waning power of Parnellism. The new feature is that women were allowed to vote for the first time.

In Dublin the representation of labor has been quadrupled, while the Parnellites have secured little more than half their former strength, although, owing to internal discensions in Mr. John Redmond's party, it is rather difficult to give an accurate estimated in the secured little more than half their former strength, although, owing to internal discensions in Mr. John Redmond's party, it is rather difficult to give an accurate estimated and the secured little more than half their former strength, although, owing to internal discensions in Mr. John Redmond's party, it is predicted to the house, and impredicted to the

Has the Control. Montreal, Jan. 17 .- (Special.) - The Witness reviews Sir William Van Horne's speech at Quebec, and concludes as follows: "Though we are among those who regard the Canadian Pacific as having reregard the Canadian Pacific as baying received a good deal from Canada, and view the rapid growth of the interests and Influence of this tremendous company with concern, yet we admit that it may be advisable to entrust the project of the fast line to the only great business corporation that fully believes in it, and whose present interests would be served by its success. The Allan Company only a few weeks ago declared against it, and no other of the companies having steamships on the Caradian route seems to care to attempt the enterprise."

THE SWAN RIVER VALLEY Its Population From Northern Ontario. Montreal, Jan. 17 .- (Special.)-It will be a surprise to the people of Ontario to learn that a whole community, with their post-mester, counting 1500 souls, is about to be taken up from the District of Muskoka and transplanted to one of the most fertile districts of Manitoba. This, however, is the fact, and the removal will likely take place in the early spring. Delegates have been sent out to the famous Swan River Valley, and there selected the future homes of the 1500. This valley is reached by the McKenzie & Mann railway, the Lake Manitoba Railway and Canal Company, and lles between the Duck and Porcupine dicentains, embracing some ten townships in length and five or ski in width, and containing in all about three-quarters of a million acres of the finest soil in the Province of Manitoba. Some 4000 new settires being in cluding that 10,000 new-comers will settle down in the Swan River Vailey this year.

sensions in Mr. John Redmond's party, it is rather difficult to give an accurate estimate. Mr. Redmond himself has been elected for one ward, but he did not head the poil, and, therefore, misses the aldermanship, Mr. Timothy Harrington (member of Parliament for the Harbor Division of Dublin) is in the same boat, having been topped by a new Laborite.

In Cork the Parnellites have done better, but they have failed to retain their former ascendancy, having new only a majority of one over the Dillonites, while the Laborites have secured nine seats. Wherever, however, the issue was between a Parnellite and anti-Parnellite, and the question was squarely fought, without internal squabbles, as at Kilkenny and Wexford, the Parnellites were victorious. Speaking senerally, there is an increase of Nationalist power, but nothing like a rigorous exclusion of Unionists.

will be in convention for the balance of the week. From four to five neudred delegates and officials are present. President Eagle of Atterciaffe opened the proceedings with a short introductory address extending welcome, and then read the directors' report, which was adopted.

The financial statement was presented blowing a balance on manu nor 1890 of $695.05. The sum of $82.50 was granted by the Government. The instructors received $1966.25—Morrison $965.05. Struthers $56. Mr. Eagle commented on the bad season they had just had, and pointed out the desirability of these conventions. He regretted that Mr. T. B. Millar had sent in his resignation as an instructor. They needed more instructors. Good men were hard to get. The work was, however, a stepping-stone to something better, and he hoped they would be able to get another good man to accept the position for a year or two.

JUST A FAMILY JAR. The Pros and Cons of the Attalic Claire Affair Being Public-

New York, Jan. 17.-The disagreement between Attalie Claire and her husband, Dr. Kayne, has taken another turn. The husband declares he has had detectives watching his wife's movements for months and has obtained sufficient material for a divorce. He also emphatically denies that he was disguised when he broke into her rooms. He refuses to tell where the child is.

Attalie has written a letter in which she says: "Dr. Kayne has been insanely jealous, and being little more than a boy I thought he might try to shoot me and I did scream, asking him to spare my life." She declared she has a sweetheart in London waiting for her, and that Dr. Kayne is no millionaire. She claims that her husband has discovered nothing improper and that she will yet regain her child.

Fully Concurs With Sir William Vernon Harcourt's Reasons.

Prevailing Spirit of Jingoism and Imperialism Denounced as Enof Gladstone-Mr. Morley Takes a Scents Trouble in the Future -Present Policy Will Bring Militarism to Predominance.

London, Jan. 17 .- The Right Hon. John Morley, Liberal member of Parliament for Montrose-Burghs, addressing his constitu-ents this evening at Brechin, said he en-tirely concurred with the reasons which ed Sir William Vernon Harcourt to resign the leadership of the Liberal party in the Mouse of Commons. It was his own inten-tion, he declared, to retire from active and esponsible participation in the formal nunsels of the heads of the Liberal party, ithough his zealous and eager co-op could always be counted upon for the ad-rancement of every Liberal cause,

Mr. Moriey proceeded to criticize the 'prerailing spirit of jingoism and imperialism." He denounced it as "entirely opposed to all the lessons of Mr. Gladstone"-lessons to which he would feel himself untrue were he to allow himself to drift in acquiescence with a course of policy which he believed the national character and to the strength and safety of the Imperial State."

He frankly admitted that he took a pessimistic view of the difficulties threatening throughout the world. "I think," he exclaimed, "we are nearer the beginning of them than the end." It was his firm conviction that "the prevailing spirit of imperialism must inevitably bring militarism, a gigantic daily growing expenditure, increased power to aristocrats and privileged classes, and war." the national character and to the strength
