

You never can tell

When some night the hour hand of your watch or alarm clock points to two and you are suddenly aroused to find some member of the family suffering from toothache, neuralgia or cramps, you'll find the Electric Heating Pad ready for instant action. Attach cord to socket—turn button—apply. Much quicker than mustard or hot water bottle—and more efficacious. Finished in soft, grateful eiderdown and strongly constructed, it should last a lifetime.

Ask to see it at Demonstration Office, or phone the Summer Comfort number.

SOCIETY COMEDY WELL REPRESENTED

Miss Percy Haswell and Her Company Gave Fine Portrayal of "The Liars."

Last night, before a large and very appreciative audience at the Royal Alexandra, Miss Percy Haswell and her company presented Henry Arthur Jones' comedy of society "The Liars." At once a comedy and a satire on the conventional code of honor, it is a fine example of constructive skill. The situations are strong without exaggeration and the brilliant dialog would carry off a less ingenious story. The play turns on the familiar theme of a man whose upbringing and environment has been far removed from the world of society and the types it creates. So Edward Falkner, the son of the season, succumbs to the attractions of Lady Jessica Nepean, a born flirt, who alternately encourages and checks his impetuous attentions.

For his part he lies like a lion and imagines he is opening out for her a larger and better life than that she leads with her jealous boor of a husband. He disavows the wise advice of his best friend, Sir Christopher Deering, and his eyes are only opened when Lady Jessica compromises herself by arranging to dine with him at "The Star and Garter," at Southampton, is discovered by her husband's suspicious brother, and discloses her conscious desire to avoid being involved in a scandal that will affect her position.

How she induces some of her friends to aid in recuing her from the dilemma, the lies they tell without knowing how they are to support each other, the complications that result in strengthening the husband's jealousy and the reason for the final happy ending, are developed in the later scenes. These afford excellent entertainment for the audience, and indeed the comedy thrills in of itself.

Miss Haswell has in Lady Jessica a role that is thoroughly congenial and her acting was of high artistic quality. Her excellent company gave her admirable support and indeed the whole production was of exceptional quality. Miss Deane as Lady Rosemond Tatton, Miss Ellis and Mrs. Eberence, Miss Ogden as Dolly Coke and Miss Kenwyn as Mrs. Crenshaw gave good renderings of their parts. Mr. Emory as Freddie Tatton was welcomed on his return to the company and Earle Browne as Sir Christopher Deering, Charles Kennedy as Gilbert Nepean, Regan Hugonnet as Edward Falkner, Richard Clarke as Geo. Nepean and James T. Galloway as Archibald Coke, gave the necessary individuality to their roles. The comedy was most appropriately staged, and Miss Haswell and her players had repeated curtain calls at the end of each act. "The Liars" will be presented during the week, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

AT THE STAR

Last week of the Star Theatre Burlesque Stock Company is marked by two of the best burlesques put on during the entire engagement. The opening sketch was entitled "A Hot Old Time," and the performance closed with a side-show of the kind known as "Fun With the Doctor." No pains or expense have been spared to make the last week the most successful and pleasant of the season, and those who were at the theatre yesterday were unanimously of the opinion that the show this week is one of the best ever seen at the Star. On Thursday night a jubilee chorus girls' contest will be held. The Paragon score board shows all the burlesque players out of town by the Toronto team.

Good Show at Scarborough. Unusually large crowds attended Scarborough Beach Park yesterday afternoon and last night, and were rewarded by one of the cleverest free vaudeville entertainments put on this season. The feature was the five dive of the Regiments, which proved to be most sensational and spectacular, and drew forth hearty applause from the visitors.

FITZGERALD IS REFUSED AS NEW COMMISSIONER TRAFFIC EXPERTS ENGAGED

City Council Referred Back Board of Control's Nomination for Property Commissionership Bion J. Arnold, of Chicago, and J. W. Moyes, of Toronto, Appointed as Traffic Experts.

By a vote of eleven to nine the city council yesterday afternoon referred back the board of control's recommendation of William Fitzgerald, of the vacant position of property commissioner. As was expected the majority of the council favored Aid. Chisholm for the position, but the supporters of the alderman did not number two-thirds of the members, and hence could not substitute his name for the board's nominee for the position. The only course open was to refer the matter back, and this was done.

