

roches, are constantly employed in the good work. They are favoured with ready access to the houses of the French Canadians, and quietly diffuse the truths of the gospel among a large population.

The schools at St. Pie and Berée are going on favourably. One of the schools near St. Pie was discontinued some time ago, but has been replaced by another under the care of Baptiste Auger, a member of the Church of St. Pie, who has been engaged for several months, in the Grande Ligne District, as a Colporteur. These Schools contain one hundred and thirty-two children.

There are two new Stations, one at Canaan, and the other at Thessalonica, which, if they can be efficiently occupied, promise a rich harvest, by the Divine blessing, on the means employed.

The number of labourers now employed as Missionaries, Colporteurs, or School Teachers, (not including their wives, unless they are actually engaged in the work) is twenty; the number of Stations and sub-stations, eleven. Upwards of 200 children are under instruction.

Madame Feller and Mr. Roussy came to Canada under the patronage of a Missionary Society in Switzerland, from which Society they continued to receive occasional aid. During the years 1837 and 1838 their operations were carried on under the auspices of the Canada Baptist Missionary Society; some assistance was also received from the United States and from Scotland. In the autumn of the last mentioned year their connexion with the Canada Baptist Missionary Society was dissolved, the Missionaries being then of opinion that they could labour more efficiently if they were independent of all religious parties. They continued to do so for nearly seven years, during which time they received numerous and valuable tokens of Christian regard from all denominations. The fostering care of the Foreign Evangelical Society rendered essential service to the cause. Pecuniary grants, varying from 550 to 1200 dollars, were received annually from that Society. Besides this, the patronage of the Society stimulated the zeal of Christians, and encouraged the formation of numerous Ladies' Associations, which raised considerable sums of money, and otherwise assisted the mission. Aid was also received from Switzerland, England, and Canada. The funds annually realized from all these sources gradu-
