

ARTICLE VIIISERVICES

The Parties will enter into consultations with a view to examining the possibility of broadening the scope of this Agreement to include trade in services, consistent with multilateral principles established as a result of the negotiations on the General Agreement on Trade in Services.

ARTICLE IXMERCHANT VESSELS AND WATERBORNE CARGOES

1. In international traffic, the merchant vessels of each Party, merchant vessels chartered by persons of each Party, and the cargoes of such vessels shall during arrival, stay at, and departure from the seaports of the other Party, enjoy treatment, including access to harbour services, accorded to the most-favoured nation. This provision shall not apply to pilotage.
2. In relation to products transported between Canada and Ukraine, neither Party shall create or maintain:
  - (a) discriminatory measures of any kind to marketing the services of, securing cargoes for, and transferring payments related to, the merchant vessels of the other Party or merchant vessels chartered by persons of the other Party; or
  - (b) discriminatory measures of any kind to the flow of waterborne cargoes through maritime cargo terminals or to the use of such terminals.
3. Each Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity with the other Party, permit the establishment and operation of offices to act as shipping and port agents for the merchant vessels of the other Party and for merchant vessels chartered by persons of the other Party.