Another feature of the meeting yesterday was the letter from Corporation Counsel Drayton announcing the appointment of Bion J. Arnold of Chicago and J. W. Moyes of Toronto as the traffic experts. These gentlemen will make a report upon the traffic situation, which will cost between $15,000 and $20,000.

Controller Hocken brought up the Humber Valley Boulevard and park scheme again by introducing a bylaw under and Sunday, and was the guest of Rev. J. Waldman. During his stay here he delivered two very eloquent addresses on Saturday and Sunday afternoons in the University Avenue Synagogue.

REV. M. ABRAMSON HERE

Well-Known Zionist Speaker Gave Interesting Addresses.

Rev. M. Abramson of Toledo, Ohio, visited the Zionists of Toronto on Saturday and Sunday, and was the guest of Rev. J. Waldman. During his stay here he delivered two very eloquent addresses on Saturday and Sunday afternoons in the University Avenue Synagogue. On Sunday morning he addressed the members of the B'nai Zion Benefit Society at the Zion Institute, Rev. M. Abramson is a well-known speaker, especially in the Zionist movement. He left for Montreal, Berlin, N.Y., and Buffalo, N.Y. Those who have not heard him yet will have the opportunity of so doing on July 2, when he will deliver the service of the late Dr. Theodore Herzl, the originator of the Zionist movement in the world, which will be held in one of the theatres here.

SUPERSTITIONS ABOUT STOCKINGS

Stockings figure in some curious superstitions touching old customs, especially those connected with marriage. Everyone knows that there are actions both lucky and unlucky. Among the former it is commonly held that to put on any article of clothing wrong side out is decidedly a sign of good luck, but it must be done accidentally, and when the mistake is found out no change must be made, as the luck will immediately vanish. This idea is very firmly held about stockings, probably because it is more easy to make such a mistake in putting on a stocking than in donning other garments. It would be hard indeed for a woman to put on her dress or a man his coat or vest inside out without noticing what he was doing.

Sometimes folks are to be found who have inherited upon the common notion, or have even reversed it.

Another superstition touching the use of socks in connection with dreaming. This is a Scotch notion. If a person is about to sleep in a bed that he or she has never slept in before, the certainty of dreaming can be assured by placing the stocking taken off the right foot under the head. Not only the dream will certainly come to pass, but of the superstitions attached to marriage ceremonies, most people have heard of "throwing the stocking." This rite would hardly be regarded now as consistent with modern notions of decorum, but it was highly popular in former days. The ceremony was performed at the conclusion of the wedding-day's festivities, by young men and girls seated at the bed-foot, the former having the bride's and the latter the groom's stockings—whose object in throwing the stocking was to place over their heads was to hit, if possible, the head, and especially the nose, of one or other of the newly-married couple. A successful shot meant marriage at an early date for the thrower.

A pleasant association connected with stockings is familiar to households at Christmas-time. Children will hang up their stockings on Christmas eve in the simple faith that Santa Claus will fill them during that night of wonder; or, if the little people are too sophisticated to believe in the stories of St. Nick's extraterrestrial, they still retain a firm faith in the goodness of his domestic representatives and duly hang up their stockings as their predecessors have done for generations. And not children alone hang up their hose of old. Grown-ups, as well as the small folk, used to observe this custom most conscientiously. But in the old days the hanging up of the stocking took place, not on Christmas eve, but on the eve of St. Nicholas' Day, which falls on the 5th of December. This kindly custom was one of the few practices of the kind that the stern Puritans who founded the New England States took across the Atlantic with them. Consequently, hanging up the stocking is still as familiar in New as in Old England.

Another old custom which the superstitious sometimes remember when they get married is to wear one old stocking and one new one, following the thought, perhaps, that every bride should wear something old, something new. To this day many brides adhere to this old habit, or superstition, but they do not confine the apparel to stockings.

There is another custom about leaving a hole in the toe of your stocking on your wedding day, but, whereas I may tend to luck one way or another, it is hardly conducive to comfort, so is rarely accepted.
