TRADE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN CANADA AND THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALLIST REPUBLICS

The Government of Canada and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics

Desiring to develop trade relations between the two countries on the basis of equality and reciprocal advantages,

Have resolved to conclude an Agreement which will regulate the commercial relations between Canada and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics,

Have accordingly appointed their respective representatives for this purpose who have agreed as follows:

Levisione el raque es estas ARTICLE I vet es estas de estas la

Each Contracting Party shall accord to the other Contracting Party unconditional most-favoured-nation treatment in all matters with respect to customs duties and charges of any kind imposed on or in connection with importation or exportation and with respect to the method of levying such duties and charges, with respect to the rules and formalities connected with importation or exportation, and with respect to all internal taxes or internal charges of any kind, and with respect to all laws, regulations and requirements affecting internal sale, offering for sale, purchase, distribution or use of imported goods within the territory of such Contracting Party.

Accordingly, products of each Contracting Party imported into the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be subject, in regard to the matters referred to in the first paragraph of this Article, to any duties, taxes or charges other or higher, or to any rules or formalities more burdensome, than those to which like products of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

Similarly, products exported from the territory of a Contracting Party and consigned to the territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be subject, in regard to matters referred to in the first paragraph of this Article, to any duties, taxes or charges other or higher, or to any rules of formalities more burdensome, than those to which like products when consigned to the territory of any third country are or may hereafter be subject.

Any advantage, favour, privilege or immunity which has been or may hereafter be granted by either Contracting Party, in regard to the matters referred to in the first paragraph of this Article, to any product of any third country shall be accorded immediately and without compensation to like products originating in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and irrespective of the nationality of the carrier.

Each Contracting Party shall accord to the other Contracting Party most-favoured-nation treatment with respect to sales or purchases involving exports or imports.

ARTICLE II

Each Contracting Party shall accord to the products of the other Contracting Party, which have been in transit through the territory of any third country receiving most-favoured-nation treatment from the importing country,