only French patients are admitted.