

3. The Requested State shall promptly inform the Requesting State of the measures taken pursuant to the application for provisional arrest.
4. Provisional arrest shall be terminated if the Requested State has not received the request for extradition and supporting documents through the channel provided for in Article 6 within sixty (60) days after the arrest. The competent authorities of the Requested State, insofar that it is permitted by the law of that State, may extend that delay with regards to the reception of the documents referred to in Article 7. However, the person sought may be granted bail at any time, subject to the conditions deemed necessary to ensure that the person does not leave the country.
5. The expiry of the sixty (60)day period does not preclude subsequent arrest and extradition if a request for extradition is subsequently received.

ARTICLE 13

Competing Requests

1. Where requests are received from two or more states for the extradition of the same person either for the same offence or for different offences, the Requested State shall determine to which of those States the person is to be extradited and shall notify those States of its decision.
2. In determining to which State a person is to be extradited, the Requested State shall have regard to all the relevant circumstances, and, in particular, to:
  - (a) if the requests relate to different offences, the relative seriousness of those offences;
  - (b) the time and place of commission of each offence;
  - (c) the respective dates of the requests;
  - (d) the nationality of the person sought;
  - (e) the ordinary place of residence of the person;
  - (f) whether the requests were made pursuant to an extradition treaty;
  - (g) the interests of the respective States; and
  - (h) the nationality of the victim.

ARTICLE 14

Surrender

1. The Requested State shall, as soon as a decision on the request for extradition has been made, communicate that decision to the Requesting State. Reasons shall be given for any complete or partial refusal of an extradition request.
