OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER

This is to certify that pursuant to a writ dated on the third day of August, 1933, and addressed to R. H. Nicholson, Esquire, of Kylemore, in the Province of Saskatchewan, for the election of a member to serve in the House of Commons of Canada for the Electoral District of Mackenzie, in the place and stead of M. N. Campbell, who has accepted an office of emolument under the Crown, John Angus MacMillan, of Wadena, Saskatchewan, Barrister-at-Law, has been returned as elected.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Ottawa this thirteenth day of November, 1933.

JULES CASTONGUAY, (L.S.)
Chief Electoral Officer.

To the Clerk of the House of Commons,
Ottawa.

The following Members, having previously taken the Oath according to Law, and subscribed the Roll containing the same, took their seats in the House:—

Aimé Boucher, Esquire, for the Electoral District of Yamaska.

Joseph Enoil Michaud, Esquire, for the Electoral District of Restigouche-Madawaska.

John Angus MacMillan, Esquire, for the Electoral District of Mackenzie.

Mr. Bennett, by leave of the House, introduced a Bill No. 1, An Act respecting the Administration of Oaths of Office, which was read the first time.

Mr. Speaker reported, That when the House did attend His Excellency the Governor General this day in the Senate Chamber, His Excellency was pleased to make a speech to both Houses of Parliament, and to prevent mistakes, he had obtained a copy which he read to the House as follows:—

Honourable Members of the Senate:

Members of The House of Commons:

You are summoned for the despatch of public business at a time when there are sound reasons for believing that the world is gradually returning to economic stability. I congratulate you that such improved world conditions
