

- 80; married, 80; founds Montreal, 81; viceregal lieutenant, 81; controls the fur-trade, 82; interests merchants, 82; seeks the western sea, 83; among the Ottawas, 83; brings Recollets to Canada, 86; attacks an Iroquois village, 86-88; defends Quebec against Kirke, 91; surrenders, 92; governor, 92; last days, 92.
- Charles River, Mass., Champlain enters, 53.
- Charlestown, Mass., execution of a witch, 145.
- Charlevoix, P. F. X. de, Jesuit historian, on the coureurs de bois, 106.
- Charter, new, for Massachusetts, 202. See also Grants.
- Chastes, Aymar de, aid to Henry IV., 37; joins Pontgravé's monopoly, 38; death, 49.
- Chauvin, Pierre, monopoly of the fur-trade, 36; death, 37.
- Chesapeake Bay and Verrazano Sea, 11.
- Church and State in Massachusetts, opposition to theocracy and growth of Toryism, 197, 201; overthrow of theocracy, 202, 205.
- Churchill, Sarah, and the Salem witchcraft, 160. See also Salem Village.
- Clergy of Massachusetts and the Salem witchcraft, 170-172.
- Colman, Benjamin, liberal views, 203; pastor of Brattle Church, 204.
- Colonies, English, purpose, 104; frontier growth, 237, 259, 263; incite Indian raids, 240; governors and legislatures, 242, 262, 272, 273, 277, 285; effect of growth on New France, 261-263; increased influence with the Indians, 262-264, 266; inter-colonial relationship in 1754, 278; rejection of the Albany Plan, 280; results of rejection, 281; troops raised for campaign of 1759, 343. See also New England and colonies by name.
- Colonies, French, attempt at Sable Island, 6; attempted Huguenot, 33; and the fur-trade interests, 88. See also Acadia, Canada, Louisiana.
- Condé, Henri, Prince of, viceroy of New France, 82.
- Conestogas, name for the Susquehannocks, 48.
- Congregationalism, innovations of Prattle Church, 204; Saybrook Platform, 215-218; condition in early years of eighteenth century, 220-222; outgrowth of Halfway Covenant, 221; effect of Edwards's teachings, 224. See also Great Awakening.
- Connecticut, civil liberalism, 211; increased conservatism, 212-219; Saybrook Platform, 215-218; founding of Yale College, 218-220; opposition to the Great Awakening, 230; share in the Louisburg expedition, 251; troops for campaign of 1759, 343.
- Contrecoeur commands Fort Duquesne, 74, 288.
- Corey, Giles, character, 164; charged with witchcraft, 179; pressed to death, 180.
- Corey, Martha, wife of Giles, character, 164; accused of witchcraft, 165; condemned, 180; executed, 183.
- Cortereal, Gaspar, voyage, 6.
- Courcelle, Sieur de, governor of Canada, 102; invades the Iroquois country, 102; recalled, 115.
- Coureurs de bois, origin and nature, 105.
- Crown Point, N. Y., Johnson to attack, 295; strategic value, 327; evacuated by the French, 348. See also Ticonderoga.
- Crowne, William, English grant of Acadia, 96.