

From stereograph copyright—1904, by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

AT THE GATE

With tickets fastened to coats and dresses, the immigrants pass out through the gate to enter into their new inheritance, and become our fellow citizens.