Saturday afternoon at Woodbine Park a scene of unusual activity was occasioned by the presence of 50 members and friends of the Toronto Rod and Gun Club at their immensely successful pigeon and bluerock shoot. From the inception of this popular club to the present time the development and prosperity which have attended the efforts and sacrifices that have been made by its officers and members are unprecedented in any amateur sporting club in this or any other city. From a combination of five in December, 1898, it has grown to a paid-up membership of 75, with a score of names awaiting the result of the ballot at the next general meeting, which will be held on Monday, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m., in the club's room, room 5, 18 East Wellington-street. The Toronto Rod and Gun Club wishes to thank those who have been instrumental in furthering the interest and welfare of the club, and especially the directors of the Woodbine Park for their kind favors, which they have so graciously tendered.
