Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.-A. A. Advani the Hindoo "prince," was found guilty yesrday afternoon of obtaining jeweiry from J. Leslie of this city under false pretences its presentment yesterday. After paying their intention of resuming operations tothe usual compilments, the presentment suggests that the criminal law be amended so that a trial judge or magistrate may sentence juvenile offenders to be punished by the lash instead of being sent to the county fall, where they often mix with older and more hardened criminals. Boys of that class feared the lash, but did not object to a snort term of murisonment.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS. Reception to the Shamrocks at the Junction-North Toronto Residents Organize. oronto Junction, Sept. 23.-The Sham rock lacrosse team were given a hearty renight, where they had been playing in the semi-finals of the Intermediate Canadian Lacrosse Association. They were met at the railway station by the Imperial Band and a host of citizens in carriages, who escorted them along Dundas-street to Pacific-avenue, thence to the Peacock Hotel, where dinner was served by mine host Frank Watt. Mr. John Paterson was chairman for the evening and proposed many toasts, which were heartily responded to. Mr. J. Sheppard, president, rand S. Behan, yloe, president, responded on behalf of the club, and speeches were given by A. J. Anderson, E. G. E. Ffoulkes, J. F. Hass and A. B. Rice. During the evening songs were given by John Farrell and George Granger. The funeral of Miss Rice of Lambton Mills took place this afternoon to St. George's Cemetery, Islington, where the last sad rites were performed by Rev. H. O. Tremayne.

Association, which was held at Mr. Gregg's house on Saturday evening, proved to be a most enthusiastic gathering. There was a large attendance, the membership already numbering about fifty of the most prominent townspeople. The meeting was opened by the chairman, Mr. H. Waddington, and a general discussion followed upon a motion proposed by H. K. S. Hemming and seconded by John J. Gartshore, that all who had signed the requisition to the meeting should form, themselves into an association for the general benefit of the town. This being unanimously agreed to ,the election of officers was proceeded with, resulting as follows:

President—H. Waddington.
Vice-President—Dr. George W. Jackes.
Secretary—Henry R. Duke.
Four committees were then appointed, as follows: Railways and Bicycle Path—H. K. S. Hemming (chairman), T. A. Gibson, F. Grundy. Roads, Sidewalks, Water, Light and Drainage—Charles Bonnick (chairman), John Anderson, J. T. Couch. Parks and Gardens—W. R. Gregg (chairman), Richard Harper, Walter Muston. Advertising—F. Boulden (chairmen), R. Whittaker, H. Ruth-ven.

ven.

The chairmen of the four committees, together with the three elected officers, are to form the Executive Committee. The Executive were requested to draw up a constitution and report at the next general meeting, which is to be called in about ten days. The consensus of opinion was in favor of an invitation being sent to the citizens and ratepayers generally to join the association.
