THE SALE OF LADY DAVENTRY

A NEW NOVEL THAT HAS ACHIEVED
A LARGE SALE ON PUBLICATION. 6/-

THE anonymous author has selected for this remarkable novel a unique theme. In despair at the narrowness of her life as a country vicar's daughter, "the beautiful Miss Morland," when standing one day at the vicarage gate exclaims, "For life and wealth and power I am ready to sell my soul." A pleasant voice replies, "Will you sell yourself to me?" Thus Jane Morland becomes the wife of Lionel, tenth Lord Daventry, and embarks upon an amazing career of wickedness. Life to her is a game to be played with calculated deliberation. Her hatred of Bruce Daventry, the heir presumptive to the title and estates, prompts her to a terrible revenge. The consequences of this act of madness, which extend to many other lives and to future generations, are detailed with great power in these vivid and dramatic pages. Even the most jaded novel-reader will find in "The Sale of Lady Daventry" a book of such originality and power that it will not easily be forgotten.
