Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir,—We mail you copy of the above Book and will consider it a favor if you copy the accompanying notice in your "Literary News," or give it such notice as you think it deserves. Please mail us a marked copy of your paper.

To the Editor.

The Life of Edward Hanson, the World's Champion Carman. A handsome illustrated book, entitled "The Life of Edward Hanson," has just been issued by Richard K. Fox, publisher, New York. The work is embellished with portraits of the great Canadian carman and some of his most noted competitors, as well as illustrations of his part in the most famous races in which he has taken part. The most of his life is told in an interesting manner. The most brilliant features being his aquatic achievements, both as an amateur and professional. Every one of the matches in which he has taken part are described in detail. In addition to his life are short biographies of the most famous carmen who have competed with him for the honor of being the fastest of men. No admittance of native pluck and physical manhood should fail to secure the history of a man who has done so much to make Canadians proud of their country as the hero of physical prowess. The work will be mailed on receipt of 50c. by the publisher, Richard K. Fox, 125 William Street, New York.
