ford, Ontario. In her letter she said that she had no money with which to fit herself out, or to pay her railway fare. Will the minister say whether under this vote funds would be advanced in a case like this and, if so, to whom this young woman should apply?

Mr. MITCHELL: I think if she applied to the employment office, arrangements would be made to provide transportation.

Mr. MacNICOL: The office in Toronto or North Bay?

Mr. MITCHELL: Where does she reside?

Mr. MacNICOL: In northern Ontario.

Mr. MITCHELL: There would be an office not far away.

Youth training programme.

109. To provide for undischarged commitments under agreements with the provinces, $47,985.

Mr. ROSS (St. Paul's): I should like to pay a tribute to Mr. Thompson for the work he has done in connection with youth training in this country. Then I should like to remind the minister that for years the members from Toronto have been trying to get a little money from the government of Canada for our technical school, in the work it is doing there. The former Minister of Labour promised us that we would get some money for equipment. The city of Toronto has been paying the cost of all this work, and they have done a wonderful job. I should like to pay tribute also to the trades and labour congress of the city of Toronto for all they have done in trying to get this money from the government. They certainly have recognized the fact that a boy should have a trade of some kind. As I say, we were promised this money to help to defray the cost, but we never received it; the government said they could not establish a precedent by putting up a building for us. That is all very well, but in view of the work that has been done in Toronto in our vocational and technical schools, I think we should be given some help. What we have done has been copied all over this country in trying to provide opportunities for boys to learn trades. I think the government should see if they cannot raise a little money for us next year, as they are doing for the universities to-day.

Sections 1 and 2 agreed to.

On section 3—Supplementary estimates, $28,159,700 granted for 1942-43.

Mr. STIRLING: May I ask whether the $250,000 by which an item under national war services was reduced has been deducted from the total?

Mr. ILSLEY: Perhaps the hon. gentleman would give me some idea of what the item was.

Mr. STIRLING: It was item 200, for the Canadian travel bureau. It was reduced from $500,000 to $250,000.

Mr. ILSLEY: At the bottom of page 11, schedule A of the bill, I find an asterisk opposite the $500,000, and a footnote indicating a deduction of $250,000.

Mr. STIRLING: I just wished to make sure that it had been noted.

Mr. ROSS (St. Paul's): Would it not be possible next session to bring down the war appropriation bill and the estimates in the same fashion as the estimates are now
