R K Hope, W Vallance, T C Haslett, T H Macpher Springfield, Mass., July 16.—Springfield. won a double-header from Toronto to-day by playing better all-around ball. In the fourth innings of the second game a hot hit ball from Freeman's bat split Korwan's finger, and Dolan pitched the game out. Stake attracted a crowd that exceeded the attendance on the opening day, and that competition. attendance on the opening day, and that taxed the capacity of the graind stand and lawns at Bel-Air to-day. Harry Stover's Blue Eyes filly, Pearl, who had a long pull in the weights, won the stake from end to end. The distance was one mile, and six sported silk. Brighton was an odds-on lavorite, although he was shouldering top weight, and the race looked like a mere formality for him. Pearl went right to the tront when Starter Brown dropped his mag, and was never headed. She opened up a gap of three lengths around the lirst turn and nereased her lead to five lengths at the haif, and romped home three weights to the good. Rossmar was plached of on the first turn, but came strong the last half and fought it out for the place with simon D, and got the verdict by a nose. Brighton was never dangerous.
